SENIOR

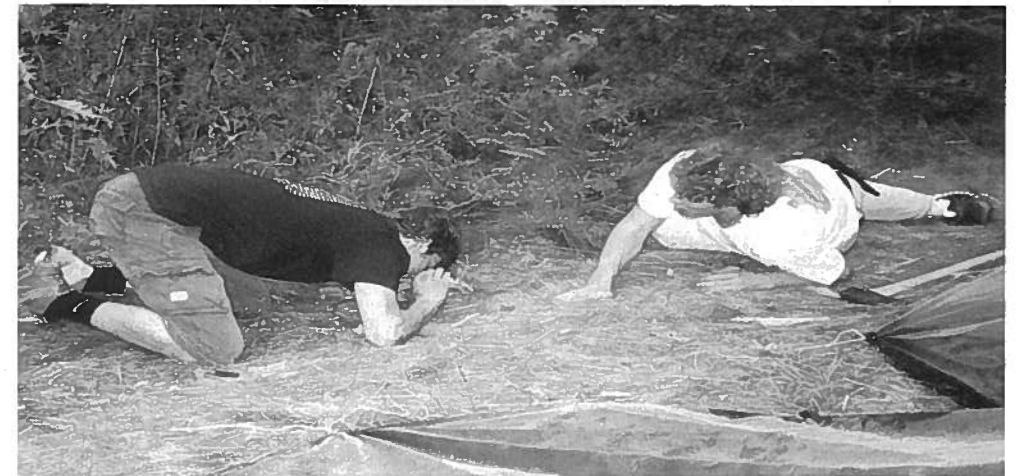

It was a calm and beautiful Sunday morning that dawned that fateful day. Young men and women alike lugged their things out to the buses that would land us safely at our destination. Many had mixed feelings about this special event. We all expected an adventure.

SURVIVAL

And an adventure we got! Whether it was during the Nitro Crossing or eating grasshoppers. But something was happening in the senior class of 2003 at this time. Whether it was a call from God or a chance to change, we all felt something. And that is what changed us all. We are finally ready to take the stage

"Maybe my hat will save my head..."

1,2,3...down for the count!

What! There's more?

"So...how much farther to the campsite?"

Mmm mmm good

All worn out

Letting go and trusting as a group

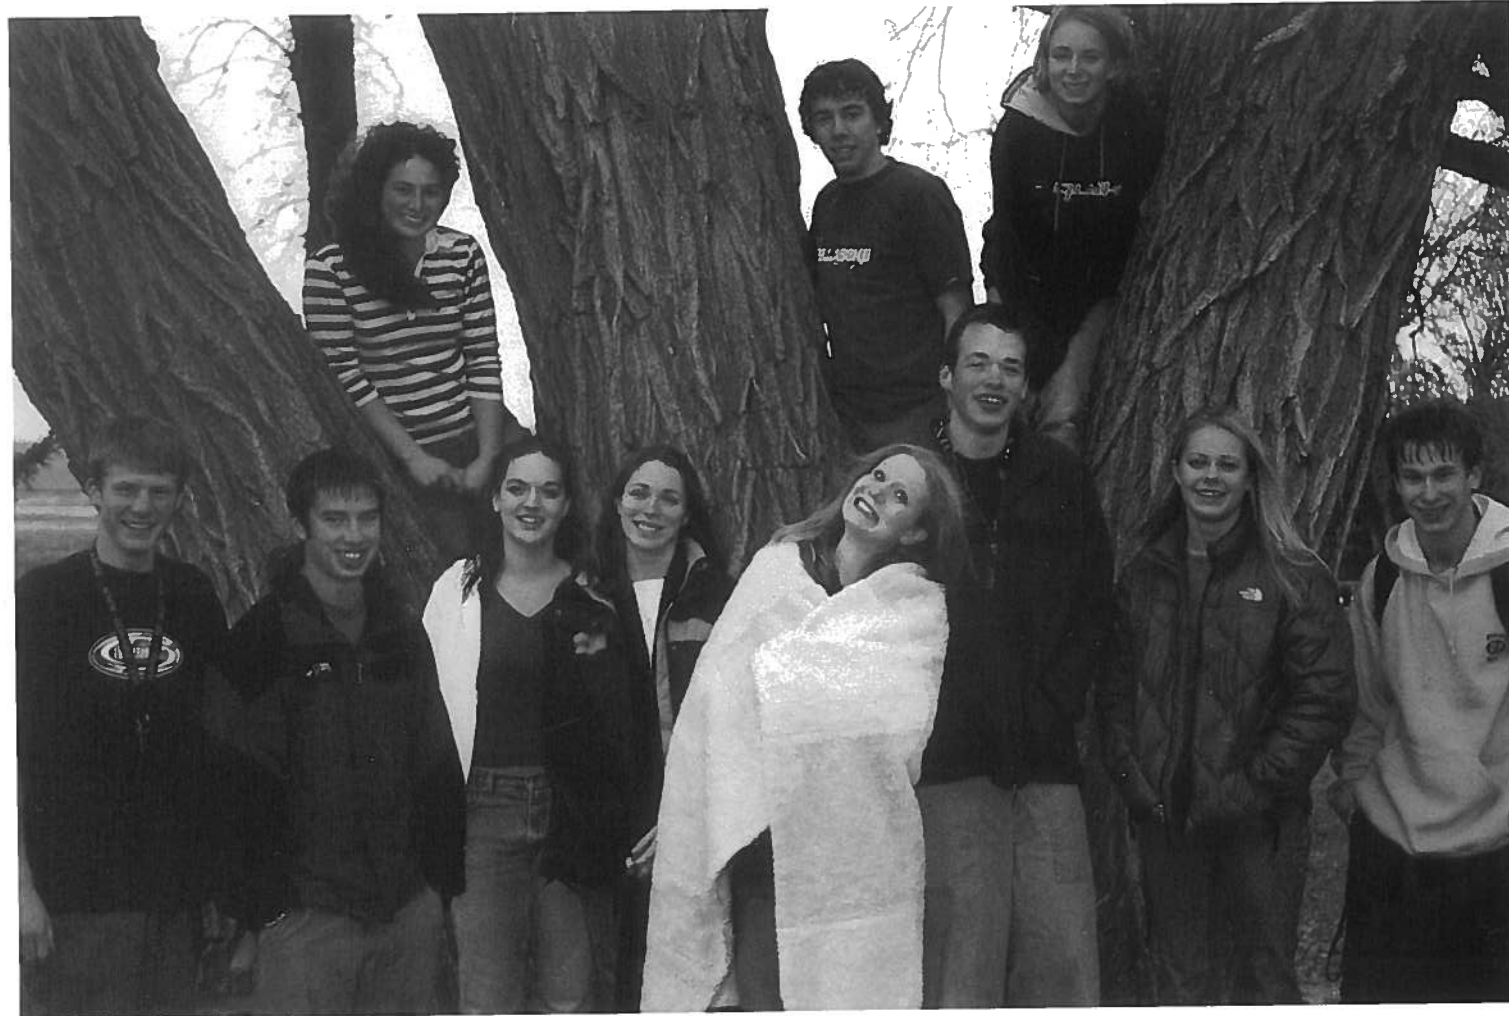

Brr!!!

