Progress
 our business in life is
 not to get ahead of other people,
 but to get ahead of ourselves.
 to break our own record, to outstrip our yesterday by today, to bear our trials more beautifully than we ever dreamed we could, to whip the tempter inside and out as we never whipped him before,
 to give as we never have given, to do our work with more force and a finer finish
 than ever. — this is the true ideal
 to get ahead of ourselves.
 To beat someone else in a game,
 or to be beaten, may mean much or little. To beat our own game means a great deal. Whether we win or not, we are playing
 better than we ever did
 before, and that's the point.
 After all — to play a
 better game of life.

What are you

"I want to see a student who is reliable in defending the cause of God and accepts the responsibility expected of him by God and his elders."

Eugene Rau, Principal

"I look for a student who has high Christian standards, a cheerful smile, pleasant personality, honesty, dependability, and one who is willing to do whatever he is asked to do to the best of his ability."

Evelyn Wesslen, Registrar

"... a devotion to Christ that yields voluntary worship and service."

Bill Strong, Church Pastor

looking for

"An intelligent person that is able to show the love and relationship of Jesus Christ."

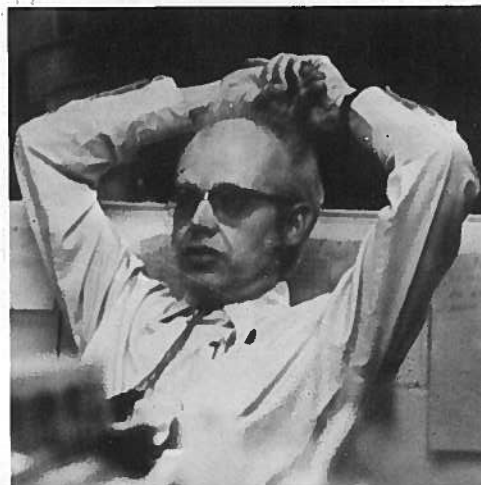

Jeanette Petty, Treasurer

"Significant decisions and management by objectives."

Wendell Cooper, Asst. Business Manager

"One who reads a lot; is courteous and quiet."

Norman Severance, Librarian

in a student?

"I'm looking for someone who wants to learn and is willing to try."

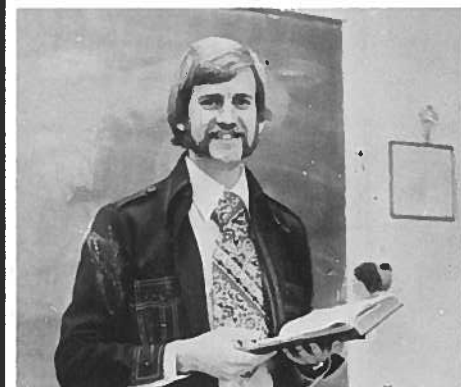

Terry Bock, Bible

"An open mind and a desire to learn. It is only the ignorant who despise education."

Shelly Cochran, Language Arts

"Someone who remembers that I'm human and make mistakes. Someone that listens in class."

Virlys Moller, Journalism

"Someone who wants to learn; who takes classes to learn and not just to get credits."

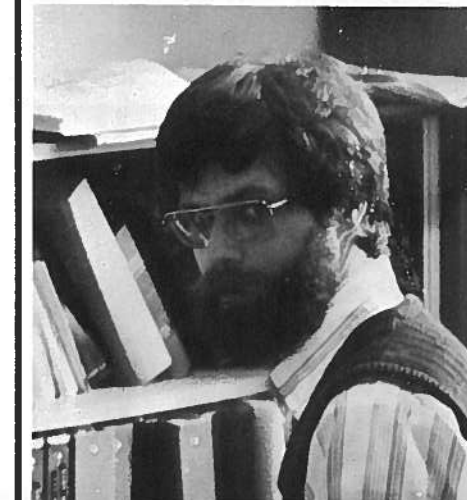

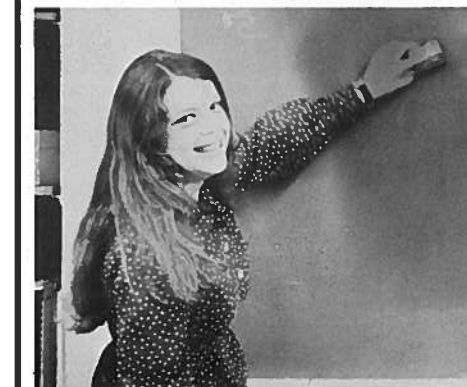

Duaine Rembold, Industrial Arts and Maintenance

"Following God's original plans; that they be thinkers rather than reflectors of other men's thoughts."

