The Way We Are

LIGHTS — CAMERA — ACTION . . .

Memories —

"Light the corners of my mind,
Misty water — colored memories —
of the way we were —"

"Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind, smiles we gave to one another for the way we were — can it be that it was all so simple then or has time rewritten every line? If we had the chance to do it all again tell me would we?
Could we? . . ."

"Memories may be beautiful and yet,
What's too painful to remember we simply choose to forget. So it's the laughter we will remember, whenever we remember the way we were."

Do you remember the way we were?
The way we were . . . or were we??

(From the way we were Lyrics by Alan and Marilyn Bergman)

Mr. Meidingeer,

We dedicate this annual to you!

These past years you've stuck by us, cheered us on, laughed, and cried with us. We needed your support and you freely gave it.

You taught us and shared with us, but most of all you showed us a glimpse of the Christen life, and we appreciate it.

We've grown to love you and even though you must move on . . . We want to wish you God's blessing in everything you do. May you continue to be as special to others as you have been to us. Thank-you for being our friend!

Friendly familiar faces, we've seen them all! People caring for other people is what we will remember of our east.

The Cast

Starring:

The Seniors

Where does the time go? This year we were the stars, but now what?

Where do we go from here? We've shared so much together, but now it's time to move on, to continue to grow.

Going new places, meeting new friends, and having great new experiences.

The memories will linger on.

Senior Officers: President — Terry Moran; V-Pres. — Lezlie Keltner; Sec. — Jan Hayes; Treas. — Gigi Blackburn; Chaplain — Brett Robinson; Chorister — Randy Randall
Pianist — Daisy Hasse; Activities Director — Sherry! McBroom; Sgt. — Arms Arlen Schroetlin.

Senior Wills

I, Barry Brown, will my dry jokes to Shelly Meyer and Cherie Gruesbeck.

I, Paul Vaudrevil, will my good looks, my charm, my unsurpassed popularity with women and other mythical traits to Tim Seibly.

I, Mark Aden, will my utterly fantastic memory to uh, to uh, . . .

We, Zendi Hanson and Laura Sorenson, will our simple insanity to Whitney Erickson and Barb Jorgenson.

I, Sandi VanDalsen, will my sense of humor, dry jokes and ability to be crazy under any circumstances to Sandi Hall.

I, Sharon Claridge, will my late nights and all the hearts in the world to Jan Jessop.

I, Nancy Mandigo, will my ability to run into and trip over "certain people" to Annette Mandigo, and to Renita Reeves my ability to gain 10 pounds in a school year.

I, Susan Johnson, will my ability of being at the wrong place at the right time to Monita Bass, and my supreme skill in putting things off until the very last moment & staying up late to do them to my roommate Lisa Walker, and my long hair to Kerry Sharpe. May you have better luck than I did.

I, Linda Griffiths, being of sound mind, will my extra sleeping hours to Annette Mandigo, my ability to spend 4 years U.C.A. to Gaylin Griffiths, and my ability to keep a tidy room to Jan Jessop.

I, Jan Littler, will my ability to peacefully argue with my roommate to Laurie Littler, my infamous trenchcoat to Rhett Unger, and my curly hair to Ted Carcich.

I, Deana Hiner, will my senior social studies to Mary Lynn Franks, may she have many happy long hours of studying.

I, Steve Rose, will the script to the movie Pollyanna to Karla Harding.

I, Carla Klam, will to Julie Hiner my uncanny ability to sleep through anything.

I, Lezlie Keltner, Will my "good" room grades to Katte and my ability to stay on a "diet" and out of trouble to Scott Volyn.

I, Mark Johnson, will my ability to do Lay-ups to my brother Mike.

I, LaVon Fisher will my tardies in Biology to Pam Ferguson, and 10 lbs. to Shelly Bean.

I, Mindi Skeels, being of a sound mind, do hereby will all my late nights, early mornings & crazy "study periods" (also my job) to Deanne Whybark. My "cute smile" to Rod Tataryn, and to Rhett Unger I say, "May you always have messy hair!"

I, Arlen Schroetlin, will my position in the "Morning Breakfast Crew" to anyone who happens to get up a minute and a half before he goes to breakfast.

I, Debbie Schaffer, will my ketchup squashing abilities and hugs to Cyndee Anderson.

I, Rich Simpson, will my great sense of humor to Mr. Hacko, in hopes that he will appreciate it.

I, Kim Adams, will 4 inches, 2 shoes sizes and my ability to always be on time to Mellissa Mitchell.

I, Brett Robinson, will my faithfulness through all hours of the night even in the dead of winter, to next year's unfortunate night watch.

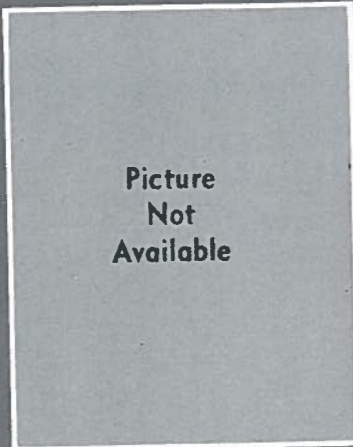

I, Myron Iseminger, will my oboe lips to Barb Jorgenson, and my dry jokes to the drinking fountain in the Ad. Building.

