To the students of U.C.A.; THIS ONE'S FOR YOU! Without you there would be no food waste charges in the cafeteria; There would be no squeaks, wrong notes, or even music in the music building; without you the Ad. Building halls would be still without sound; instead of being trampled down, the grass would grow to a healthy green. So, because you make this school what it is, we dedicate the annual to you!!!!

*To you our dear old alma mater
We will ever be true.
Undying love and loyalty
We pledge our hearts
anew to you.
RAH, RAH, RAH,
U.C.A. forever,
We'll shout aloud
Your dear old name.
Black and gold your colors
They stand for your fame.
Through your halls we'll wander
And from your standards
Never sway
We'll fill our hearts
Where ever we go,
And be true to U.C.A.*

Registration, a time of standing in line waiting to get your picture taken for the Like It Looks and to arrange your schedule.
Moving in, a routine of hauling suitcases up three flights of stairs to your new 'home'.

We, as seniors, look at the world with trepidation and uncertainty. We cherish the times of laughter we've shared with friends, and the pride of finally being able to say, "We're Seniors!" And before we expect it, we will be remembering these as the "good old days" ...

The best thing about being a Sophomore was that we were no longer Freshman. It was good to be challenged more mentally in our classes and to be treated more humanly by the rest of the school.

Moving in and seeing all these strange faces was a little scary. For most of us the hard part was being away from home-we were so thankful for the mail and telephones. As the year got more comfortable, we began making friends with those strange faces and home didn't seem so far away.

The whistle blows, the clock moves on, the contest now begins. Judges stand with pen in hand to mark who loses and who wins. This one's a record, you make no mistake millions will watch to see who stands for right or wrong. Team captains even now recruit and if you listen you can hear their voice. They count on you to win for them, but the team you choose must be your own choice.

NOW!!! No other way. This was the theme of our student week of prayer. It was a time when some students get a chance to express their concerns to the rest of the school, a time when the school spirit raises and a time when we as a student body drew closer to God and to each other.

Worships

Worship is one of the main reasons we go to a Christian school. It keeps us all close to God and each other. It starts and ends our days with God on our minds.

Health Emphasis Week

Gathering to listen to Hardy.

A.S.B. on the field.

"This one's for you!" was the title of this week and was devoted to addressing the issue of alcohol and drug abuse. There were many guest speakers, and a movie, but the high point of the week was the 'Body Talk' speech contest given by the students.

Listen to our angels sing.

Long way home.

Fine, tired Lance, Andrea, Sheric, Liz, Hardy, Renae.

Sunning in this sort of weather?

A time to fellowship in the beauty of Camp MiVoden. Elder Page helped us find our spiritual gifts. Our days were filled with fun and laughter while we discovered new friends from other academies.

Come on, get the beat.

Boy! Look at that one.

We had alot of fun activities during 2nd semester. Like the "Beach Party", Valentines Banquet "In Venice", and track and field day. Having these things sure did make the school year a lot more exciting!