Oh yeah, we're tough...

Vespers

We have the blessing to be a school where we can pray openly in the hallway. To be at UCA for some of us is a miracle. It's good to know there are people in this school that care about our individual relationships with God. The holiness we feel when we have invited God in our classes and whole day is undescrivable. We should never want to leave His presence.

Registration

Ah, the day has dawned: another year of work and play. Way from far-distant home it seems that we do stay, to a school quite far away. But alas, we do find other fellows in the same bind. Chaos rules this day. But at the end, in a very special way, do we greet one another in the UCA way. A handshake introduces the old and new. To form a bond that will ever be true.

CLASS NIGHT

Behold, the night wherein valour and folly show their faces. One and all come to this mervilous show of character. The settitng sun brings out of the dorms the bright and colorful students awaiting the hour for when they are allowed to shed their masks of maturity and enjoy the pleasures of the night.

FALL PICNIC

The day where the sun always shines, no matter the weather. The morn may be rainy, but ther weather will change. All are merry for none are made to attend class. How fun and passion display their colorful faces. On this day none are superior to the other and faculty can relax, for a short while.

What's black and white, sun burnt, hungry, sore, wet, and tired, but still has a big grin on its face? OUTDOOR ED! Fifty-five brave Juniors and their guides embarked on a weekend of adventure to Upper Priest Lake, Idaho; the St. Regis Lakes, Montana; and the Eagle Cap Wilderness of Oregon from September 12-15, 2002. Activities included canoeing, hiking, mountain climbing, and just plain enjoying the great outdoors. Friday night was especially nice as the voices of praise and worship were lifted above the campfire and drifted across the wilderness. Though muscles ached and feet had blisters the weekend provided a lifetime memories for the participants.

Student Week of Prayer marks a very special point in the lives of UCA students. For only one week, we get to hear what our classmates and friends have to say about their walk with God. We hear about struggles and triumphs, happiness and sadness. We hear how they yell and cry out to God; and how they don't hear a thing. The best thing we hear about is when our friends triumph with God and overcome their troubles. For when we hear about other people's joy in Jesus, we find ourselves wanting the same thing.

The yearbook staff of 2002-2003 present this book to the students of Upper Columbia Academy. This is for the future so when we are older we may look back and say that was us in 2002-2003. May all the memories be good ones for you.
Yearbook Staff of 2002-2003