I, Jeannette Pollock, will my fantastic frog voice to Chery Finch.

We, the Senior Class of 1980, being educated in Kaneasis and Kaneasis, with our abstract minds, we hereby will all the X's and O's we could muster to our dear Mr. Munroe!

We've shared so much this year: A laugh, a smile, or even a tear. Good times, new friends, and love. As we remember these times we'll cherish them, and also look forward to the future.

UCA

Behind The Scenes

Christ in Action

"Anyone serious about a spiritual change taking place on campus, please stay after worship."

It was a direct, bold challenge given by Mrs. Kriner that memorable worship early this year. As an urgent expectancy pervaded the room, the majority of us remained.

More than ever, the fact of Jesus' soon coming pressed home, deeply embedding itself in our minds.

"What can we do to prepare ourselves and others?" This question focused our thinking. We knelt in earnest prayer to the One responsible for our convictions and solely able to give ideas for moving ahead with His program.

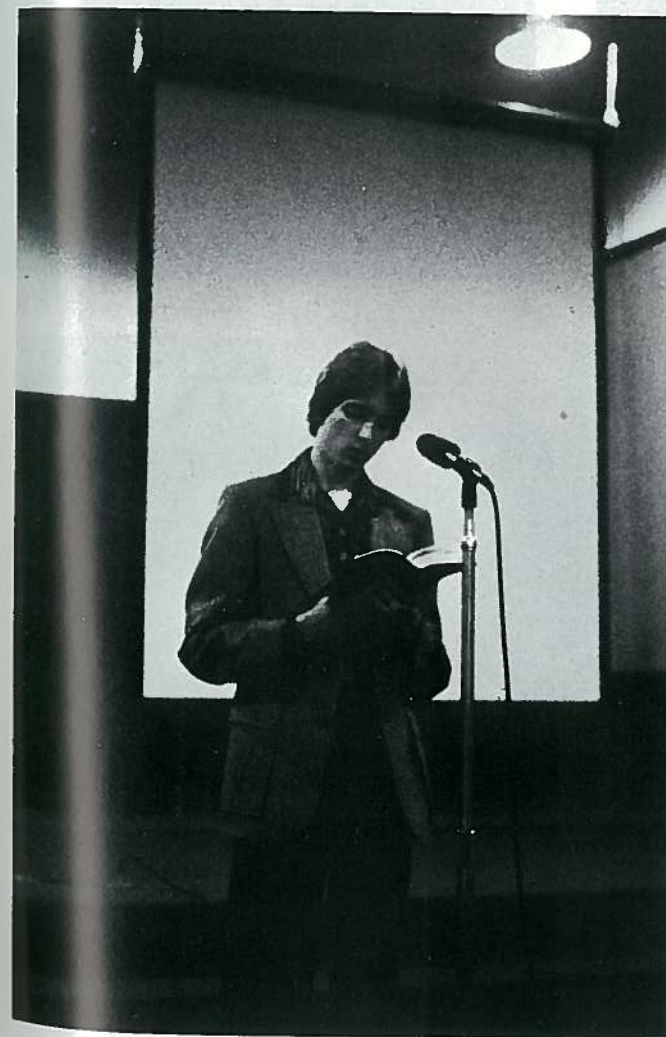

A prayerful, joyful group left the chapel that night, feeling like a miniature Pentecost had taken place.