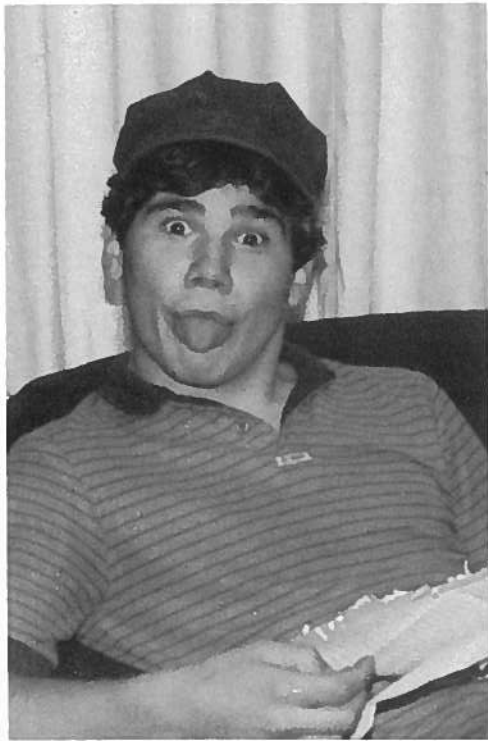

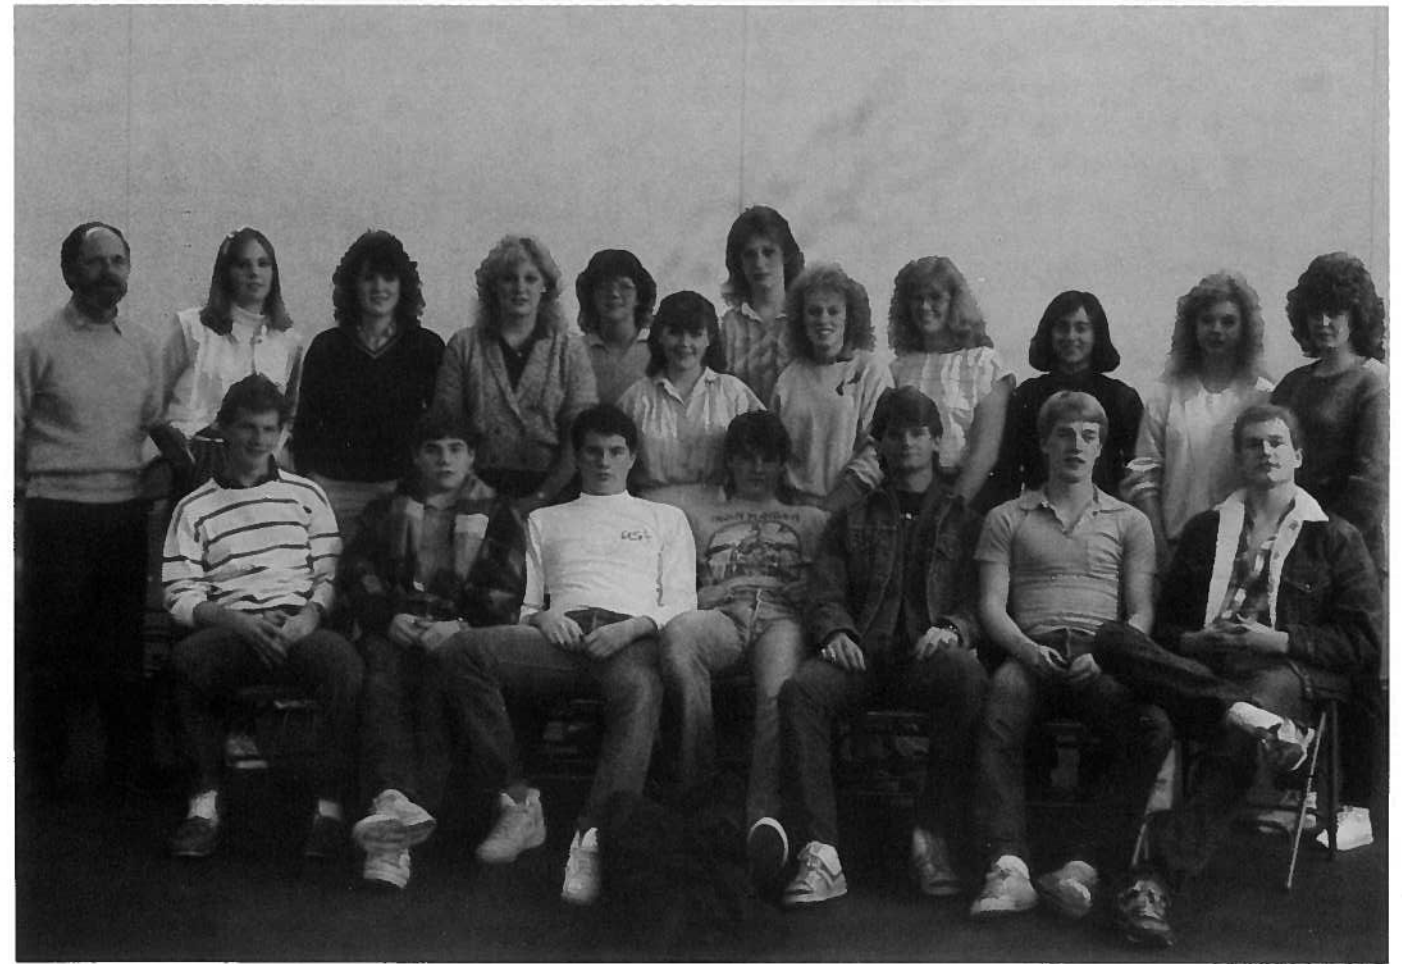

4 Year Seniors

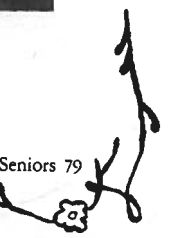

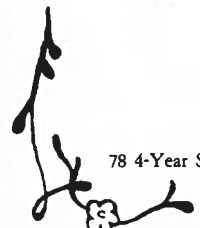

Jared Johnson-President, Leah Gordon-Vice. Pres., Jeff Wolcott-Secretary, Alicia Ortiz-Chaplain, Mr. Peach-Sponsor

Hey 4-Year Seniors— WE DID IT! We've made it through 160 Saturday night programs, 720 school days, 36 months of cafe food and 4 years of supporting U.C.A. and everything it stands for. We all should be proud to be able to say "I was a 4-Year Senior"!!!!

