ECHO LOG OF 1952

Published by
THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS
UPPER COLUMBIA ACADEMY
SPANGLE, WASHINGTON.

FOREWORD

The voyage of another school year has been completed. We have enjoyed many friendships and pleasant experiences. To preserve a few of these memories, and to picture life at Upper Columbia Academy we, the Annual Staff, wish to present our 1952 Echo Log.

Dedication

To Elder C. Lester Bond, whose exemplary Christian life, kindly sincere manner, and friendliness to the young people have endeared him to the students of Upper Columbia Academy, the 1952 Echo Log is affectionately dedicated in the hope that it might be an expression of our appreciation of his love for us.

In Memoriam

Now and then in our continual march of this life one of our faithful members is compelled to lay down his burdens and rest for a while.

Mr. Robert Sturdevant, our beloved friend and teacher, was thus called from us. A short pause and the wheels of knowledge resumed their busy revolutions, but his short time with us has made its powerful impression on our minds, and the place he has vacated will remain unoccupied; a monument to his memories.

The stimulation of the imagination, the enrichment of the emotions, the acquisition of knowledge, although important objectives of all educational institutions, are not the ultimate aims of Christian education. The sine qua non, the all important business of life for students and teachers, is to know Christ and to make Him known.

Justification for a school like Upper Columbia Academy lies in the conviction and belief that Jesus is coming soon to take those that have successfully met the prerequisites of the Master Teacher for matriculation in that school where "the grandest enterprises will be carried forward, the loftiest aspirations will be reached, the highest ambitions realized."

Students and teachers, as we say farewell, some to return in a few short weeks, others never to return, it is with the hope that you will constantly seek the Master Teacher's counsel in all things. Commit yourselves with undivided hearts to Him. He will show you how to live and give you strength to follow His example.

The changed condition of the earth through the curse of sin has brought a change in the conditions of labor; yet though now attended with anxiety, weariness, and pain, it is still a source of happiness and development. And it is a safeguard against temptation. Its discipline places a check on self-indulgence, and promotes industry, purity, and firmness.

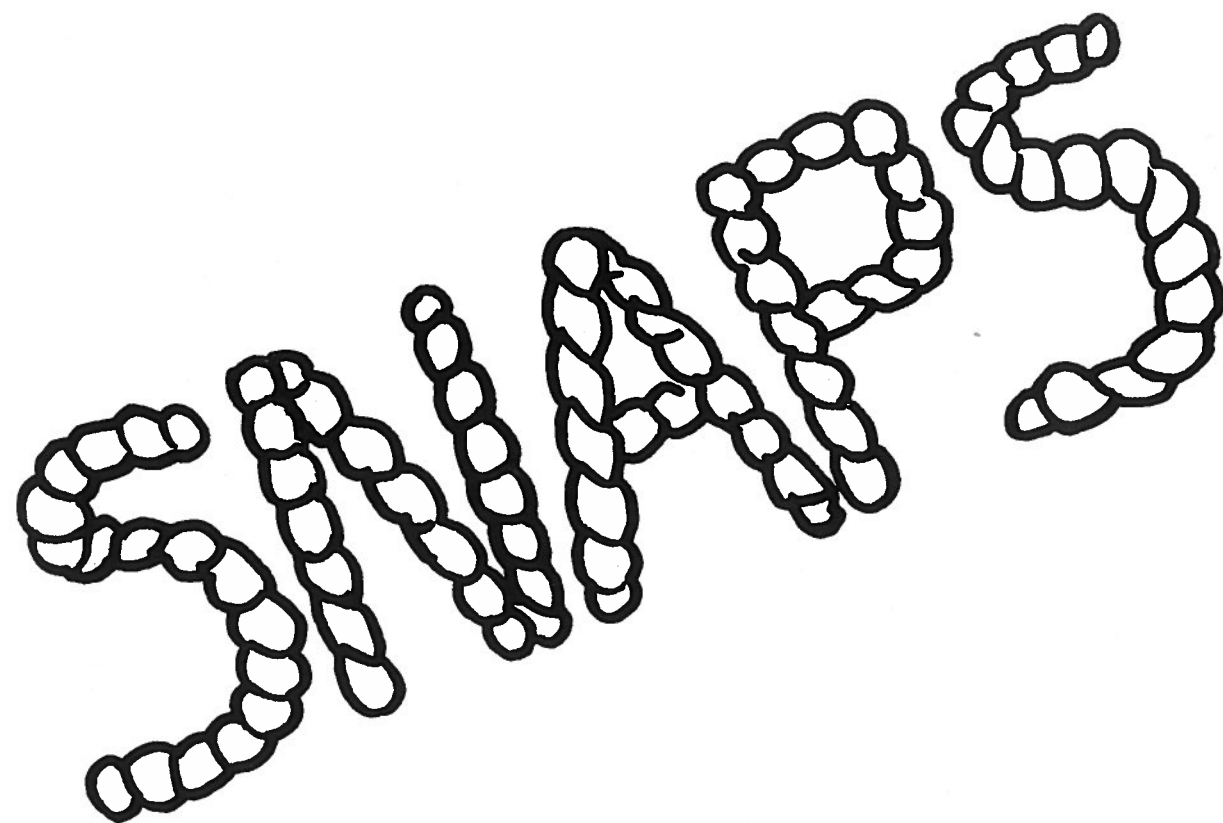

A youth so trained, whatever his calling in life, so long as it is honest, will make his position one of usefulness and honor.