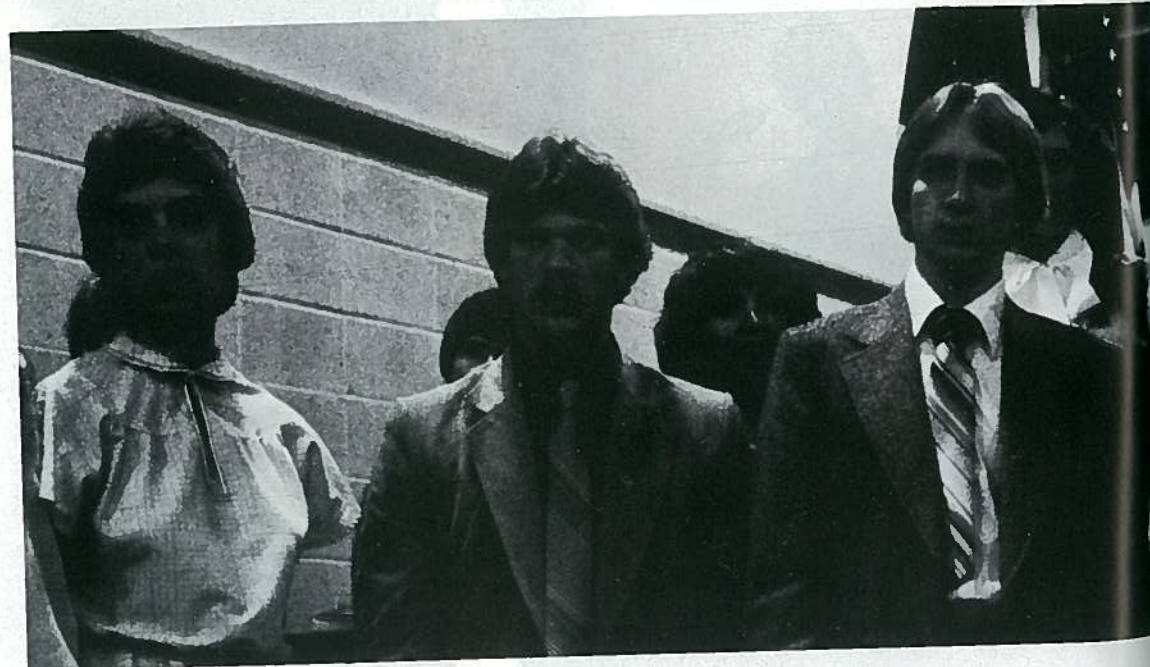

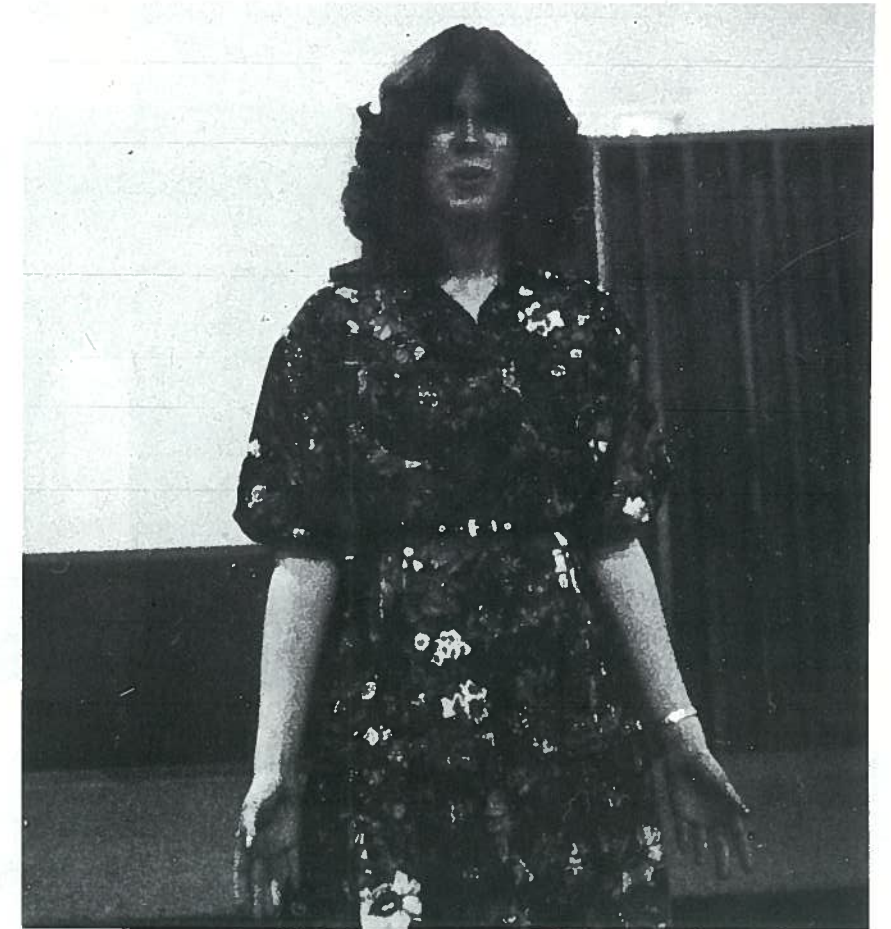

The year was filled with activities responding to this challenge. AYA groups went to small churches, giving the Sabbath programs. Those who participated experienced the power of the Holy Spirit working through them, giving strength and courage.