The Four-Year Survivors

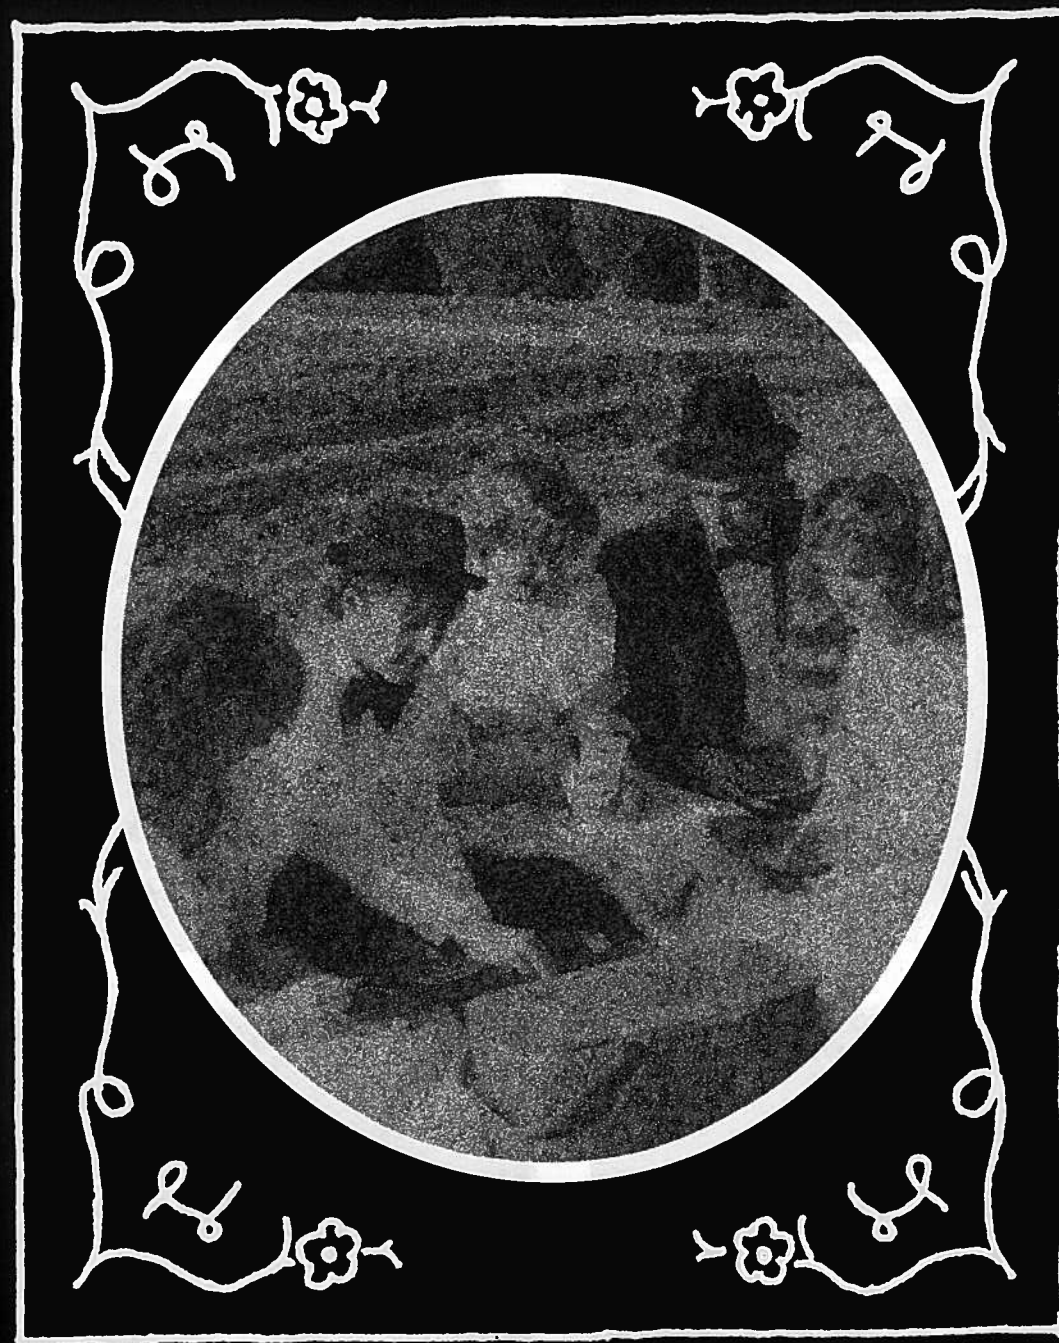

Village

Village life is fun and exciting. We join in on the same activities, such as A.S.B., Girls Club, Boys Club and school. Yet we get the comforts of living at home.

For most Seniors, Senior Rec. weekend was a time to think ahead and look forward to graduation. The Friday night Vespers and Saturday Service were special to us. But probably the most memorable part of the weekend was when we got a chance to "strut our stuff" in the talent show!!

Who will get my shoe? That was the big question the girls were asking. It was for most a fun evening and many of us ended up making new friends.

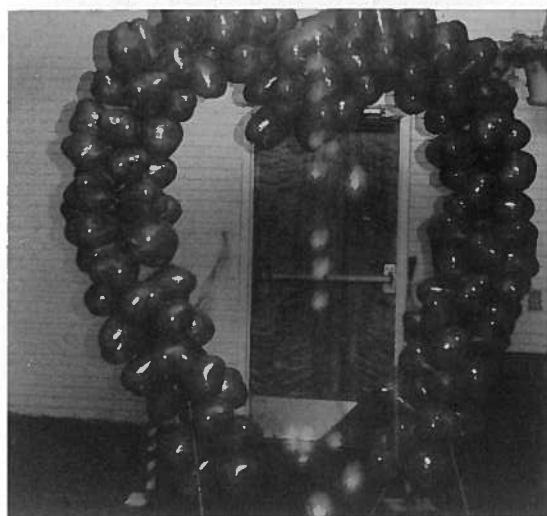

Let's have a beach party!!!! Everyone was wearing shorts and tank tops in the middle of the winter. How crazy!! But it was a blast with the beach bop blaring in the background as we enjoyed the activities.

Our "Evening in Venice" was definitely one to remember! Good food, good company and good entertainment. The A.S.B. really did a great job at decorating the cafe and planning the menu. Then to top it off we saw the movie 7 Brides for 7 Brothers, which was right in the spirit of Valentines Day.

Campus Life

Life in the Girls Dorm is great! It's like having 150 sisters to share clothes and make-up with. It can also be a pain when your 150 sisters are loud and you would like to sleep!

Life in the guys' dorm is ... wrestling in the halls, shaving cream on your door in the morning, and staying up till the wee hours of the morning "studying!"

Elleen telling Lisa how it is.

Benny at his best.

Ron, the glasses have got to go.

Chip working his hardest.

On campus there are many places to work. The industries give many students a chance to learn an industry trade. Students also worked at various places on campus.

Jeff, didn't you ever learn not to sit on the table!?!?

Leah reviving the dead.

Misplaced your tools Andy?

Jance at her best.

Get the ball Cheri.

Oh what a hike!!

Elleen is all alone again.

