

Our days

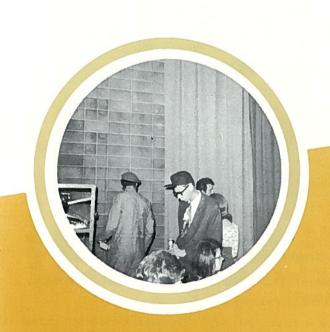

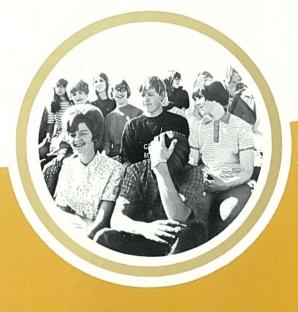

U C A - ites

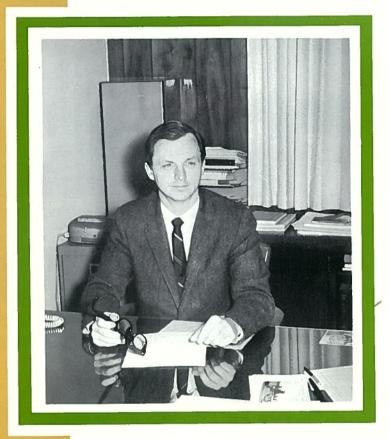

in ACTION

From The Principal's Desk

An academy yearbook is supposed to be a collection of memories; perhaps it ought also serve as a reminder of the things we should forget. The ability to remember the good and forget the unpleasant is certainly not the least of God's gifts to men. That we are to exercise this ability as Christians is clear from the following counsel from Ellen White:

"Have there not been some bright spots in your experience?... When you look back into the chapters of your life experience do you not find some pleasant pages?... It is not wise to gather together all the unpleasant recollections of a past life,—its iniquities and disappointments,—to talk over them and mourn over them until we are overwhelmed with discouragement... Thank God for the bright pictures which He has presented to us."

This book is an excellent way to remember those bright pictures—the songs and prayers, the fun and laughter, the wonder of discovery which we have shared. It is my sincere hope that as we look through these pages there will often come into your heart and mine a great longing to see these dear faces again in that "land of pure delight where pleasures banish pain."

-J. D. Roberts Principal

Mrs. Holmes is secretary to the Principal.

Mrs. Leadbetter smilingly makes another sale for the school store.

Faculty

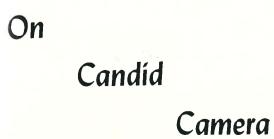

!!SMILE!!

