The Echo Log

Upper Columbia Academy
Spangle, Washington

Editor: Betty Coleman

Ass't. Editor: Phyllis Spechko

Advisor: Nona Ludeman

The rope border surrounding our school seal denotes friendship.

The star is representative of aim and aspiration. The lyre and palette are representative of the arts and the mace is representative of authority.

Below is the "seeing eye of God" and the open book. This is symbolic of the fact that God will hold responsible and he expects us to make worthy of our leisure time.

Cresting this shield is the lamp of truth — the light of knowledge.

Supporting these arms are the laurel leaves which are representative of achievement and the oak, symbolic of strength and courage.

The cover is sponsored by
Dr. and Mrs. Everett Coleman
Yakima, Washington

To you our dear old Alma Mater,
we'll ever be true.
Undying love and loyalty,
we pledge our hearts anew to you.

U.C.A. forever,
we shout abroad your dear old name.
Black and Gold your colors,
they stand for your fame.
Through your halls we'll wander,
and from your standards never sway,
We'll fill our place where'ere it be,
and stand true to U.C.A.

The chairman of our board is a man of long standing in the Sphere of Christian education.

He himself has stood before classes as an academy Bible teacher.

He has served on academy school boards for a period of twenty-seven years.

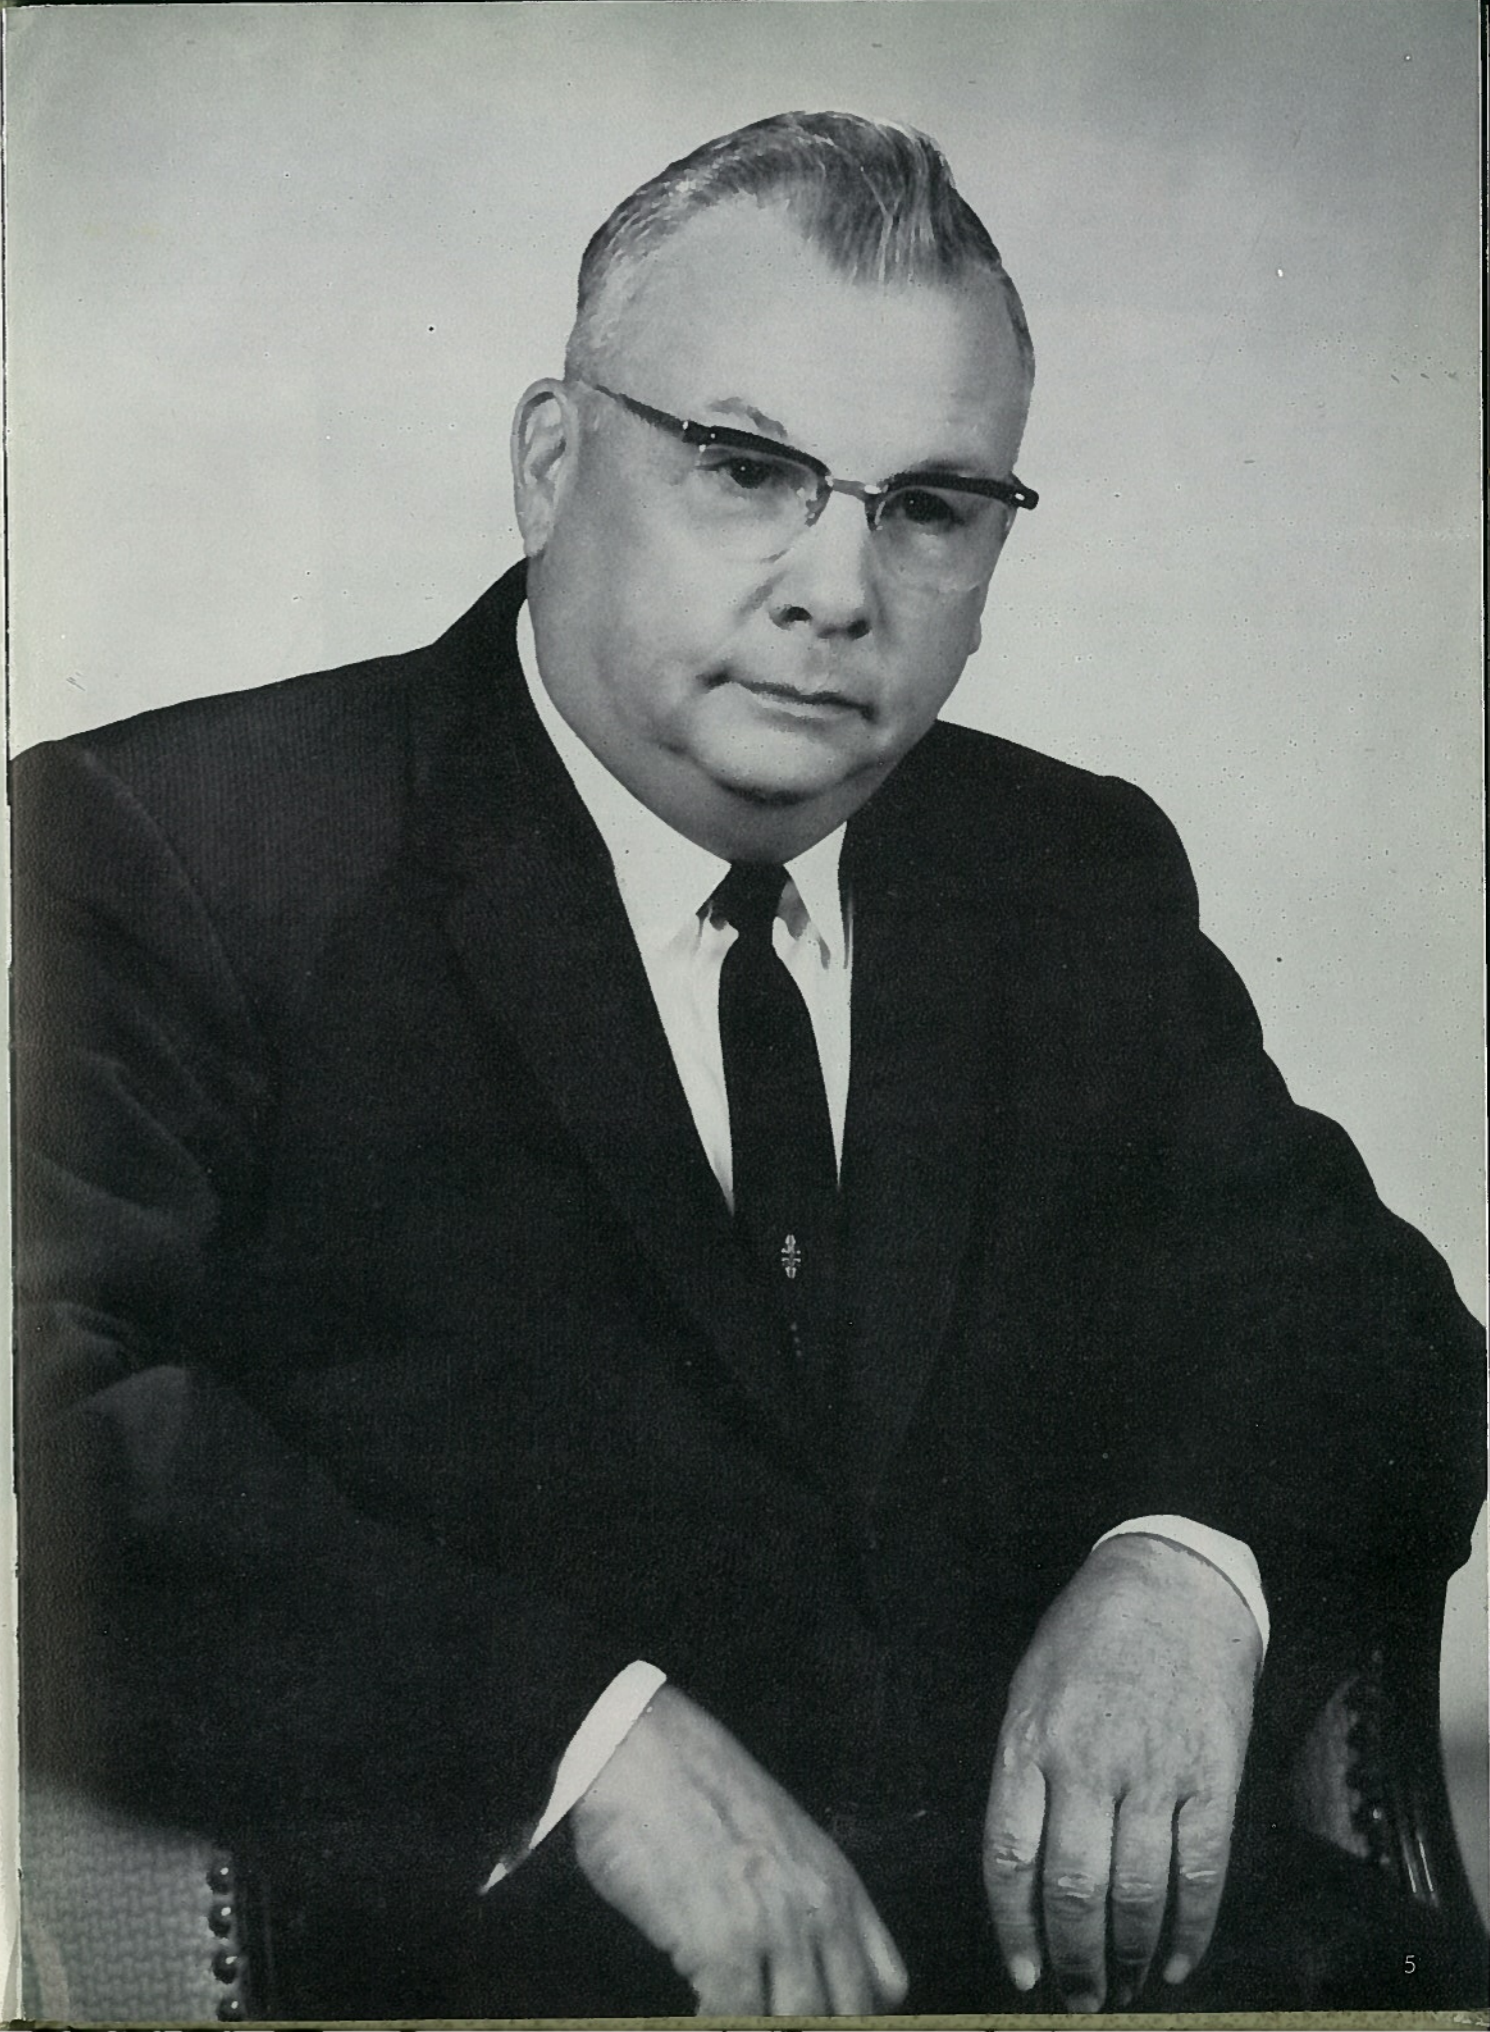

He has been chairman of academy boards in five different conferences.

