RYAN MCCUNE

Ryan we are so proud of you!

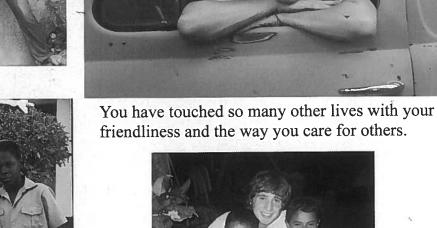

You have brought so much joy into our lives. You are an inspiration to us and others with your compassion, your strong sense of fairness, and your ability to always look at the good in whatever life brings your way.

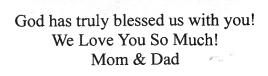

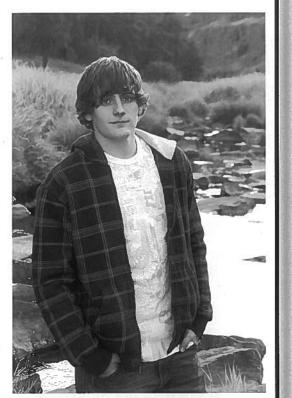

Always Remember Trust in the Lord with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths. Proverbs 3: 5 & 6

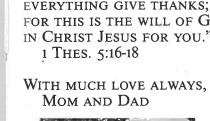

DEAREST SON, ALEC,

"REJOICE ALWAYS, PRAY WITHOUT CEASING, IN EVERYTHING GIVE THANKS; FOR THIS IS THE WILL OF GOD IN CHRIST JESUS FOR YOU."

THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR ALEC! HE HAS BEEN SUCH A PRECIOUS GIFT TO US THESE PAST EIGHTEEN YEARS. WE KNOW THAT THE SAME JOYS AND PLEASURES HAVE BEEN YOURS, GOD, FOR HE EARLY GAVE HIS HEART TO FOLLOW YOU. THANK You for the smiles, the miles, all THE ADVENTURES, EVEN THE TEARS THAT HAVE BROUGHT US ALL CLOSER TO You. Thank You for the wonderful TEACHERS WHO'VE TAUGHT HIM, PEOPLE AFTER YOUR OWN HEART: GRANDMA HARDMAN, DOYLE DICK, PASTOR FRED RIFFEL, STEPHEN LACEY, JOHN SOULÉ. FATHER, WE PRAY THAT EACH DAY HE'LL REMEMBER THAT HE ALWAYS STANDS Alone before You. May he seek You EARLY, AND ALWAYS, GOD, WITH ALL OF HIS HEART, HIS SOUL, STRENGTH, AND MIND, ALWAYS LETTING YOUR MIND, AND HEART BE IN HIM, SEEING OTHERS WITH YOUR EYES AND HEART. FATHER, HELP HIM NEVER TO LEAVE YOUR SIDE, AND TO DAILY REMEMBER THAT YOU'LL NEVER LEAVE HIS. LORD, WE CLAIM YOUR PROMISE TO WRITE YOUR LAWS IN HIS HEART AND MIND. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SON JESUS, FATHER, AND FOR THIS SON OF ours, Alec.