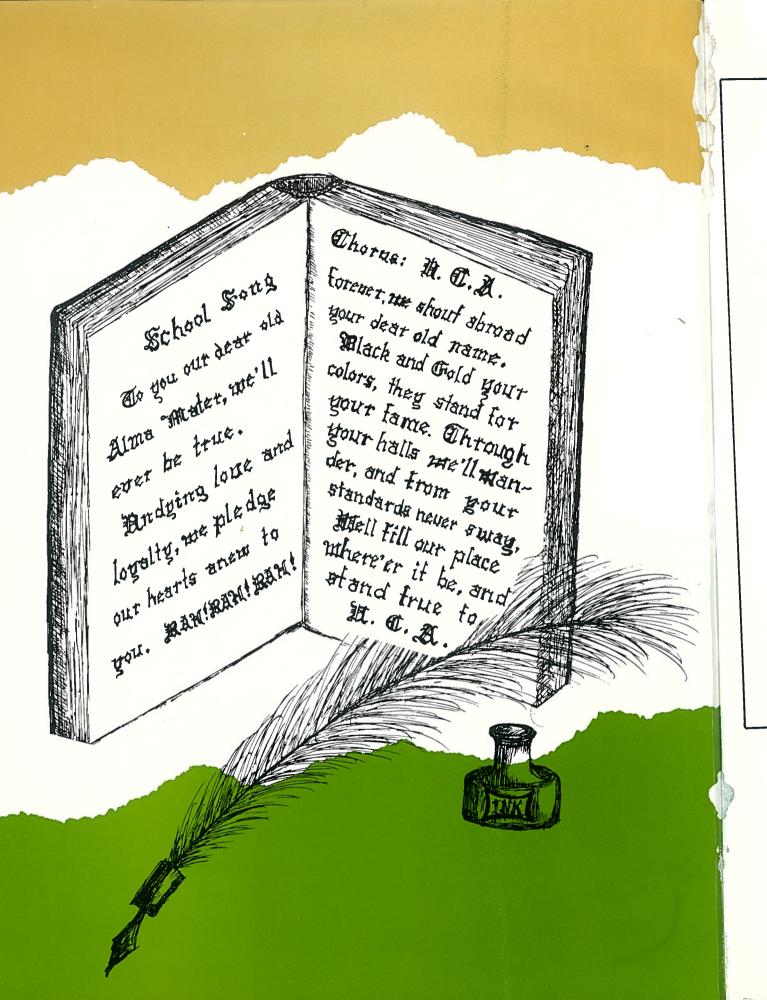

What are you looking for, Mr. Schmidt?

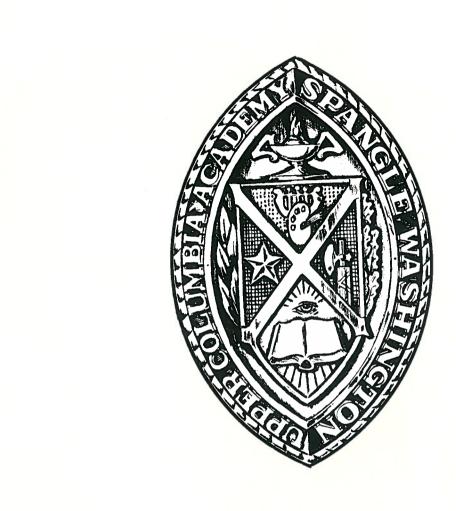

Those were the good ole days, weren't they Mr. and Mrs. Rouse!

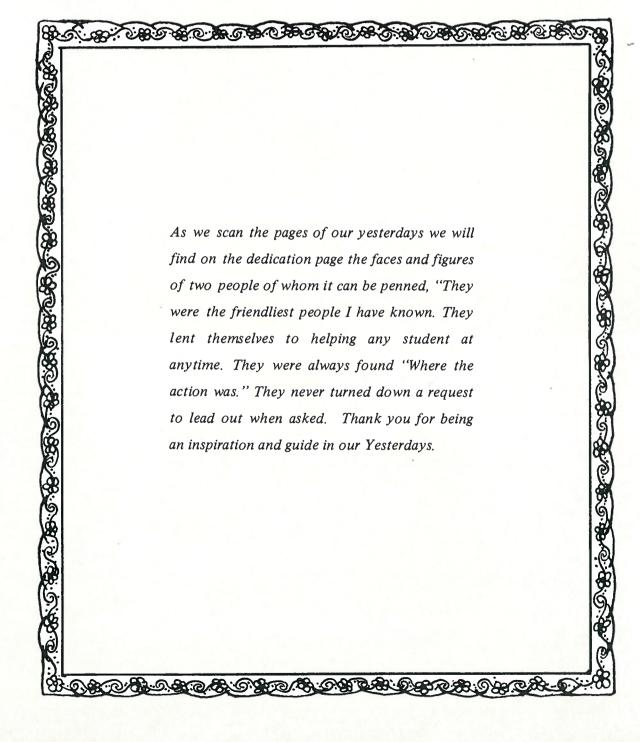

OUR SCHOOL SEAL—Did you realize that each symbol in the seal stands for some phase of Christian education? The Robe Border denotes friendship, the shield is symbolic of defense, and the forming quadants, is the symbol "Chi" (X) representing Christ. The star stands for aim and aspiration, the lyre and palette for arts, the mace signifing authority, and the seeing eye of God and the open book represent the fact that God will hold us responsible and he expects us to make worthy of our leisure time. The lamp of Truth is the light of knowledge, the laurel leaves for achievement, and the oak leaves symbolic of strength and courage.

ECHO LOG STAFF

Sandy Beck Editor

Jean Spechko Co-Editor

Passed by us now is a year of picnics, parties, homework, banquets, sports events, weeks of prayer, and many, many memories.

These moments have been compiled into the pages of this yearbook with TLC (tender loving care).

It is my wish that you leaf through these pages, in future years, it will serve as a reminder of OUR YESTERDAYS.
