Echo Log
1947

FOREWORD . . .

It is fall, it is winter, it is spring. It is school, it is work, it is church. It is studying, it is playing, it is planning. This is school. This is Upper Columbia Academy. This book has been written to recapture those moments that time has taken from our todays and placed on the pages of our yesterdays. Our ECHO LOG staff in collaboration with the Associated Student Body of Upper Columbia Academy presents the 1947 ECHO LOG.

.... Who Walked With Us ....

Claudia McAllister
Class of '49

DEDICATION . . . .

To Elder F. A. Mote, whose friendly attitude has won the students, whose efforts have helped to raise many thousands of dollars for our school, whose timely sermons have proved an inspiration, and whose exemplary life has encouraged students to seek that which is high and noble, we affectionately dedicate this 1947 ECHO LOG.

WORDS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE CONFERENCE . . . .

Upper Columbia Academy stands for high ideals, which include the harmonious development of the mental, physical and spiritual powers. Our conference believes in Upper Columbia Academy and its students—past, present and future. We are indeed grateful for both the faculty and student body, for it is such a training as our Academy gives that provides workers of every class to fill the many needs in our rapidly growing work.

"God wants the youth to become men of earnest mind, to be prepared for action in His noble work, and fitted to bear responsibilities."

"It is conscientious attention to what the world terms 'little things' that makes life a success. Little deeds of charity, little acts of self-denial, speaking simple words of helpfulness, waching against little sins—this is Christianity. A grateful acknowledgement of daily blessings, a wise improvement of daily opportunities, a diligent cultivation of intrusted talents,—this is what the Master calls for." Messages to Young People, pp. 21, 143.

No effort is too great today in order that tomorrow we may fill with efficiency and dignity the place God has prepared for us.

F. A. Mote.

Beneath its cold brick exterior lies a heart teeming with laughter and tears, voices and silence, industry and play, cheerfulness and perplexities, and friendliness and love. This is the home of our girls.

Within the legendary school room, in the Principal's Office, at the Registrar's Window, at the Business Office, in the Library, in the Chapel, this generation of students learns to think, to study, to live, to work, to worship.

SCHOOL SONG

To you, our dear old Alma Mater,
We'll ever be true.
Undying love and loyalty,—
We pledge our lives anew to you.

U. C. A., forever
We shout abroad your dear old name.
Black and gold your colors—
They stand for your fame.

Through your halls we'll wander
And from your standards never sway.
We'll fill our place where'er it be
And stand true to U. C. A.

Shirley Merth
Merrie Fisher
Ardena Mote
Marilyn Beane

The gentle autumn season in our land turns the fat green wheat heads into a golden ocean, snuggling our U. C. A. in its gilded depths. The gold of the wheat and the black of the soil have been the inspiration for the school colors—black and gold.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE . . .

Bible prophecy clearly reveals that the closing events of this world's history are upon us. Seventh-day Adventist youth are charged with the divinely appointed task of finishing the work of God on earth. A trained mind and hand, along with a fully consecrated heart, can accomplish this worth-while goal. The words of Jesus clearly define our primary objective, "And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent."

Freshmen

"That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones,
polished after the similitude of a palace:"

Psalm 144:12

The science of the soul, the science of the physical world, the science of language, the science of human relations and the science of work are studied by every freshman, sophomore, junior and senior.

Fall is a time of planting seed thoughts—winter, a time of growth—spring, a time of fulfillment.

"The leaders of tomorrow will be men and women who have learned lessons today."—T. Little.

The heritage of God gleans lessons in Christian life in our Sabbath School. The Sabbath School officers give direction to this study each Sabbath day.

Youth receives experience in program planning, preparation and presentation in its own Missionary Volunteer Society, a society which has accepted as its challenge "The Gospel Message to all the World in This Generation."

Anderson, I. Hendricksen.
Front: L. Johnson, J. Thomas, G. Coopridner, M. Leiske, A. Ritz.

The soul in faith reaches out to find God during a "season of prayer." Blending the inspired word of the Spirit of Prophecy and the Bible and other patterns for life, leaders of the Prayer Bands guide each soul toward "God's Country."

Preparing for the harvest of the world which is ripening this day, Ministerial Band members get practical experience in giving Bible studies and speeches on Biblical topics.

The tenderness of an old hymn, the strangeness of a ballad, the thrill of a love song are interpreted by the Girls' Glee under the direction of Mr. George Chalker.