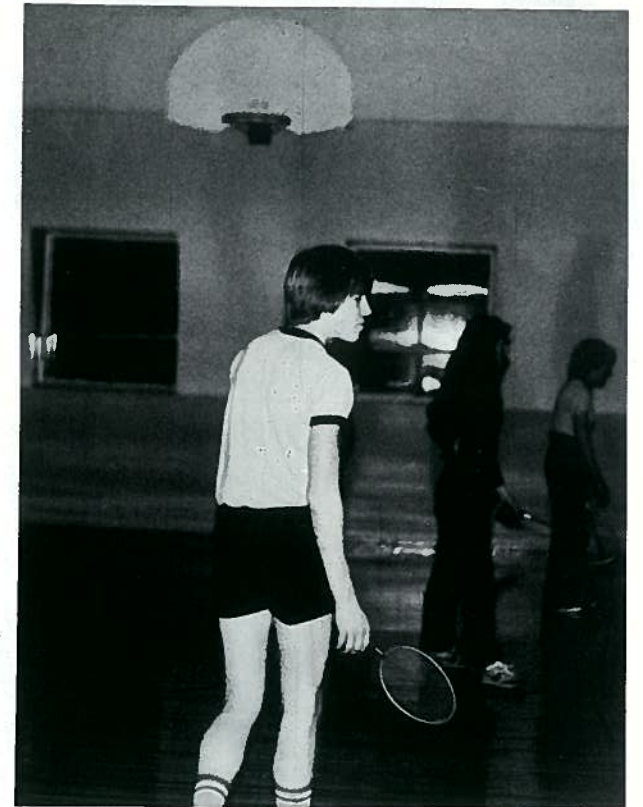

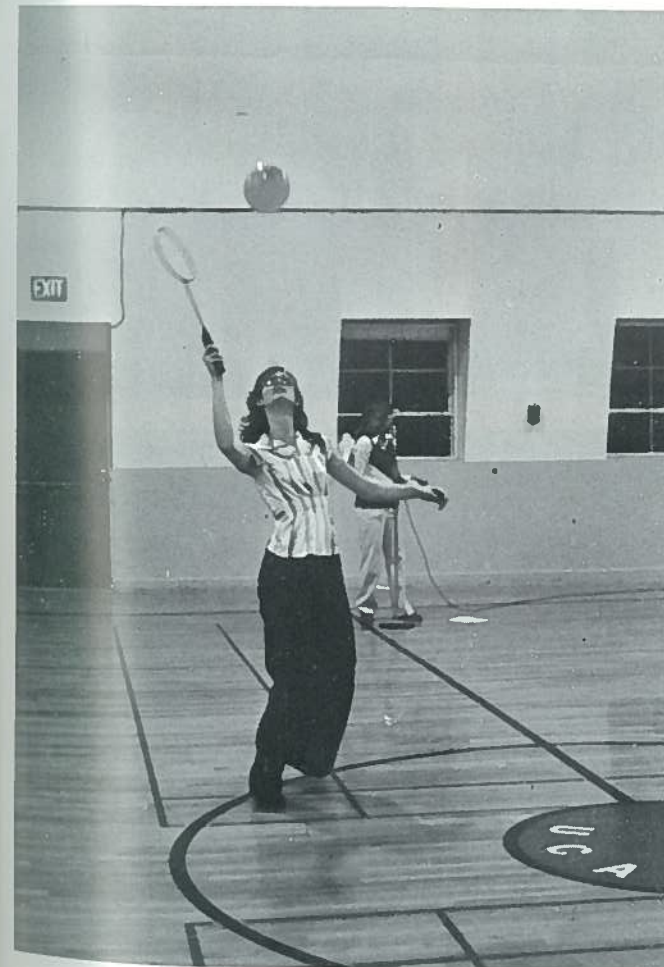

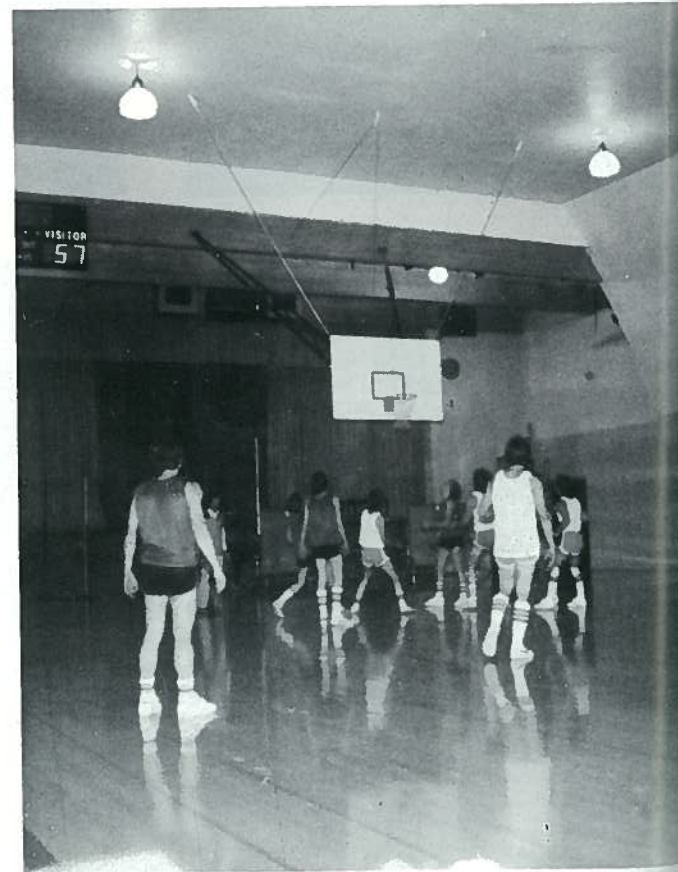

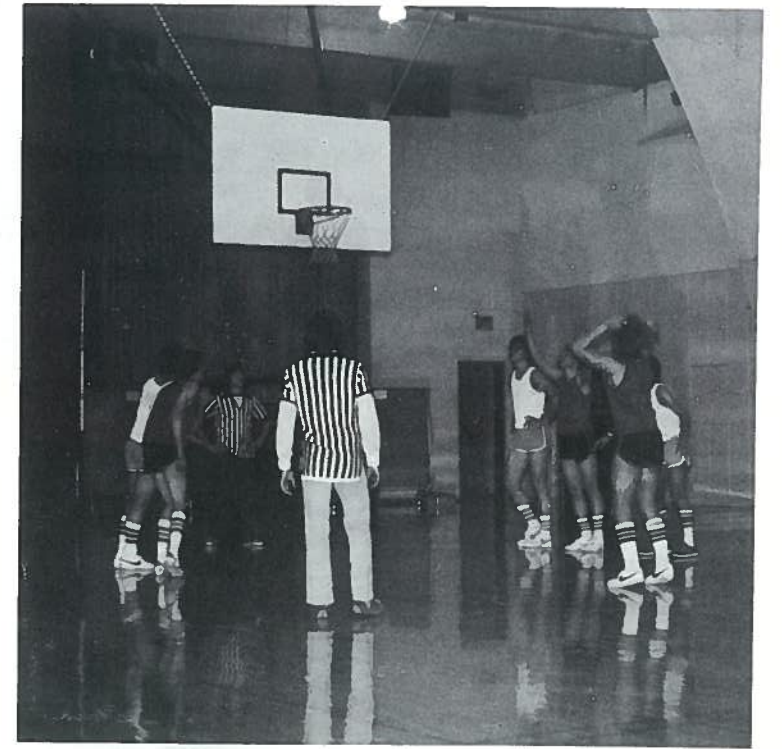