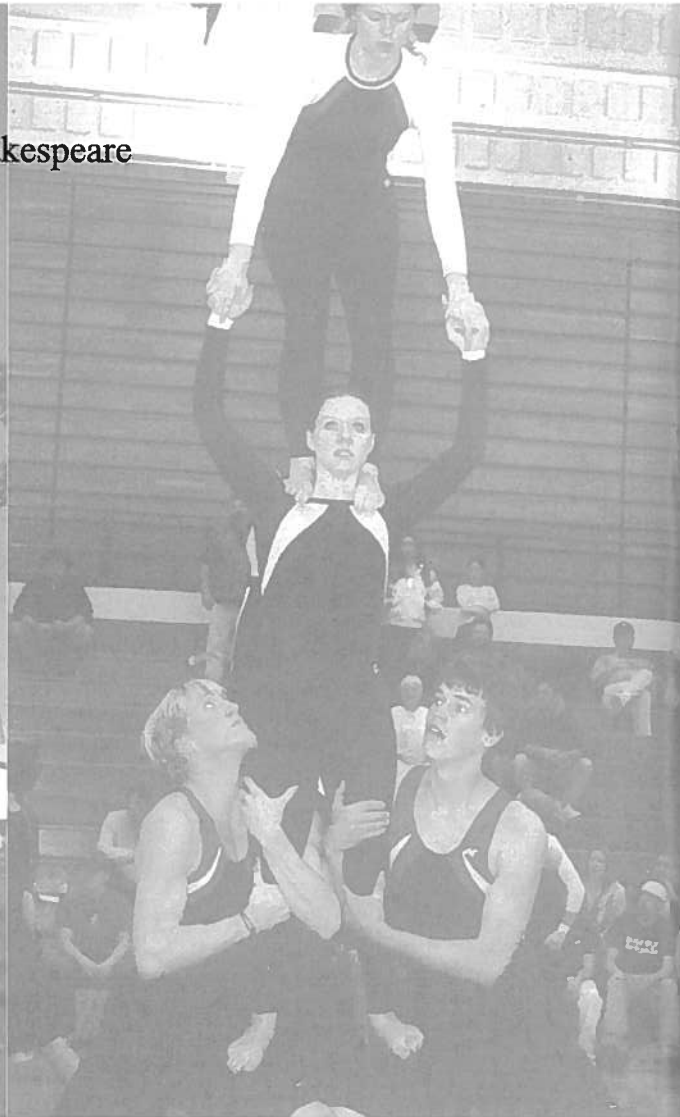

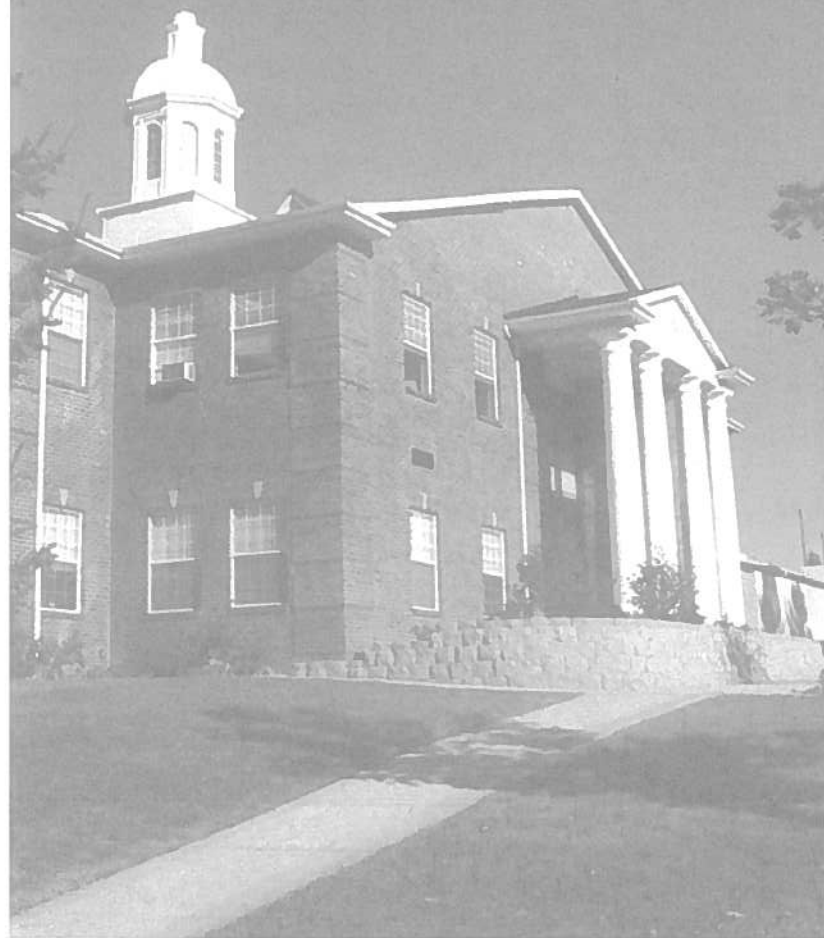

"The head that once was crowned with thorns is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victors brow."
-Thomas Kelly 1769-1855

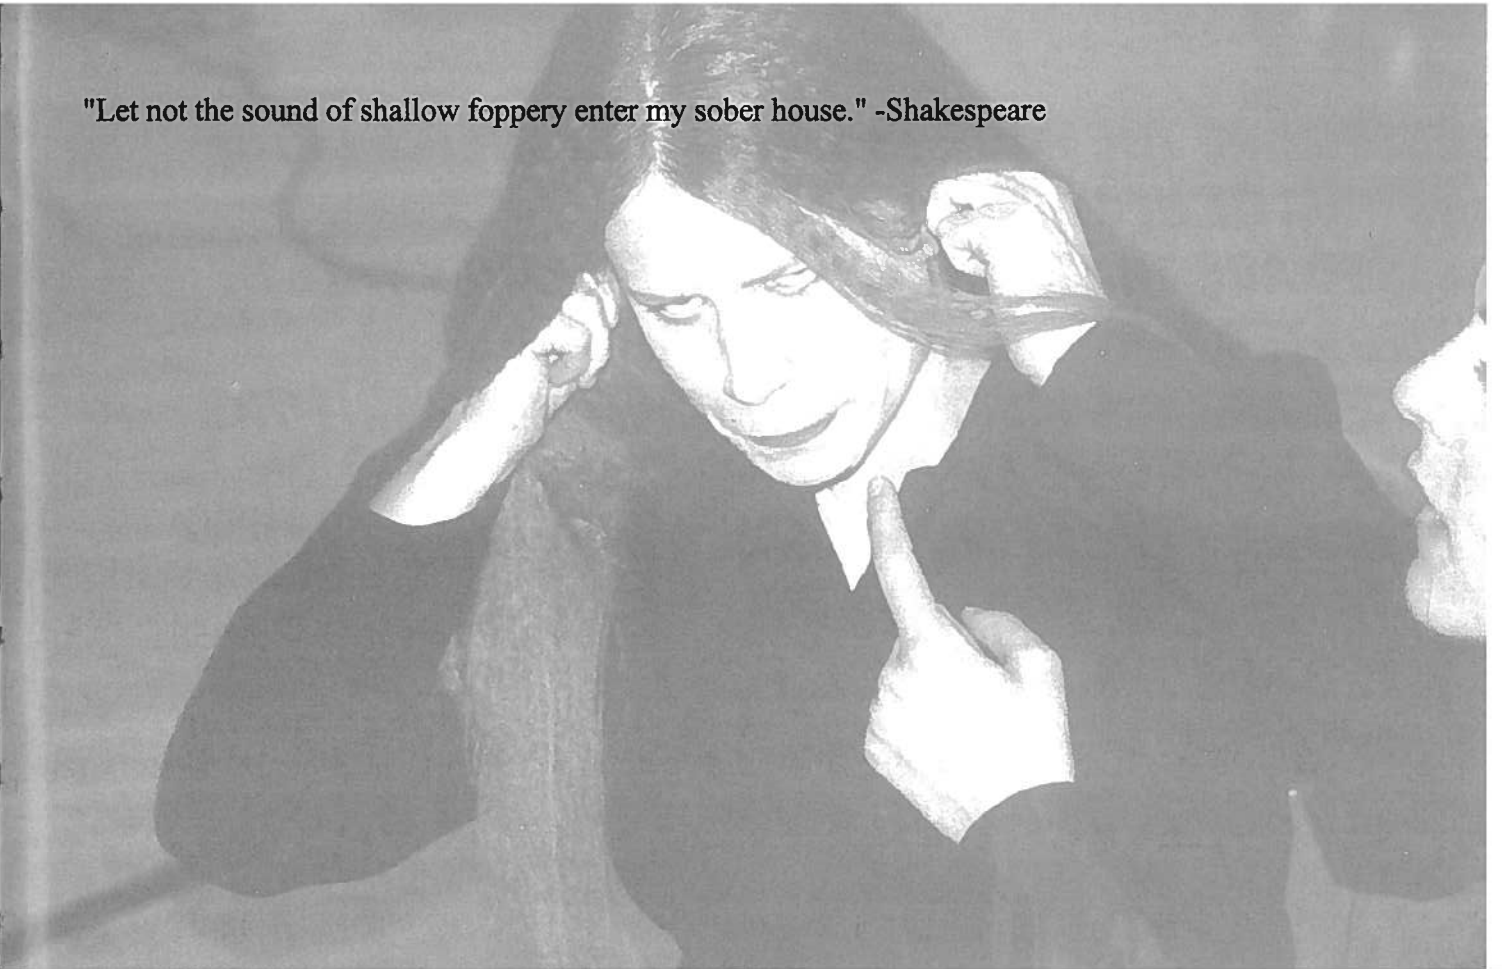

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son.
That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life."
-John 3:16

“What, man! defy the devil:
consider, he’s an enemy to mankind.” -Shakespeare

"Let not the sound of shallow foppery enter my sober house." -Shakespeare

BLESSED ARE THE POOR IN SPIRIT, FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO MOURN, FOR THEY WILL BE COMFORTED.