Valerie Serns, Home Economics

"One who cares to try. And does."

Tom Munroe, Language Arts

"Someone that is sincere and dependable, won't give up easily, is open to suggestions, and will have enough faith to try what you tell them."

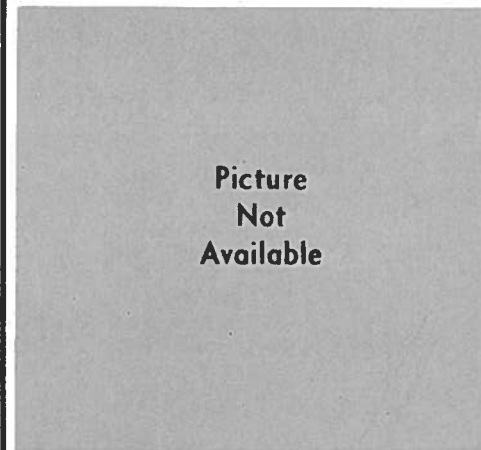

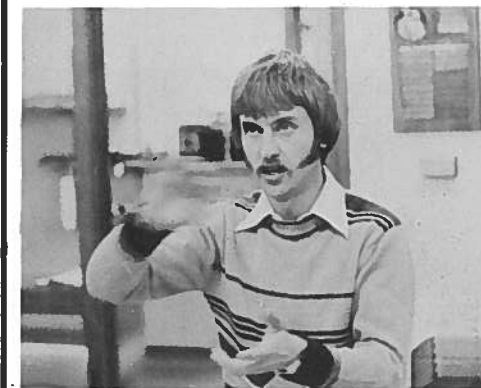

Orville Shupe, Music

"Positive attitude, cheerfulness, loyalty, initiative, and consideration for others."

Jo Shupe, Nurse

"Someone that is dependable and willing to work."

Gail Halverson, Food Service Director

"Friendly, cheerful, and appreciative students. Someone who stops to say hello."

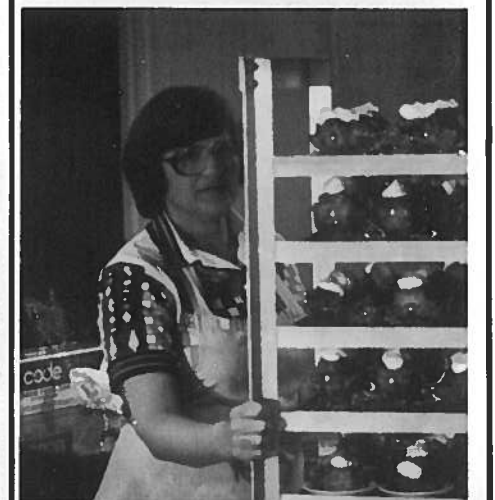

Virginia Coombs, Transportation

"Someone who will do a job to the best of their ability."

Ron Kriner, Farm Manager and Grounds

"Dependability, honesty, faithfulness in their tasks, putting in their honest time."

Jewell Briggs, Ass. Food Service Director

"While I appreciate a studious, efficient student, I also admire a student well-rounded in all areas of study. But the most important feature is for them to know Christ personally."

Pat Winn, Typing and Bookkeeping

"Self-motivation and the ability to concentrate."

Sylvia Moyer, Music

"A person with a desire to learn and a willingness to risk new things."

John Briggs, Guidance Director and Bible

"Someone who comes prepared to listen and learn, who is willing to use his/her God-given abilities and talents, and who is responsible in his/her work and behavior."