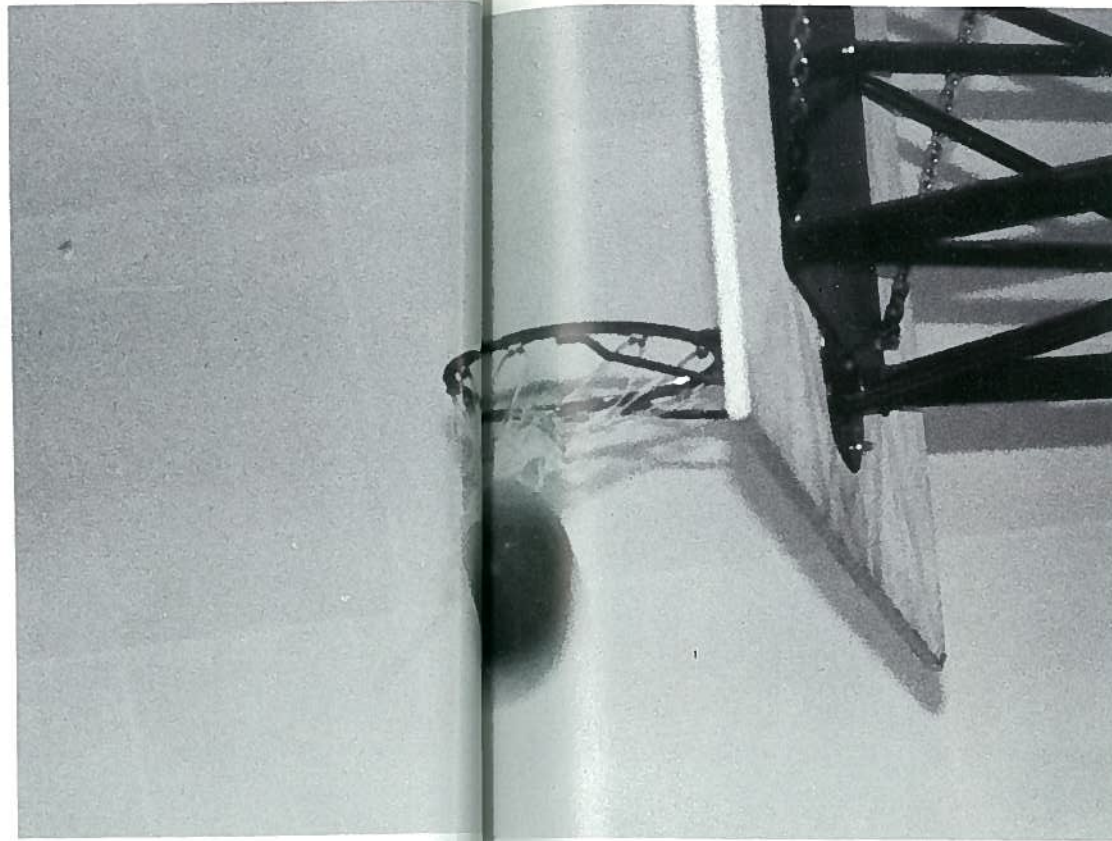

Campus study groups got started soon after school began. Prayer bands were a reality all year as students and staff strove to yield to God's presence and power.