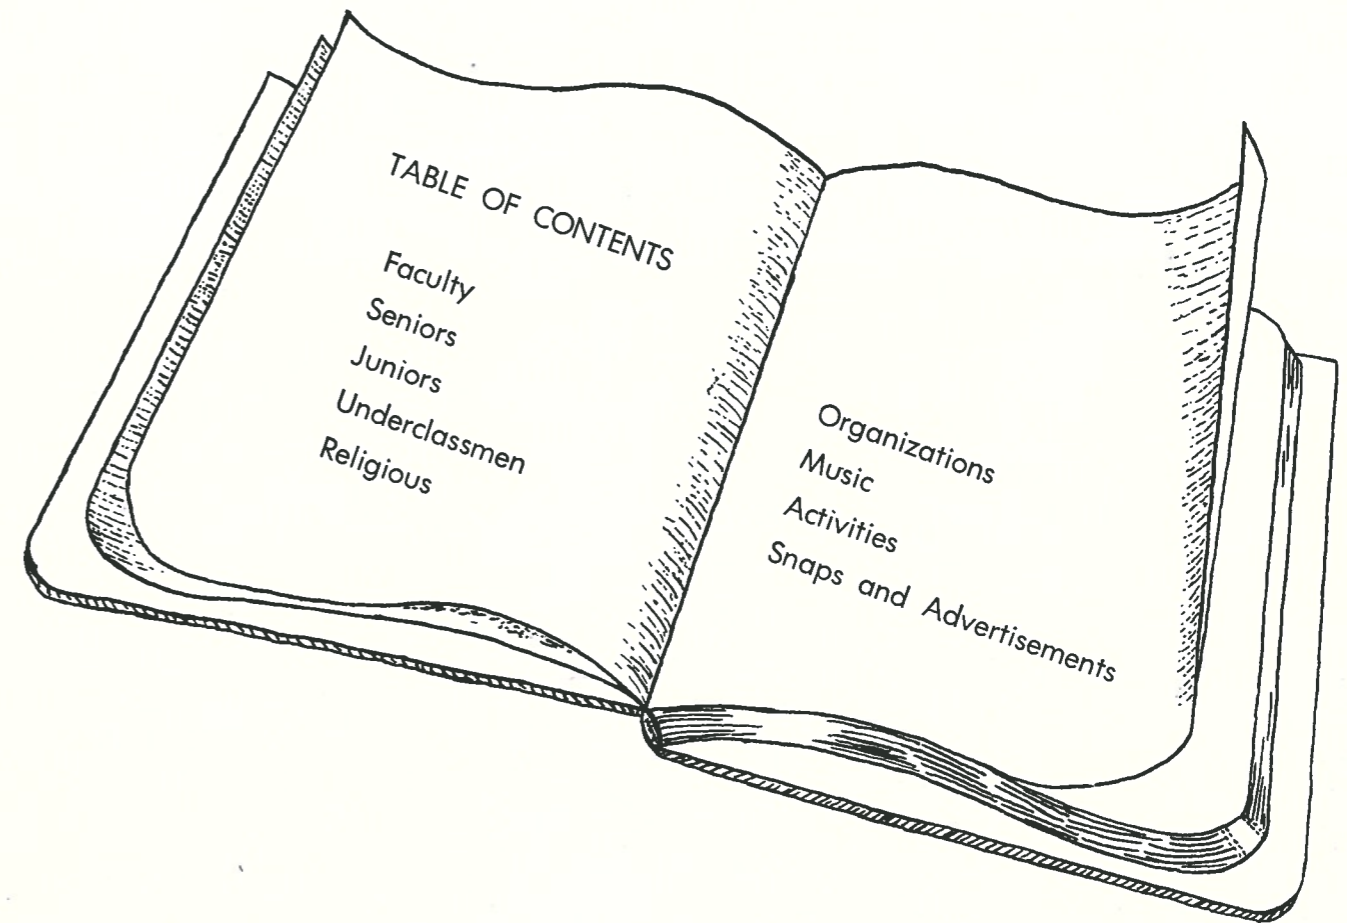

He is well known for his progressive outlook in the development of good facilities and quality education.

During the six years in which he has been Chairman of the Board of Upper Columbia Academy, milestones of accomplishments testify to his commitment to educational leadership.