BLESSED ARE THE MEEK, FOR THEY WILL INHERIT THE EARTH.

BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO HUNGER AND THIRST FOR RIGHTEOUSNESS, FOR THEY WILL BE FILLED.

BLESSED ARE THE MERCIFUL, FOR THEY WILL BE SHOWN MERCY.

BLESSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART, FOR THEY WILL SEE GOD.

BLESSED ARE THE PEACEMAKERS, FOR THEY WILL BE CALLED SONS OF GOD.

BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO ARE PERSECUTED BECAUSE OF THEIR RIGHTEOUSNESS, FOR THEIRS IS THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN.

BLESSED ARE YOU WHEN PEOPLE INSULT YOU, PERSECUTE YOU AND FALSELY SAY ALL KINDS OF EVIL AGAINST YOU BECAUSE OF ME. REJOICE AND BE GLAD, BECAUSE GREAT IS YOUR REWARD IN HEAVEN, FOR IN THE SAME WAY THEY PERSECUTED THE PROPHETS WHO WERE BEFORE YOU.

~MATTHEW 5:3-12(NIV)

We have come to the finish of another year. The seniors have gone through much toil this year, beginning with senior survival and ending with graduation. They have performed well and are now ready to be in the ending credits.

Juniors, class of 2004, it is now your time. You have done very well as supporting actors and actresses. However, you must be ready to take the stage very soon. Always remember Who is with you and who is the strongest of them all. God will never, ever leave you.

Sophomores, class of 2005, you must now be ready to step up as the supporters. Remember that your time is very near. Keep Jesus close to you always.

Freshmen, class of 2006. Tired of being in the wings, huh? Well, you have now graduated up to being stage hands. You're well on your way though. You, too, must always remember to keep Jesus close to you. Never forget Him.

Everyone, you have done well. Thank you for a wonderful year. And always remember,

"All the world's a stage....."

Motto

The more we dream, the more we become.

www.thehistoryguy.com

Aim

It matters not what we are thought to be, but what we are.

Text

"I can do all things through Christ who gives me strength."

Dear Sophia,
 From before the age of two, when you would sing
 Over and over again "Happy Happy Home," (off key) you have truly made our home a happy home!
 Now that you are grown, you make us not only happy, but very proud. Keep up the good work.
 We love you,
 Dad, Mom & Caleb

CLASS OF 2003

My Dear Luke

*I wish you truth for your decisions,
I wish you doubts to make you sure.
I wish you fear to give you caution,
I wish you courage to keep you pure.
I wish defeats to make you humble,
I wish success to let you soar.
I wish you tears to make you tender,
I wish you joy, and so much more.
But far beyond these hopes for you,
One prayer outshines the rest,
I wish for you my son, God's son,
A life both now and ever blessed.*

Lovingly, Mom

Carl,
Our gentle son,
You have chosen to follow
The Life-Light all of your life.
The Life-Light has helped to guide you into being the wonderful man that you are.
We have been lucky to have a part in this special journey.
The Life-Light will continue to be with you as you travel on.
Love,
Mom and Dad

The Life-Light was the real thing:
Every person entering Life
He brings into Light. John 1:9