Steffen Moller German, Drivers Ed., Social Studies

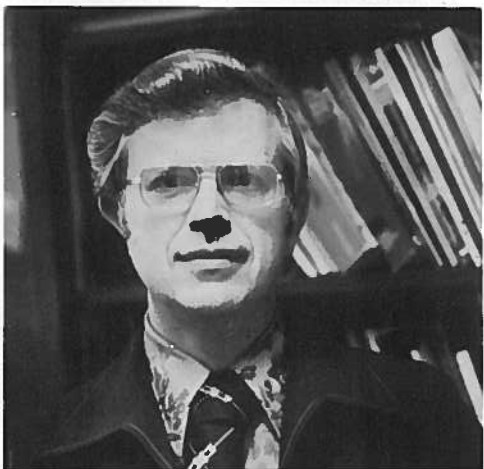

"... the awareness that he can do something in a physical activity beyond his or her present capabilities. In other words, to reach and do further than he or she has ever done before."

Larry Aldred, Physical Education

"Whatsoever the hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." Ecclesiastes 9:10

Olin Peach, Social Studies

"1. Love to God 2. Love expressed to and for others 3. A spirit of cooperation and understanding 4. A smile when these characteristics are exemplified in a student usually things will work out for the best."

Ted Winn, Vice Principal

"A willingness to work and train their talents in the Lord's service."

Don Wesslen, Math, Science

"I appreciate those students whose merits I can see rather than hear."

Jim Mellon, Industrial Arts

"One who is sincerely friendly and is searching for a better relationship with God."

Dan Meidinger, Bible

"To be honest with self, God, and others; which brings peace of mind, respect, and salvation."

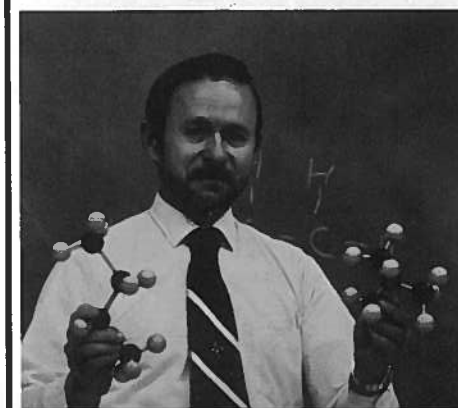

Rick Serns, Ass. Boys Dean

"An eagerness to place themselves in the furrow of the world's needs."

Alice Nolin, Food Service

"A sincere seeker of knowledge."

Bob Combs, Science, Art

"Give me a young person who is self-propelled, self-controlled, yet who puts self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart; result- unlimited usefulness, and fulfillment."

Lloyd Nolin, Plant Engineer

"Self-motivation and a willingness to do what is asked of him."

John Hamel, Vehicle Maintenance

"One who is dependable and honest when out of sight of supervision."

Margaret Severance, Food Service

"A Christ-like attitude, willingness to learn, and demonstrates great initiative."

Jerry Lange, Music

"The willingness to learn; about himself, his God, and his reason for being."