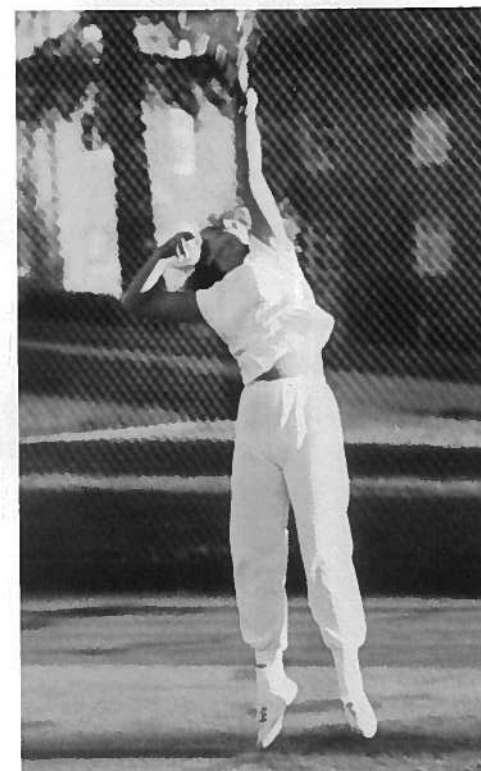

You've got it Jenny.

Off and walking.

Play Period

This is the most active time of the day. Up on the field, or down in the gym, there's always something going on.

Look at that skin.

What was that Virginia?

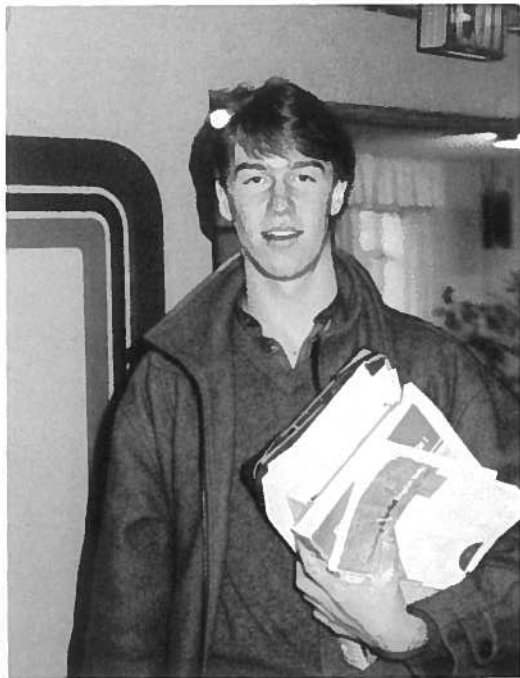

I had an excuse to miss it.