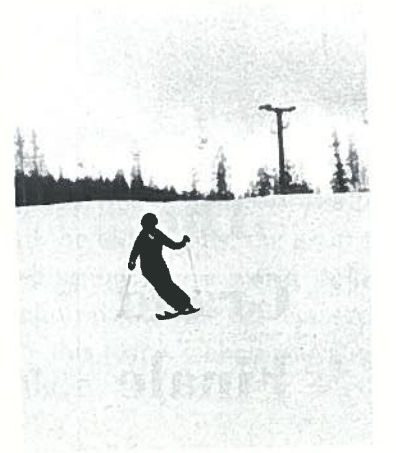

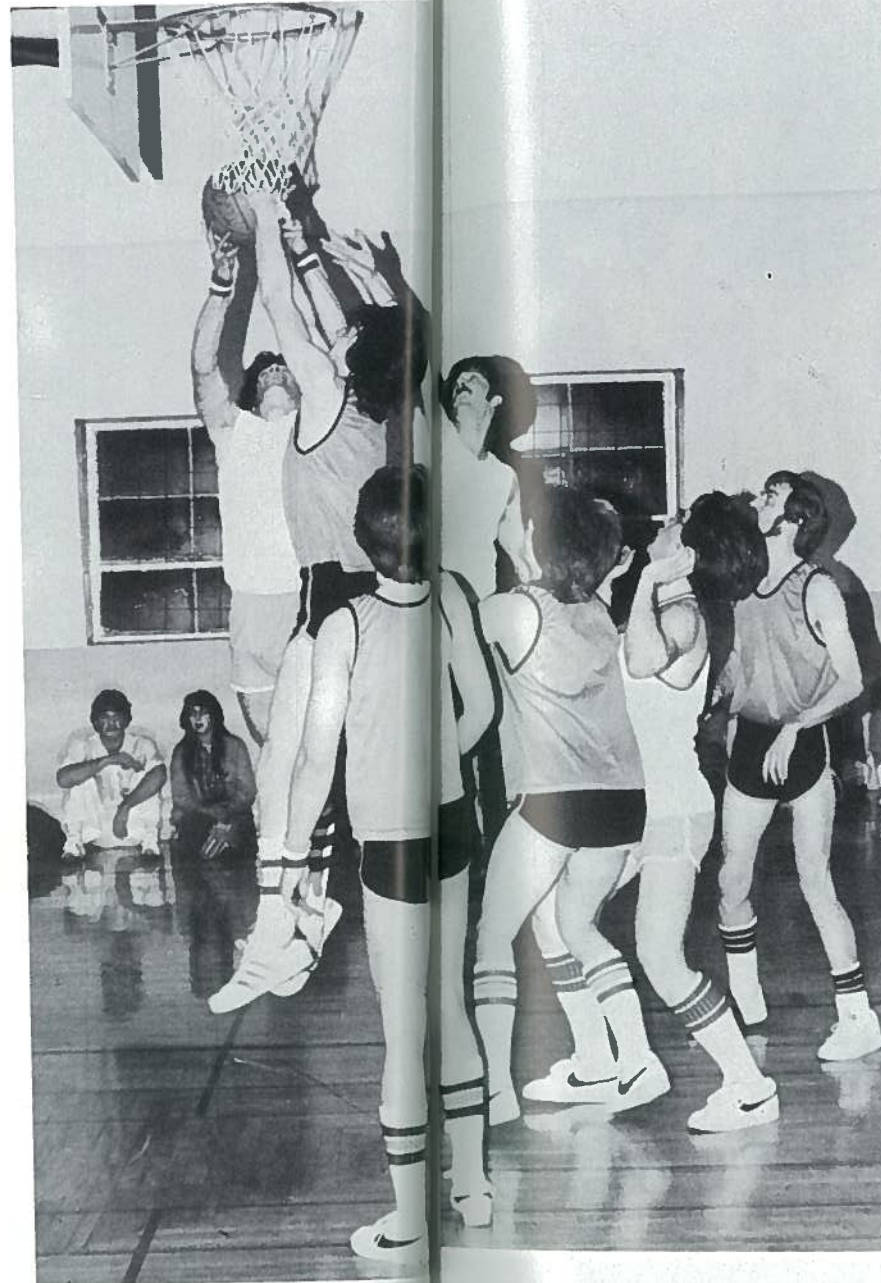

The witnessing team went to several churches — Brewster, Yakima, Stateline, Hermiston, Spokane SouthHill and Portland.

The following pictures are taken from the Portland trip and show various members of the team participating in the play and giving scripture.

