

The Purity Covenant

Pray over this. Make this a goal for your life.

1 Thessalonians 4: 3-8

For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you abstain from sexual immorality; that each of you know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honor, not in lustful passion, like the Gentiles who do not know God; and that no man transgress and defraud his brother in the matter because the Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also told you before and solemnly warned you. For God has not called us for the purpose of impurity, but in sanctification. Consequently, he who rejects this is not rejecting man but the God who gives His Holy Spirit to you.

1 Corinthians 6: 18-20

Flee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the immoral man sins against his own body. Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from God, and that you are not your own? For you have been bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body.

Acts 24:16

In view of this, I also do my best to maintain always a blameless conscience both before God and before humanity..

Promise of Purity

- In obedience to God's command, I promise to protect the moral purity of my dates from this day until the day I am married.
- Because I respect and honor God, I commit to build up the inner person of the heart rather than violate my love interest.
- I pledge to show my love in ways that allow both of us to maintain a clear conscience before God and each other.