Colleen Walde, Ass. Girls' Dean

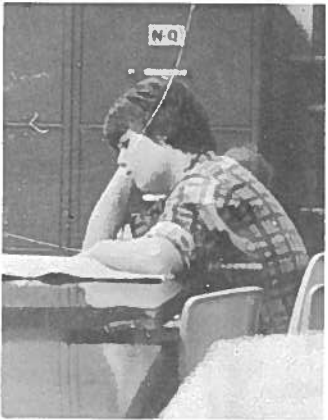

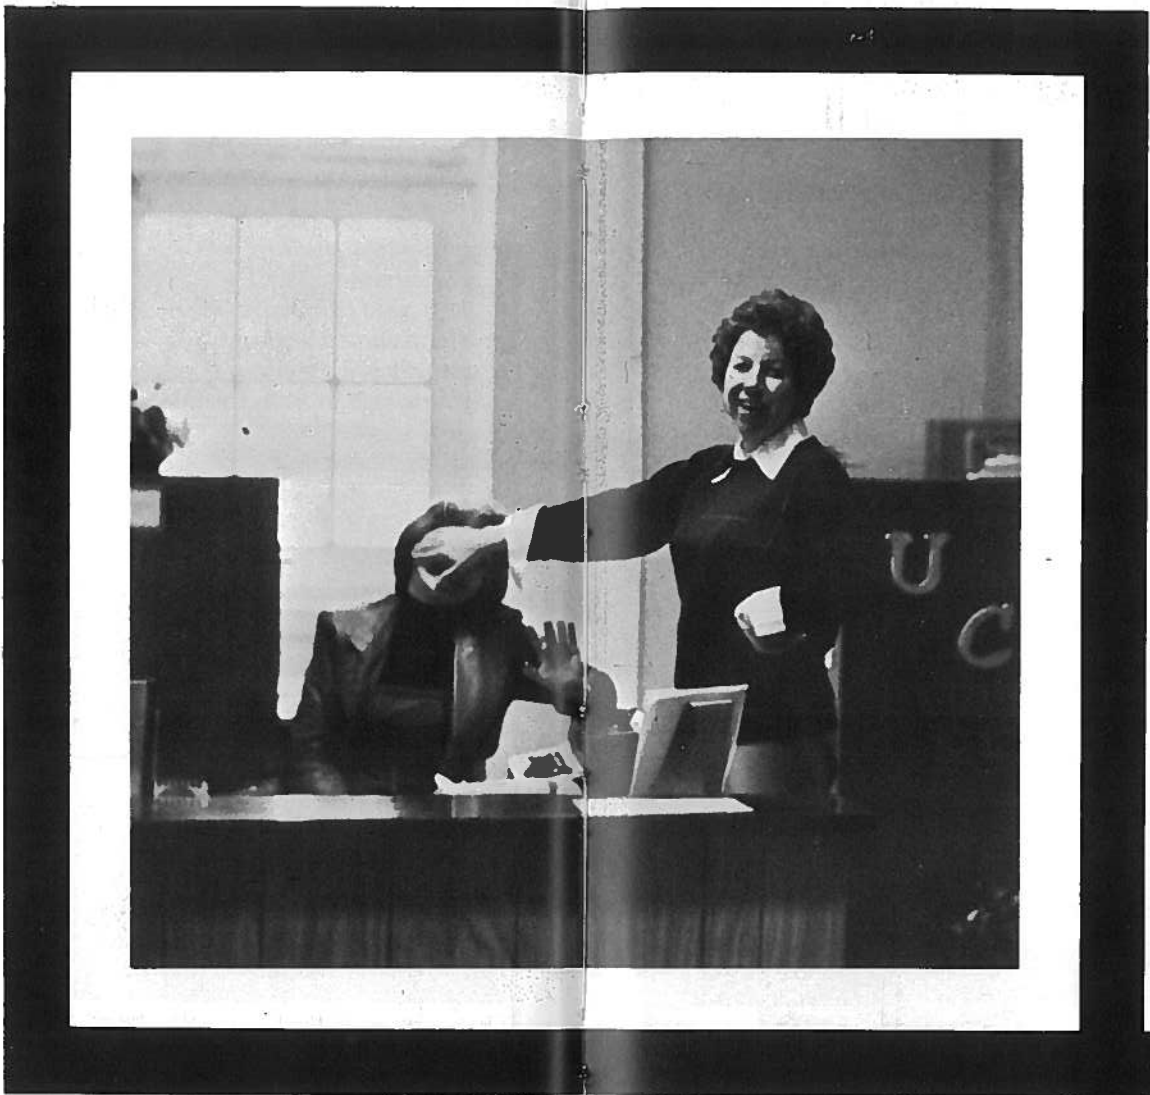

"I look for honesty. An honest person can always be worked with."