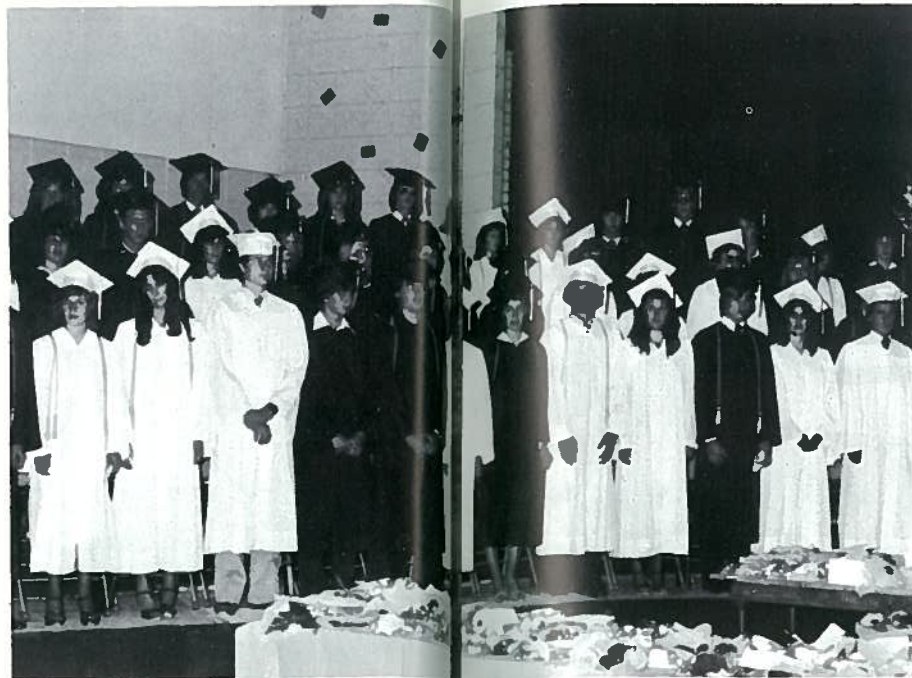

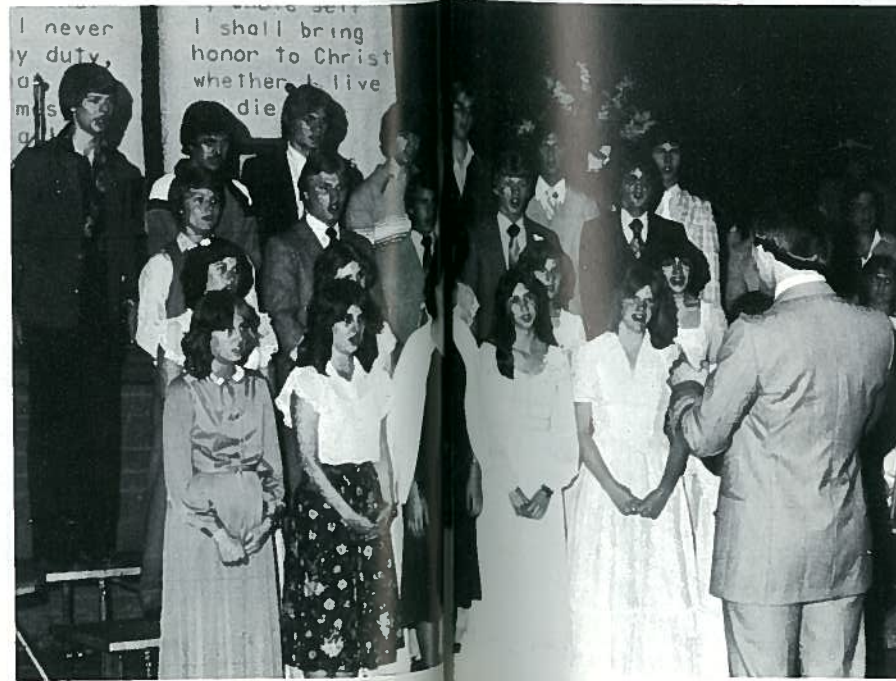

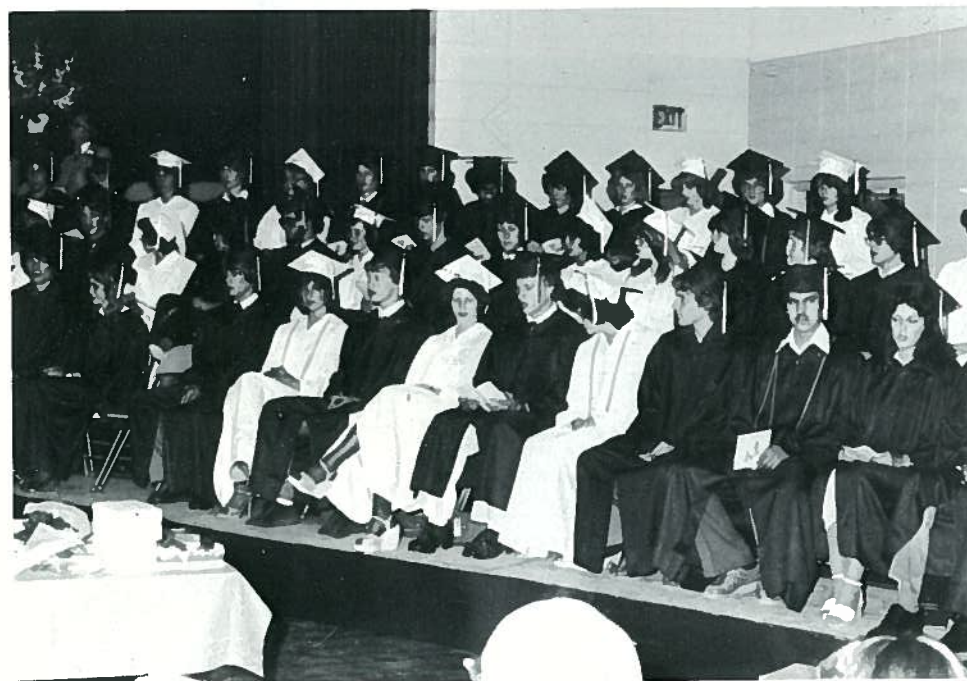

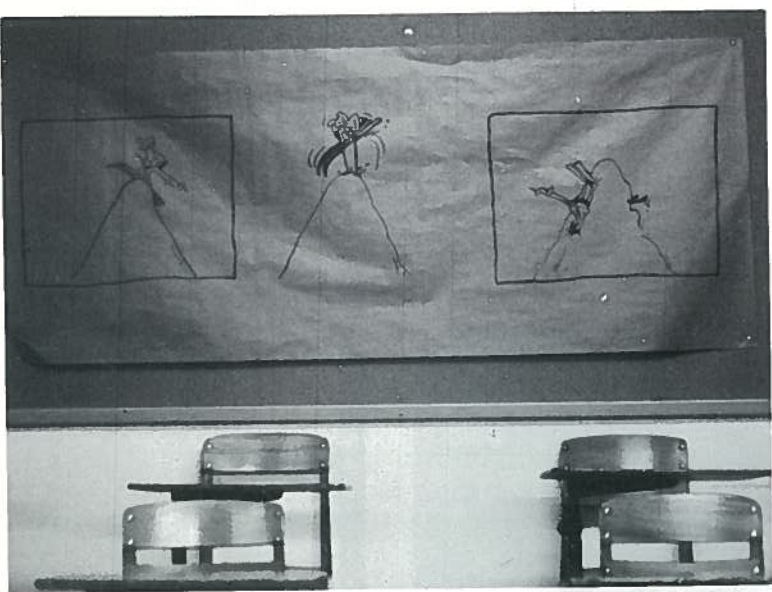

The Grand Finale

Graduation, — in the dictionary it means to receive a diploma — But to seniors it means much more. Saying good-bye to all the old friends, the great teachers, and the security of good old U.C.A. Pushing on into a world unknown. Scared but excited we move on. So on Graduation day as the seniors sang the words "The time has finally come for us to leave this place." There was a certain finality in their voices as they said Good-bye to U.C.A.