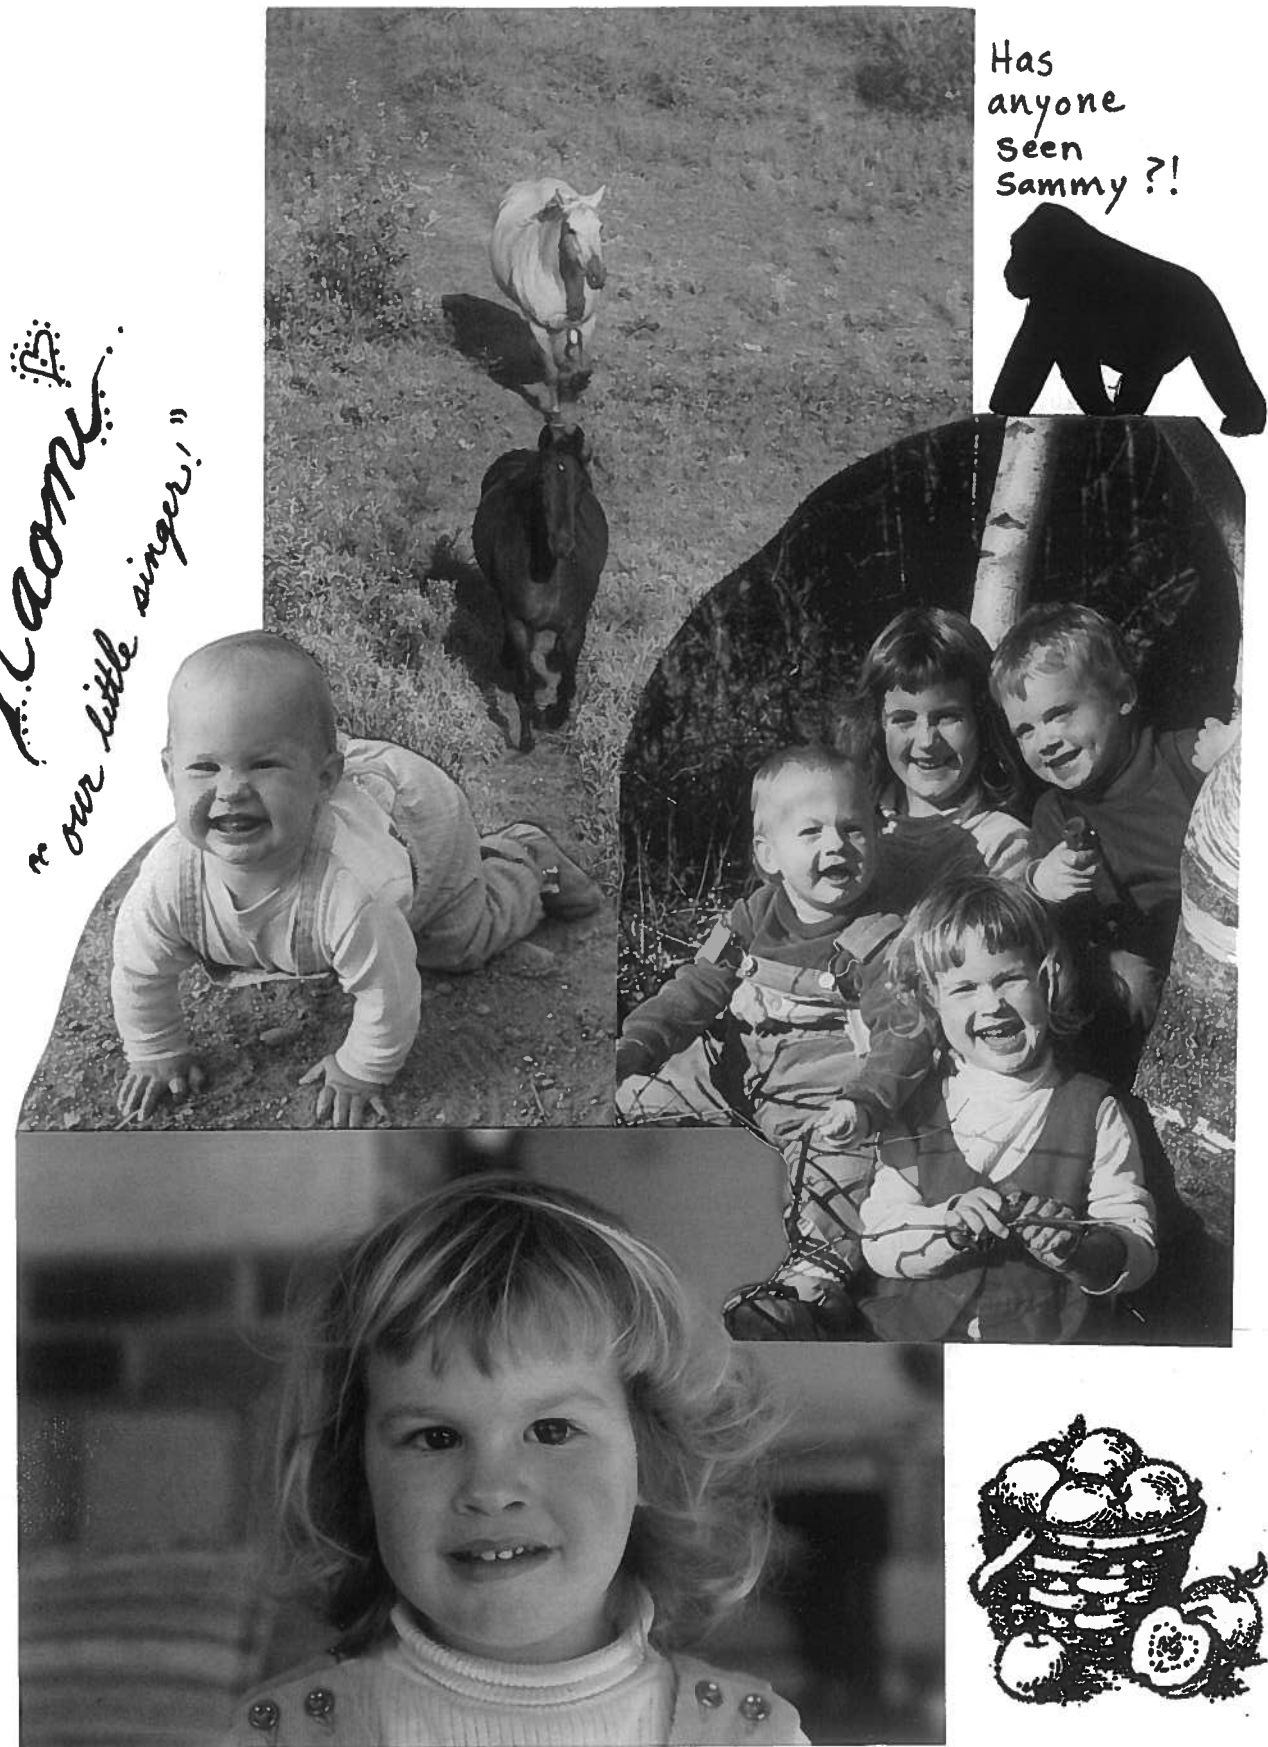

Carl,
You make me proud to be your sister and friend.
2 Corinthians 4:7
Love,
Chelane
Carl,
Chelane and I used to put you in a swivel chair. Then we would stand on each side of the chair and spin you around and around. You would giggle and giggle.
Eventually you would sleep!
What a great guy you are!
Love,
Aaron

Dear Maria,
Congratulations Darling!! It seems like only yesterday we were cradling you in our arms as proud parents. We look at you now and are amazed at how you've transformed into a lovely and responsible young lady. Our proudest moment has already been realized. That was when you made a decision to make Jesus your Lord and Saviour. By His grace you have achieved another milestone in life. Set your goals based on our Firm Foundation.
Our prayer is that you allow God to lead you all the days of your life. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct your paths." (Proverbs 3:5,6)

Love,
Dad and Mom

"Look out world, here I come"

Maranatha,
God bless you in all you do!
With much love,
Mom, Dad, Brian, Brendan,
Lindsey & Andrew

We've tried to give you roots to ground you when the storms come
And yet wings so you can soar as high as your dreams can take you.
As you go out into the world
with your boundless energy, your brave spirit,
You enormous imagination, sharp wit and intelligence,
may you be rewarded with success
You've never dreamed of.

As you go out into the world your faith will be challenged, the things you believe in,
And the things that we have taught you
But if you stay the course, be true to yourself,
And listen to God's still small voice,
You will achieve what few men have,
That is PEACE.

As you go out into the world,
Remember this most of all,
Nothing can separate you from our love,
Not time, nor distance.
Wherever you go our love goes with you.
-Mom and Dad-

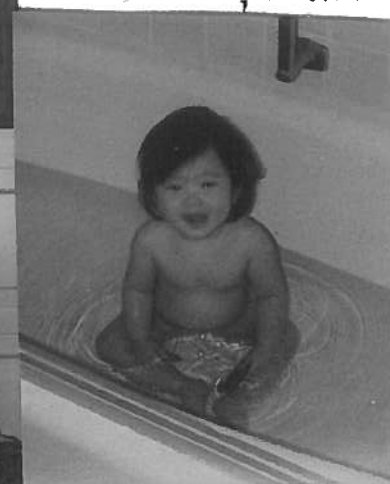

Mindie(Poopie.)