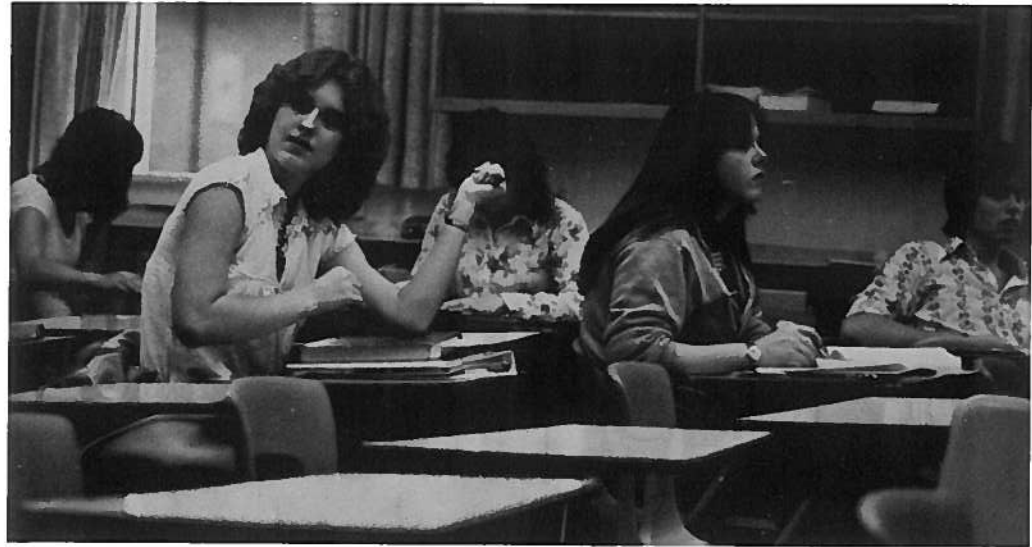

Ruth Kriner, Dean of Girls

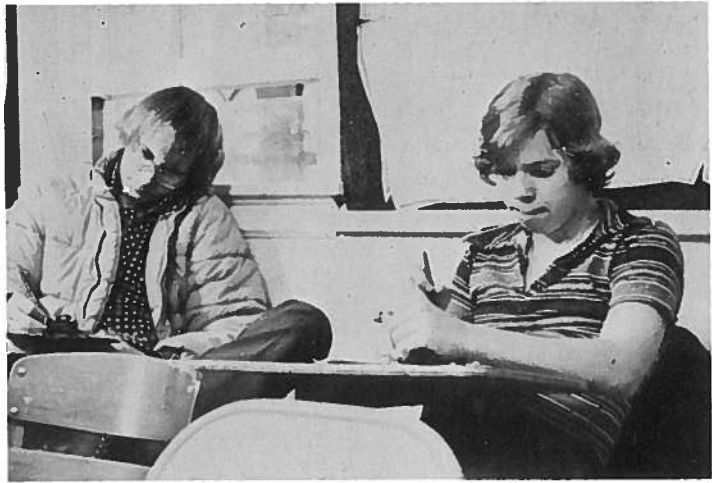

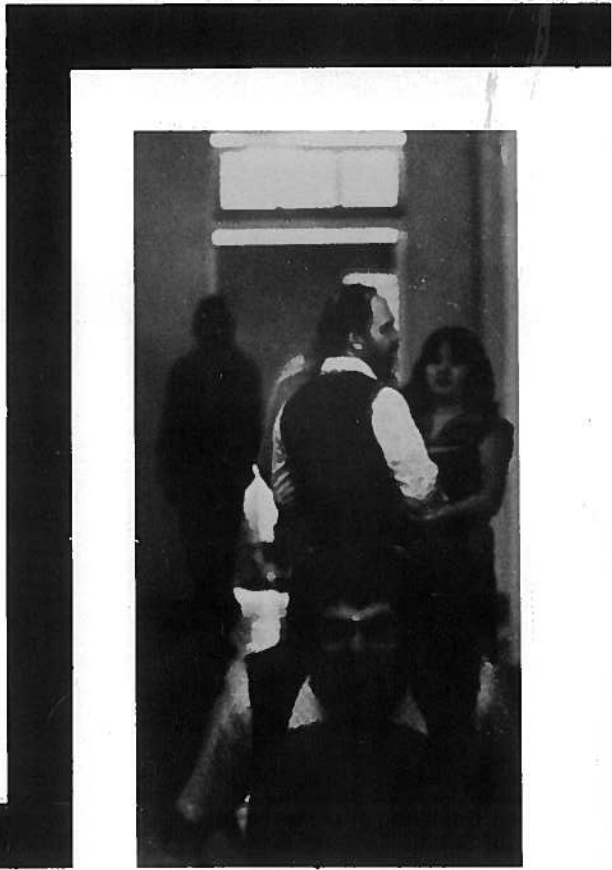

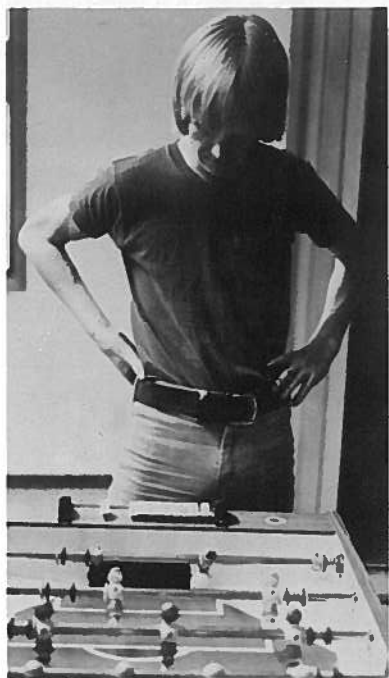

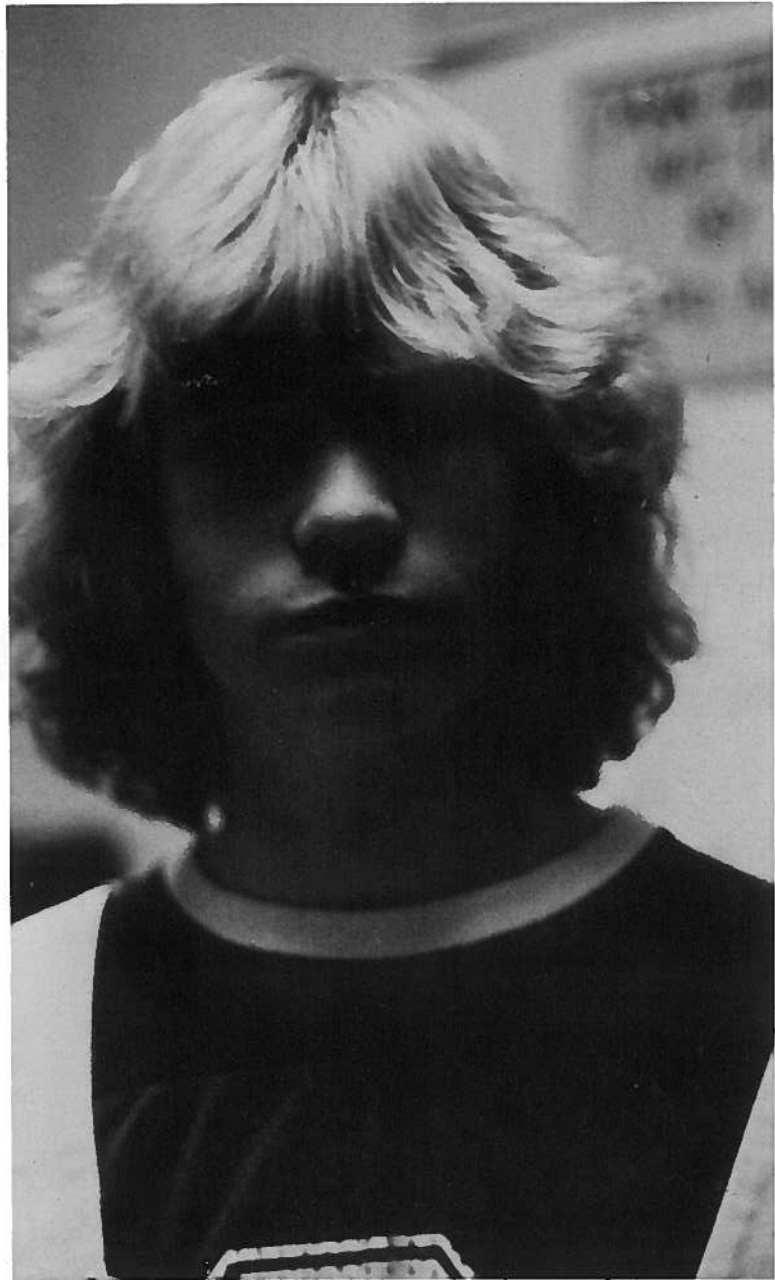

"Students who hide themselves in Christ."

Ric Griffin, Dean of Boys

HPM Factory

The Harris Pine Factory provides jobs for 66 U.C.A. students. Valuable vocational experience is gained as they help manufacture many different kinds of furniture. In January wages were increased to $2.65 an hour. Also new this year is the buddy system which makes it possible for two students to contract for one four hour shift, each working two hours.