Skiing
 What memories! Some too painful to remember! How many times did you ski the trees — or should I say, Hit the trees. How about falling off the lift, or that time your binding didn't release on the face of 2. Yet we still faithfully every Sunday morning returned to Mt. Spokane for another beating. Was it worth it? You just ask any skier. It was more than worth it.

A Tribute To Friends

Of all life has to offer,
of all that's great and true,
That which means the most to me
is being friends with you.

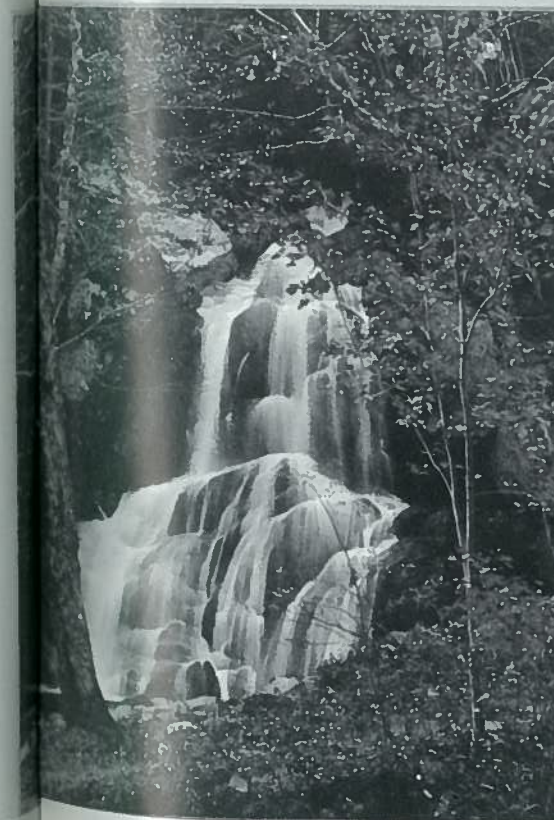

Vicki C. Wyatt

Keep your face to the sunshine
and you cannot see the shadow.

Helen Keller

Times change
and we with time,
But not in the ways
of friendship.

A friend is one who knows instinctively when little things are wrong and who,
with a stroke of kindness,
can smooth the ruffled waters,
returning an easy calm.

Stills From The Movie

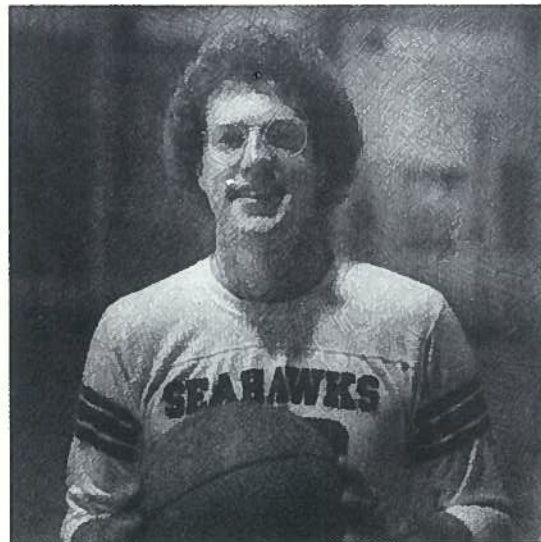

Our Students Make Us Special.

Socially aware.
Intellectually alert.
Spiritually committed.
The Walla Walla College student.

Consider the volunteer service record, for example. Last year, WWC students donated more than 3,000 hours of assistance to social service agencies.

On campus, students are actively involved in more than 25 special interest clubs, student government, academic enrichment programs and recreational events. Student representatives serve on nearly all of the faculty committees.

And while their involvement reaches into the heart of campus and community life, it doesn't stop there.

Since the Student Missionary program began, 358 WWC students have donated a year of service to foreign missions. Each returns with valuable insights that help create a vibrant, cosmopolitan atmosphere.

It's this kind of grass-roots involvement that gives WWC students the opportunity to become leaders now, and in the future. It's this kind of involvement that makes them special.

At WWC, we plan our entire program around the miraculous potential of man working with God. Here, leaders are born — and born again.

If you'd like to know more about our students or our programs, write us: Information Office, Walla Walla College, College Place, WA 99324.

Boy do we ever remember. I never thought I'd see the day when we got to wear jeans to class, or Mr. Hacko cancel all voice lessons & Choraliers. Remember the bandanas? I'm sure we all looked like a bunch of cowboys. What a mess that stuff was, but with much effort and determination, we did get it — almost — cleaned up by Graduation.!