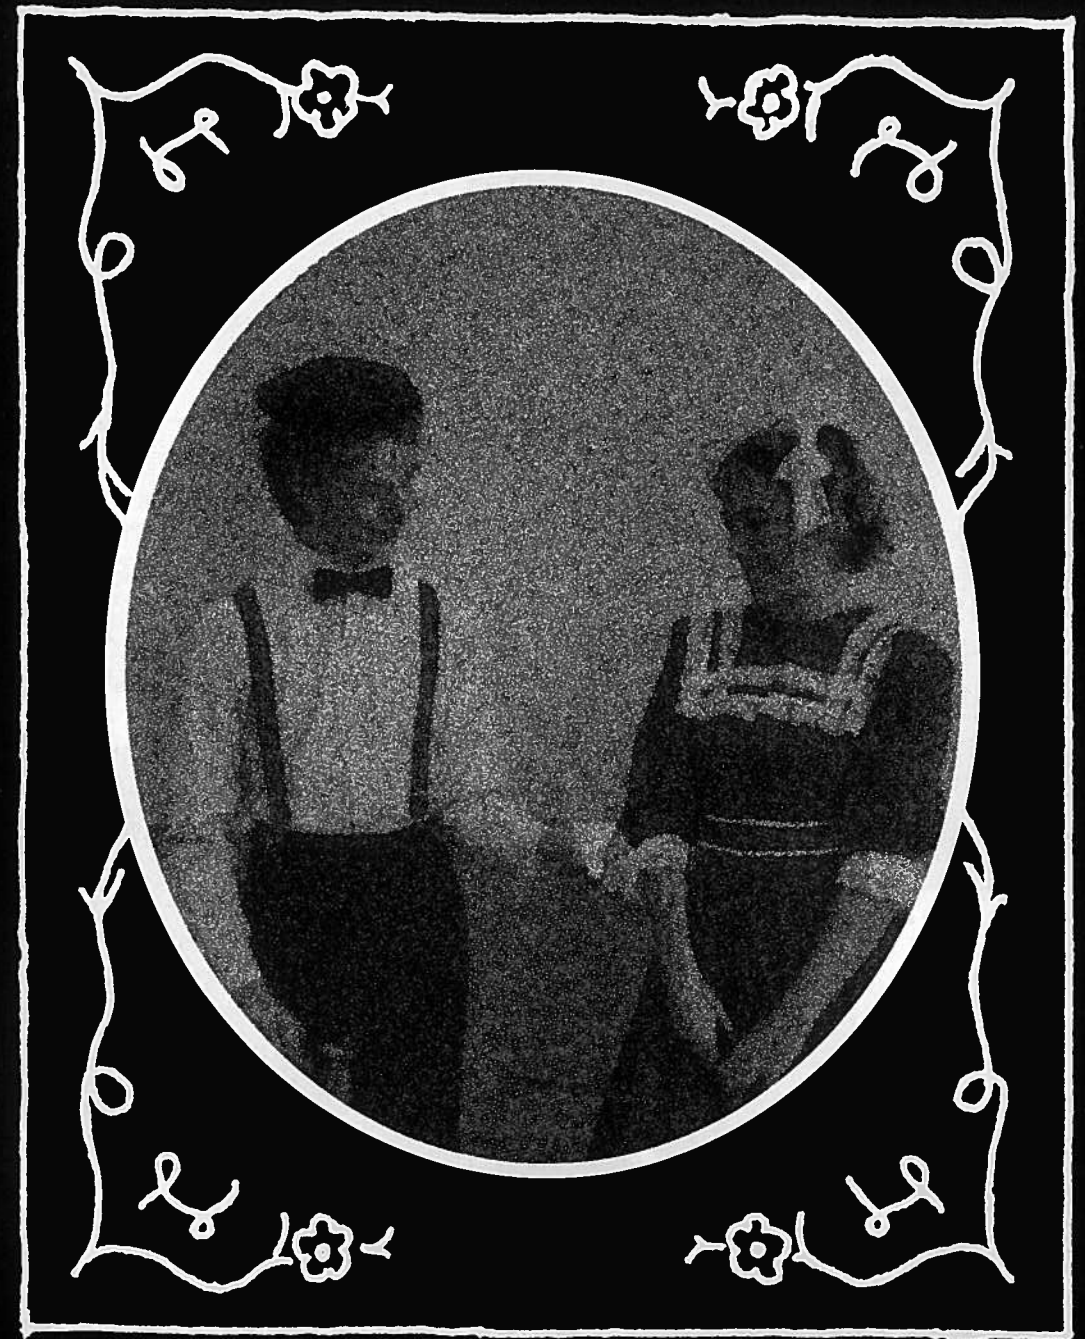

You'd better stay out in the open.

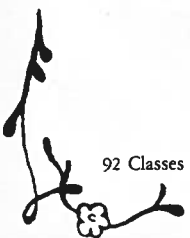

C l a s s e s

As we sit in class and take our test, the late night cramming sessions pay-off. Maybe someday we'll appreciate the homework that the teachers piled on us, but for now it just seems like unnecessary drudgery.

Sports

That's not the way to throw Craig.