You are the greatest gift God has ever granted us in our lives. You are so precious in God's eye, we feel very fortunate to have been entrusted with you as your parents.
You are a never-ending inspiration and strength to us.
You reach and God provides for you.

Love, Mom & Dad

To my little brother—

Though you aren't such a good sport about letting me lug you around (my future children thank you for the mothering/nagging practice you made possible) or make you a mannequin for the latest Dorcas inspired fashions anymore (pink IS your color), you're every bit as much fun as you were at age two. You've always had an eye for the good stuff: dinnertime, Tintin, and the art of the very bad joke. Predictably, you have something to say that makes me laugh—or think—or both. I can't think of a better brother to have grown up with. Congratulations on surviving the past four years of your life— I can't wait to see what you'll do with the years to come, but I'm sure it will be great. I love you! Sara to my favorite dance partner, while your birth bumped me from my proud position as the baby of the family, I soon realized that this was a small price to pay for the friend I gained. In you I found a student willing to endure my first stabs at lecturing, a ballet partner, a soccer competitor, a snuggly body to read with in bed on Sunday mornings...you were always my given companion. Now we've "grown up" and you're still there: waiting for me on the ski hill, advising my music and movie choices, adding fun and hilarity to my life. I love you much, my baby brother—I am proud of you now and anxious to see the choices you make in life that I know will continue to make me proud to be your big sister.

love always, colleen

Aaron—

There is so much pride and love and too little space to express it. So what is important? You've been a wonderful son from baby boy to young man and have given us many great memories to treasure. Your stories have delighted us and your antics have made us laugh. Now we look forward to the next chapter in your life—to see how God both uses you and satisfies the desires of your heart. Our love and prayers will always be with you.

Mom and Dad

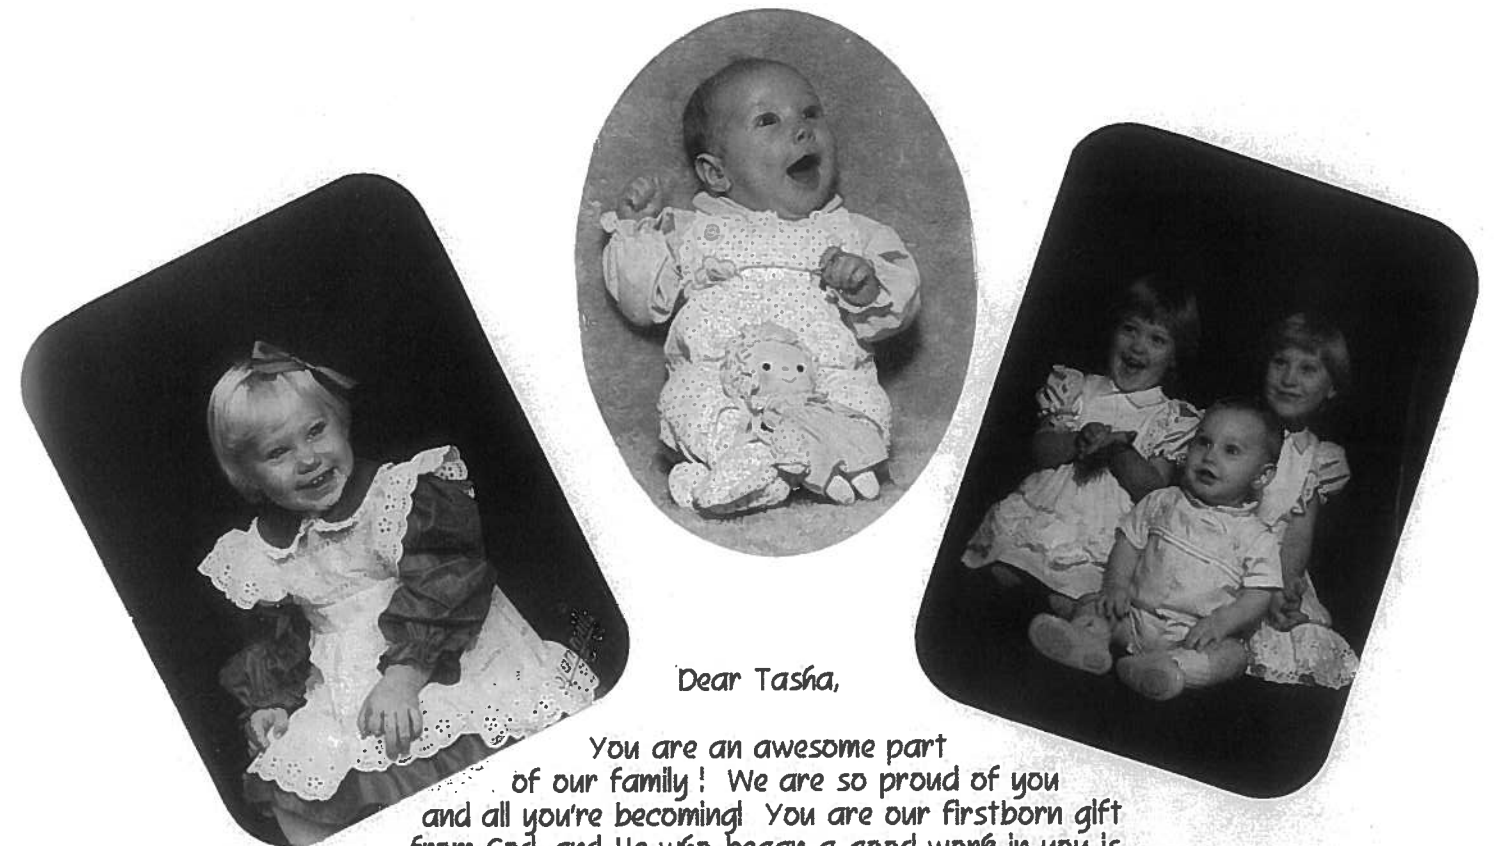

Aaron,

You're an all-around good guy and easily my favorite brother-in-law. In the few years we've known each other you've always been a great friend. In fact, I pity the fool who does not know Aaron Grable. Congratulations on surviving the high school years. We're all looking forward to the awesome future that awaits you. It's a beautiful day, don't let it get away. Ronn