From hearts filled with gratitude for your genuine interest in this school as evidenced in the rapid and well constructed development of the school plant, the provision to enlarge curricular offerings with its concomitant increase in staff, and the realization of state accreditation,

We affectionately and respectfully dedicate this 1963 Echo Log to you, Elder C. M. Bunker.

A Message From the Chairman of Our Board

To do his best everyone must have an incentive. To build the Upper Columbia Academy to its present status, the incentive of the Board, faculty and constituents has been the product of the school and the fine army of youth enrolled and to enroll.

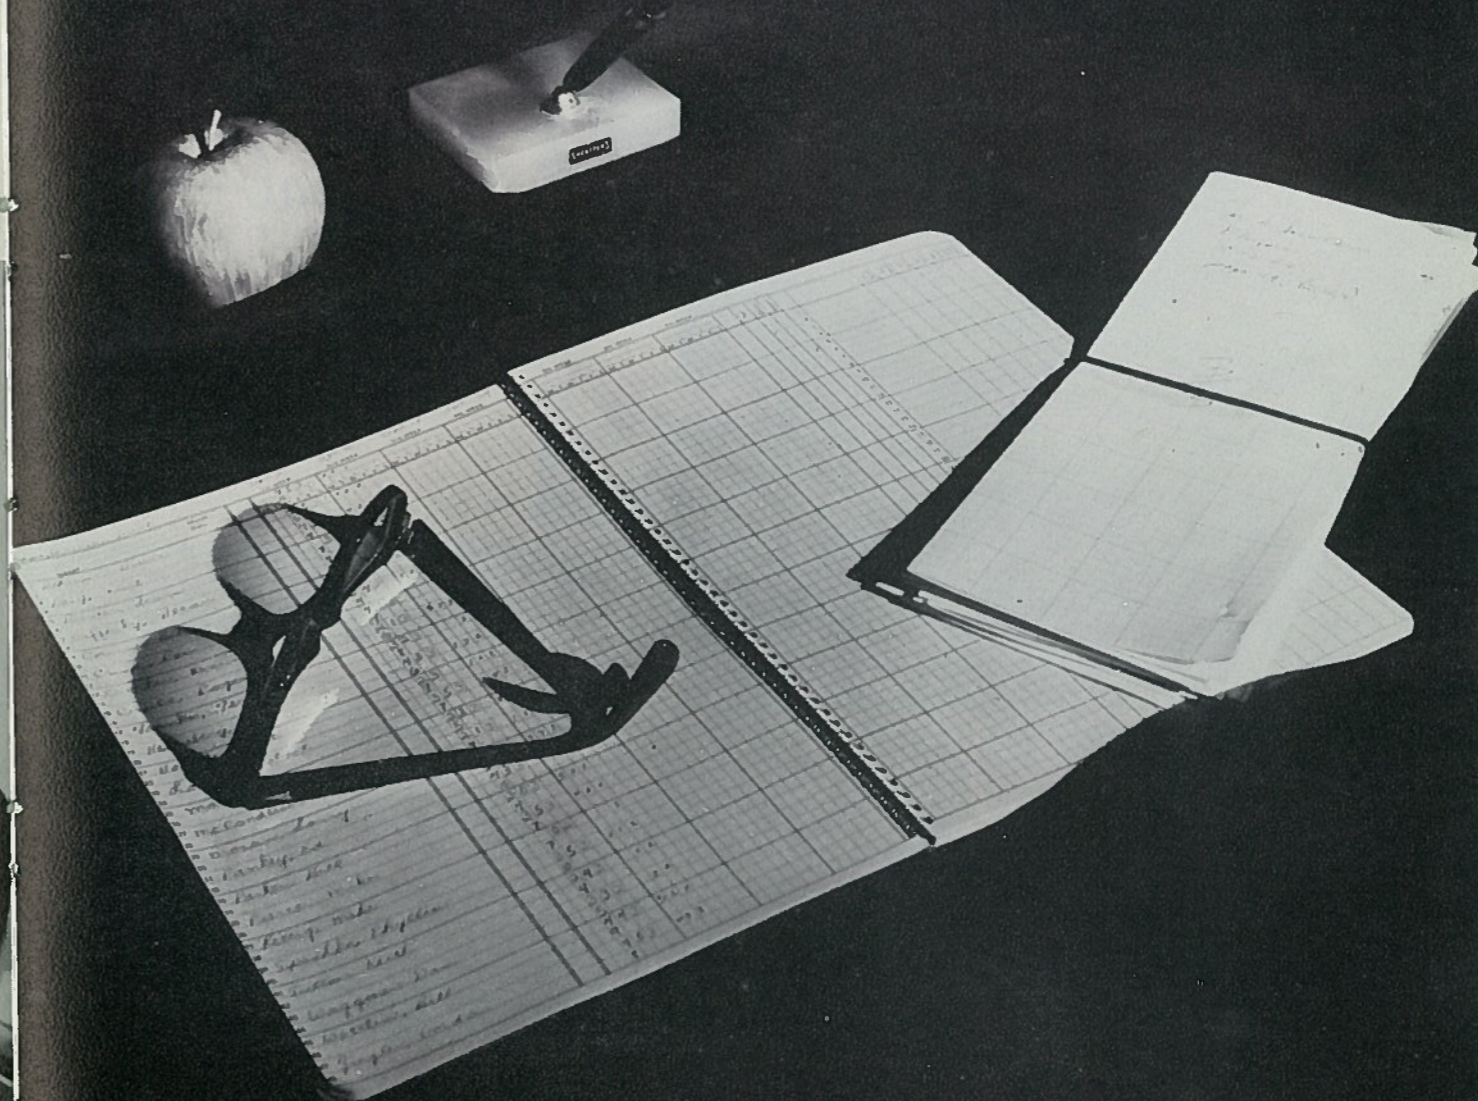

Those responsible will continue to build and hope that the product of our school will ever strive to "make a life" rather than a living. To help this pursuit we offer counsel to our U.C.A. students in the following words of two great men: "The will of the present is the key to the future." "Four things come not back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity."

C. M. Bunker
Chairman of the Board

Faculty

The members of our board are (l. to r.): J. Boyd, P. Rudy, N. R. Johnson, Dr. E. Bolton, A. J. Werner, C. M. Bunker, F. E. Schlehuber, J. C. Kozel (Union), L. W. Crooker (Union), Dr. M. Johnson, W. V. Clements, J. N. Brown, W. E. Wasenmiller, not pictured.

A Message From Our Principal

Here is your 1963 ECHO LOG.

In no other place will you find memories so graphically portrayed as between the covers of this yearbook. As you page through your annual, this will come vividly to your memory. You will recall the incidents in your association at U.C.A. which are precious in your experience. Some of these will be lessons of life that you have learned from fellow students; others will be opportunities that were yours to influence someone to make the right decision; perhaps some will be contacts whereby you could share a prayer and give a friend a lift. Then there were those everyday common place occurrences: study, work and play; the exchange of ideas, and the sharing of joys and sorrows.

All this bespeaks the fact that no man lives unto himself. All are bound together by the great web of humanity.

"We are dependent upon one another, closely bound together by the ties of human brotherhood.

"Heaven forming each on other to depend,
A master or a servant or a friend,
Bids each on other assistance call,
Till one man's weakness grows the strength of all."

 Personal Service

You can buy insurance in lots of places—even by mail! But that's a pretty impersonal way to protect your family. We believe P.S. — Personal Service — is an important part of insurance—both in planning your program carefully, and in handling claims promptly and courteously. P.S. doesn't cost anything extra, but it's priceless when you need it. Why not phone us?
