Published by

THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS

UPPER COLUMBIA ACADEMY

SPANGLE, WASHINGTON

Foreword

We the Annual Staff of Upper Columbia Academy present this 1951 Echo Loc for your enjoyment, and for a reference in later years.

Dedication

When the golden sun is sinking, Down behind the mountain's crest. We can hear the tree tops sighing, In the breezes sweet carress.

Then our minds begin to wander, To our parents true and kind, Who have sacrificed to help us, There's no truer love to find.

When our trials seem too many, And our load too hard to bear, We can always know they're with us, As they breathe a silent prayer.

Dearest golden hearted parents, With your love so kind and true, God will rain his many blessings, On our Home Sweet Home, and you.

The happiness you've brought us, We will always keep in view. This Echo Log of memories, We will dedicate to you.

-Freda King.

W. L. Schoepflin

The Principal's Message

This has been a good year. The fine Christian spirit manifested by the school family has been an inspiration to me. Worth-while gains have been made in scholarship; The Lord can use trained youth. Gains have been made spiritually; God's work needs consecrated youth. Gains have been made physically; we must be physically fit. The teachers and students of Upper Columbia Academy extend a cordial welcome to all youth who want the best in education.
