Upper Columbia Academy

Linda Hampson
Editor

Everyone will, of course, recall some of the activities of this year. Association with a special friend, listening to a particularly interesting speaker, or even participating in a certain program may serve to jog the memory. But not too many of you will remember all of the activities! For that very reason we have a yearbook.

I have enjoyed being your editor, and I sincerely hope that you enjoy your yearbook this year.

There is a lady on this campus who may not always be the most popular but is certainly the most called upon between the hours of 6 & 7 every morning in the girls dorm. Closely associated with this lady is a man who is deeply interested in the academic achievements of his students. During the past 3 yrs. he has been our A.S.B. Sponsor and has worked diligently to improve the facilities of our school. The students of Upper Columbia Academy are grateful for the guidance and Christlike example of this consecrated.

To you, Mr. & Mrs. Olin Peach, we dedicate this Echo Log.

To those who have taught us, guided us, and made our whole year a little brighter we dedicate this section of our Echo Log.

Our Principal

And His Message

One of your most valuable acquisitions during this school year is your enlarged circle of friends. No matter how large and interesting your circle of friends might have been at the beginning of the school year, the new friends you have added this year will always be cherished.

You will want to keep these friends forever. Here is the secret. "The closer we come to Christ, the nearer we shall be to one another."

The Adventist Home, p. 179

The pictures of this book will bring many memories vividly to mind, but in later years, when these memories are faded and gone, your friends of this year will remain. May we each so live that we may be friends throughout eternity.

The A.S.B. chose as their project this year, to replace the worn benches on our ball field with sturdier, metal bleachers. Through the vigorous leadership of our A.S.B. officers, our goal was reached, and the bleachers are now an important addition to our campus.