The Boys' Glee expresses the vigor of youth and young lusty voices as their voices blend together in song.

Back: W. Osborne, L. Dorner, F. Jones, M. Harris, W. Shaw, R. Ludden.
Front: Mr. George Chalker, V. Jordan, D. Tall, D. Thomas, C. Spaulding, V. Pewitt, B. Wood, R. Benfield.

Students will not forget the lessons of life as they were learned through reproof, through warning, through inspiration, in kindness and in love on the "carpet" which was not "green" in the office of our principal.

Painstaking and persevering, Mr.
Bingle, Mabel Lockert, and Marjorie Mase record the grades, make out grade slips, fill out transcripts of grades and take care of the absence list.

All that passes through the Business
Office is not gold—namely, the little pink statements passed out each month.
Rhoda Lockert, Jean Wickward, Corinne
Pflugrad, Geneveve Richert, Mrs. H. E.
Weaver and Mr. Fouts find their days full of enterings, postings, provings, tabulatings, sellings.

The magic of literature, the mystery of sciences, the beauty of art, the philosophies of religion can all be viewed through the "open door" of the printed page. Alice Anderson checks out a History of English Literature to scholar Marilyn Schlehuber.
Darlene Lake files a card in the card file.

The homely smells of cooked apples, potatoes, beans and other tantalizing scents permeate the kitchen vicinity even long after such hunger extinguishers are extinct. Mrs. Brown and her servers await the army of appetites that need to be satisfied three times a day.

The Powerhouse extends its warming influence through the Academy buildings, turning a little piece of black coal into heat—into steam—into heat energy—into results measurable by grade marks. John Nord, Mr. Clymer, Wayne Hanson and Dick Ludden keep the Boiler Room under control.

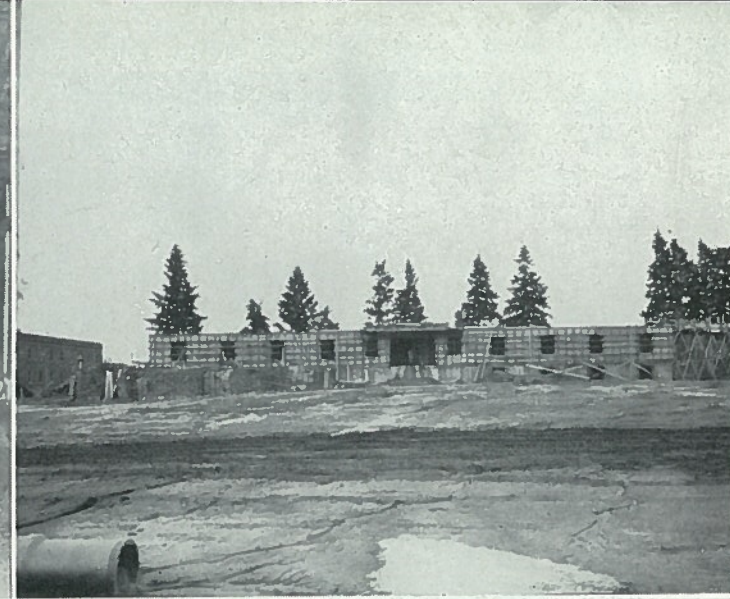

Not a suggestion of tattle-tale gray is left when the pageant of "A Wash is Washed" is enacted. Carol Mohr, Geraldine Ellis, Marjorie Pryhorocki, and Della Thomas manipulate flat work at the mangle while Bob Franks herds the clothes through the washing machine and tumbler under the direction of Mrs. Baldwin.

Fashioning unwieldy pieces of lumber into furniture for girls' and boys' rooms, for the Administration Building and for faculty homes is the job of the Wood Shop crew. Mr. Boyes instructs Farrell Jones and Don Thomas in the mechanics of the saws and planes. Don Seabold, Don Tucker and Paul Hellie work in the back-ground.

Our dairy cows are in the process of manufacturing the milk which the students consume each day. Norman Edwards and Jim Eastham under the supervision of Mr. Baldwin anticipate the pleasures of the milking "season" which lasts two hours each milking.

Mrs. Fouts helps Rhoda Lockert, Wayne Hanson, Dean Tall, Donna Osborn and La Vonne Henyan to give new angles to the Spangle Angle, yearly publication.

Foot by foot the Boys' Dormitory comes into reality to house our boys next year.

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness, it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was . . ." discussed by our deans.