Dear Tasha,

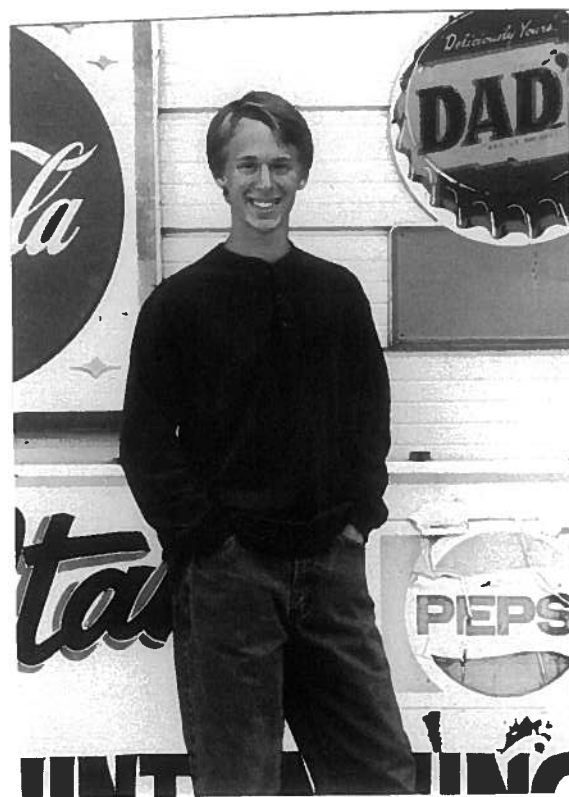

You are an awesome part of our family! We are so proud of you and all you're becoming! You are our firstborn gift from God, and He who began a good work in you is creating a masterpiece of His design. You are in His hands, and He is trustworthy.

We Love you!

The first time we met you on that October day in Portland...

You found your unique place among a herd of brothers...

You are always ready to try a new hairdo, but your signature laugh remains the same.

...We did not realize how much spice you would add...

You are always ready to lend a hand...

You are a bouquet of flowers to our lives.

We're proud of you Jamin, and we want you to know we love you more than we can ever express in words. We thank God for the privilege of raising you and for the happiness you have brought to our family. May your goals in life always bring you closer to your heavenly father and best friend Jesus Christ.

Love you,

Mom and Papa

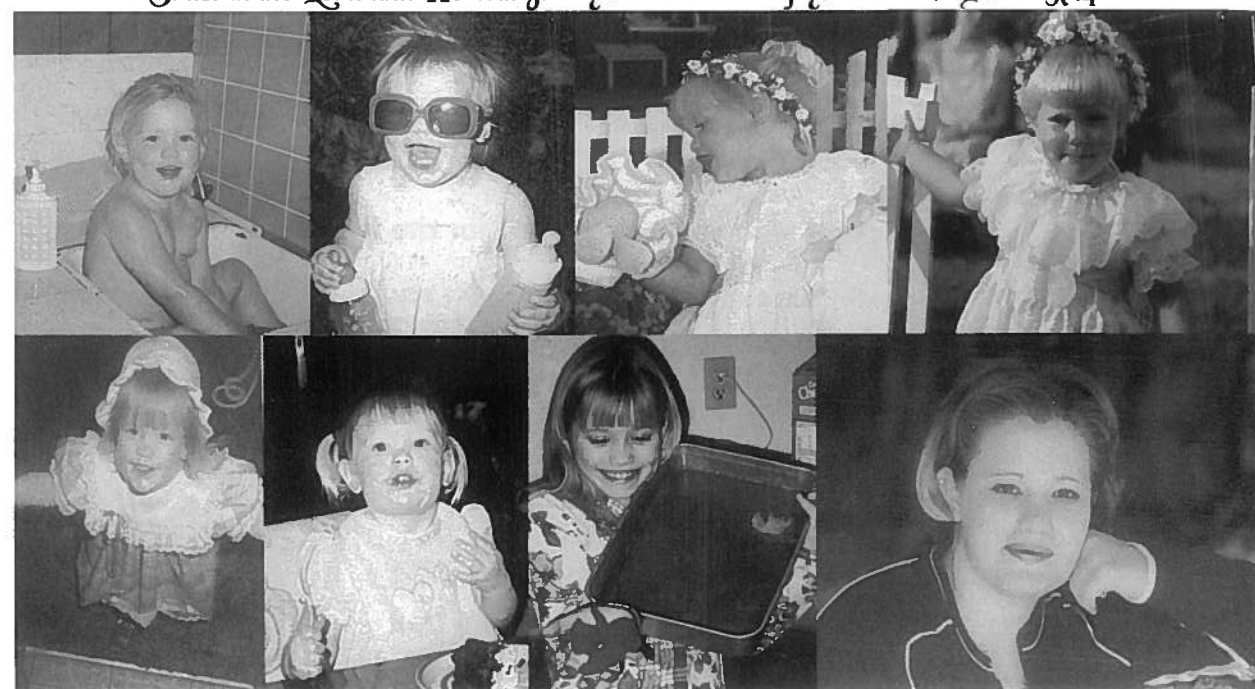

Dearest Jen,
It is so difficult to believe that you are graduating already!! It has truly been a joy to watch you grow-up. Thank you for all your hard work and interest in your scholastic activities. We thank the Lord for you and all the abilities He has blessed you with.

Please stay close to Him and your future will be assured and horizons unlimited.

God Bless and Congratulations,
With much Love,
Mom and Dad

*Kelsie, you have been the most exciting child the Lord could have asked any mother to raise! Our prayer for you is that you always utilize Gods gifts to you; compassion, caring, spontaneity, Your open thoughts, music, poetry and art. May you always allow God to lead and be prepared for the wildest most exciting life you could ever dream of! Love, Mom & Doug

LAUREN BULL!

You have grown from being our adorable, extremely shy baby girl, to our talented, beautiful, straight A (mostly!) student, gentle, etc..., young lady. You have overcome many huge obstacles (that have made you strong) to get where you are today. And we are so proud of you! We know you are going to go a long ways and we will be behind you always! Stay true and faithful to your Heavenly Father, He will always be there for you!

Love, Grammy and Papa

P.S. From Papa: Of all the investments I have ever made, the investment in you and your education is the best one yet! I know it will pay off in the future!

I'm anxious to watch you proceed through life as there are no limits to your abilities. Remember that everything in the limitless universe operates according to the Law of Cause and Effect!

There are no exceptions to the law: nothing happens by accident. For every result, there is a cause. You have only to take care of the cause and the effect will always, without exception, take care of itself. Good cause: good effect. No cause: no effect. Bad cause: bad effect. It is as reliable as the rising of the sun.

All truly successful people have one thing in common: they all know how to use the Law of Cause and Effect to get what they want out of life.