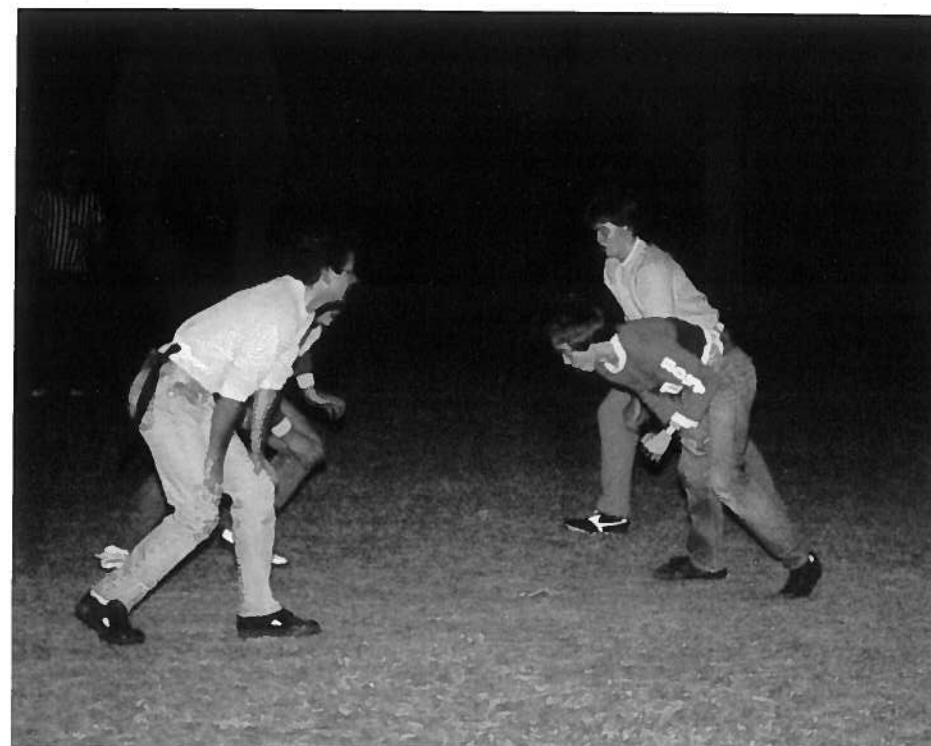

Shana on her toes, (tip-toest!)

Paul and his cheering section.

Hey- we're going the wrong direction.

Kevin and his cute legs.

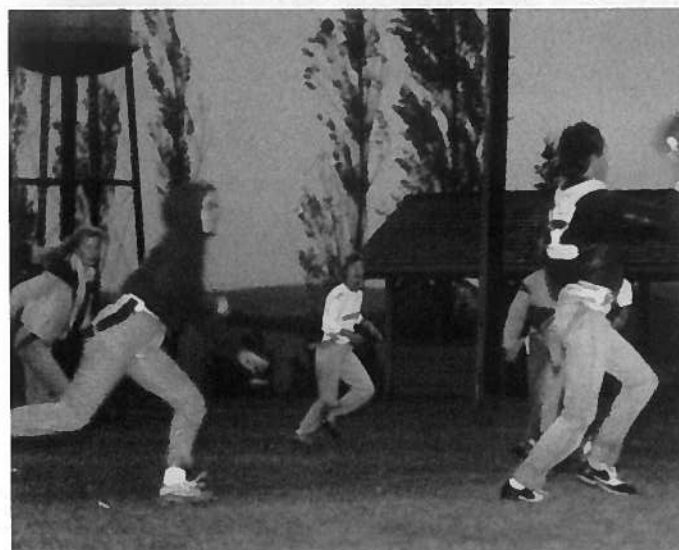

Lisa, your never going to get it over the wall!!

Vonnie, pointing out her favorite sport.

WENDY, CARLA & SANDRA—

WENNIE, CARI, & SAM:

CONGRATULATIONS GALSS!!We did it! In a short time we'll be official graduates of Upper Columbia Academy.(that sure has a nice ring to it!). Thanks so much for all the fun times we've had together.(and there were many!!) And I'm glad that in the bad times it was us going through them together. I'm sure that we're the only 4 people in the world who have the uncanny knack of breaking the rules and getting caught every single time!!!(maybe that's telling us something!?) Do any of these phrases sound familiar? . . . "4 hotdogs for a dollar!", "no,no,no,no!!", "I have mono will you do my accounting packet?", "I won! I have the "B" card!", "Your short.", "Mother, there is no other,M-O-T-H-E-R!", Timithoy Allen Conelly and Richard Gaston", "Wish they all could be Adventist guys..!";-? "Carla and Wendyshut up and stay in the back seat!!!!", "Is this some crazy dream?!?!" and last of all the cute little one word term that you used Carla Dear, the one that struck fear in our hearts every time you said it.."WHY?????" Next year the Fearsome Foursome is together again in Walley World. What fun!!! Then after that let's make it the "Fearsome Foursome" together forever in Heaven, where our best times are yet to come!! There's just one last thing I have to say and I promise this will be my very last time!! Here goes .. WE HAVE TO LEARN BETTER STUDY HABITS BEFORE WE GET TO COLLEGE!!!! There I've said it for the last time! Let's always stay close together!!! ILOVE YOU—Leah

Congratulations Seniors

*You made it through!!!!
You're the best*