And remember: You will become what you think about!

I know you will become very successful, and I will pray for you every day. I love you very much!
 Dad

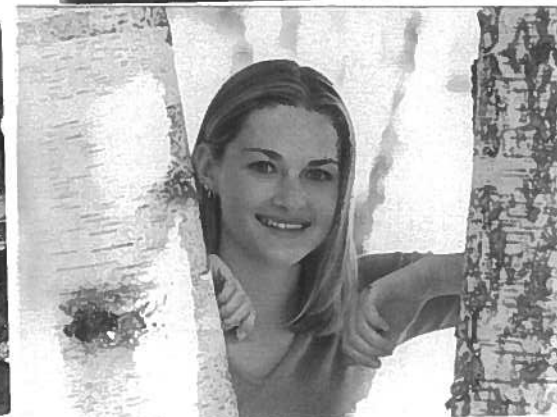

DEAR KATREENA,
WE'VE BEEN SPECIALLY BLESSED BY GOD
SINCE THE DAY YOU WERE BORN. WE LOVE YOU VERY MUCH. WE ARE SO PROUD

Amber- It seems like just yesterday that we sent you out to kindergarten. Now today you are graduating from high school time has gone by quickly. We are proud of you and what you have accomplished during your school years. However you will always thought of as our little girl. Take full advantage of each day, as time passes by so quickly. Always keep God in your daily activities.

We love you,
Mom and Dad

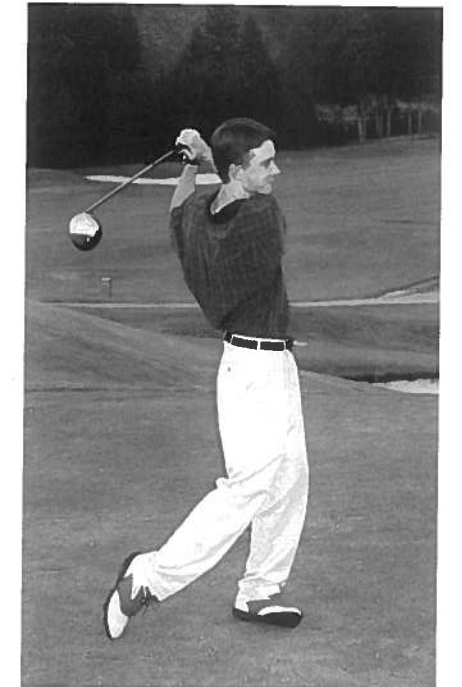

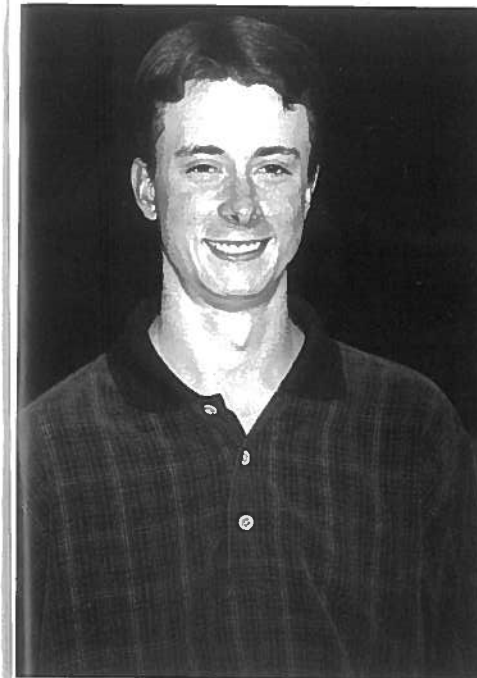

Dear John:

We have always rolled our eyes at parents that went on and on about their "perfect" child. However it is now our turn. Simply put, we love you and appreciate your positive spirit and efforts.

Love Always,
 Mom and Dad

Jeremiah 29:11

Carissa—

The day you, a little dark-eyed pixie, came into our lives a dream came true. From that very first day you stole our hearts.

Confidant, persevering, sensitive, and imaginative, fearful of ants and clowns, but so daring--wanting always to go faster and higher!

Never mind the age difference between you and your brothers, you always wanted to be part of the action. What spice you have added to our lives!

We are so proud of this milestone you have reached. As we look back on your life thus far, and dream of the future before you we have confidence that "He who began a good work in you will carry it out to completion."

We love you!

Mom & Dad (Deut. 8: 6-14)

Carissa,

We are proud of you! You are so REAL, funny, smart, and a kind friend and sis. Keep Jesus in your heart and be REAL with Him 'cause He loves you so much and we want to spend eternity together. Congratulations!

Love,

Luke,
 We've immensely enjoyed every moment of our time with you. It has been wonderful to nurture you from baby to toddler through high school...to enable your wings to take off and fly.

We greatly appreciate your strengths: your strong character, devotion to God, love of the outdoors, thorough work ethic, loyalty to friends, always willingness to pitch in and help others, tenderness and sensitivity, considerate and thoughtfulness of others and more.

Luke, we love you so much! You know we would do anything for you and that we will always...always be there for you. Even more so, much more so, Jesus loves you so much, has/will do anything for you and is always, always with you!

"Those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles. They shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint."

All our love,

EDWIN

Dear Edwin,
We are very proud of who you are and who you are becoming. With God's help we've done our best to give you roots. Now take your wings. Hang onto your dreams. No! Stretch your dreams. God's dreams are even bigger- "Higher than the highest human thought can reach is God's ideal (dream)..."

Love,

To my Big Bruver:

Growing up a step behind you is fun. We share many memories. You have paved the way for me. I count it an honor to be your little sister and watch over your shoulder as you dissect broken toys, build model rockets, fix cars, and inspect computer components. Not every girl has the privilege of having her "Big Bruver" as one of her best friends.

Remember - the sky is NOT the limit. Shoot for the stars, and most importantly, what lies behind them. Always put God first and let Him lead. (Prov. 3:5,6). He knows what HE is doing. Just be the clay in His hands and you will be a masterpiece in the making!

Love,
Your Little Sister,

How
God
Sees You

*"For Christ did not enter a man-made sanctuary that was a copy of the true one,
he entered heaven itself,
now to appear for us
in God's presence."
Hebrews 9:24*

The Bible says that Jesus will take the heat for our sins. He will "appear for us in God's presence" during the judgement. In other words, when God looks at you He sees Jesus--the blameless one!

As you, the graduating class, embark on new endeavors remember the promise of Jesus' love and to put your hopes in Him.