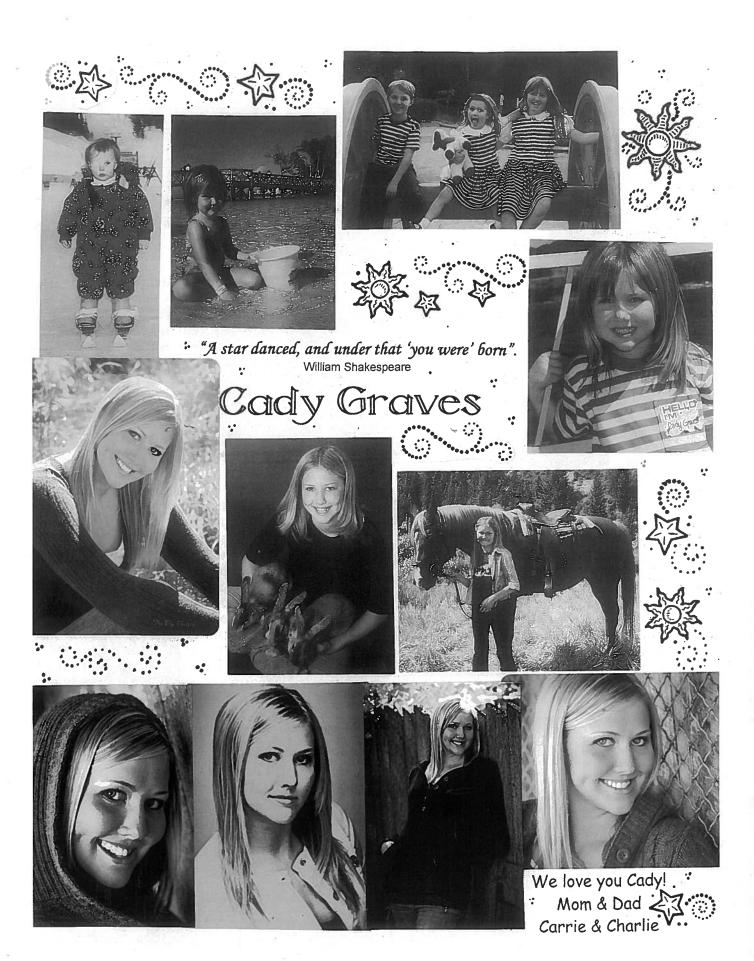

LYNDA AND SCOTT NORTH

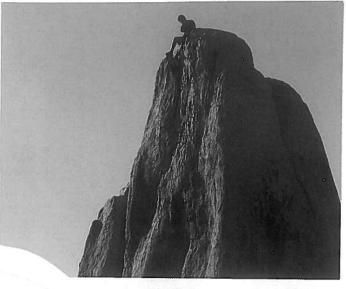

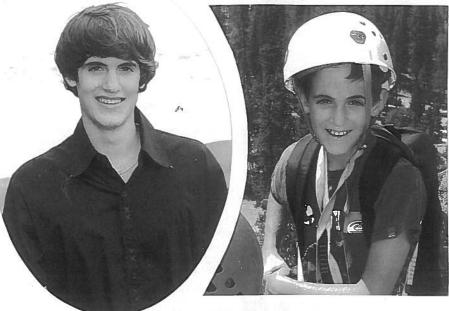

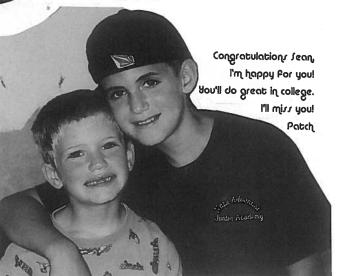

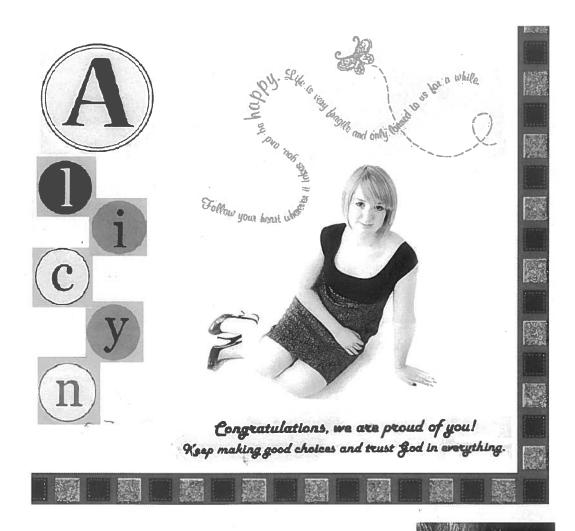

Sean,
It seems like it was yesterday we flew in from Napa to register you for your freshman year here at UCA. What a wonderful experience to see God's leading in that decision. It's been difficult having you so far away from us but we are so proud of your accomplishments both academically & personally. We have treasured every moment with you and daily thank God for the blessing He bestowed on us that foggy day in December some 18 years ago. Continue to follow God's leading; He has an awesome plan for you. We love you so much!

We're proud of you and the man you are becoming.

Hiways look up and know he cares.

Mom & Dad

William Moore

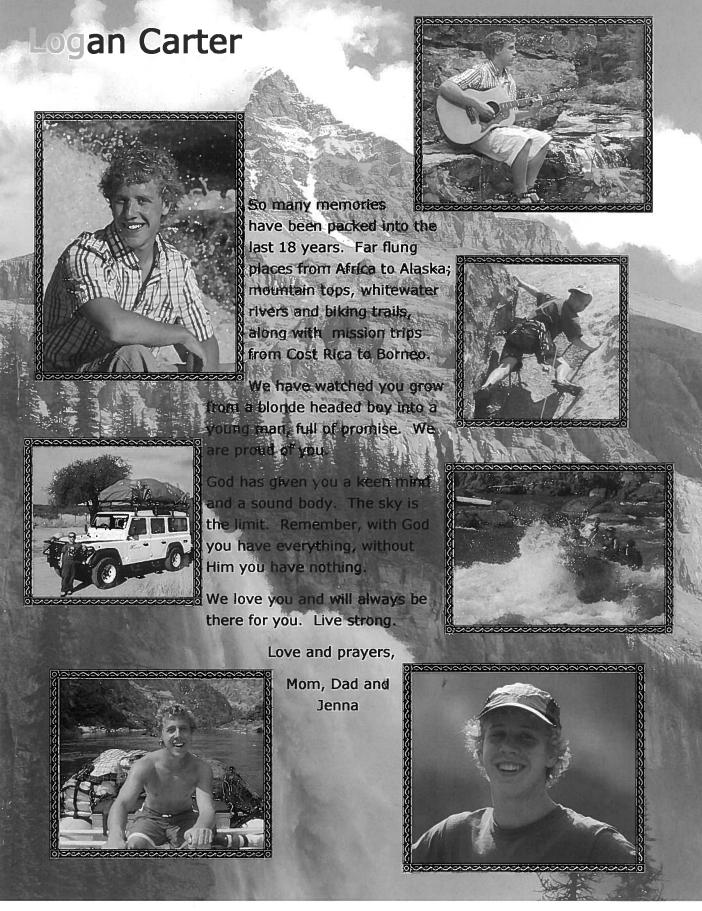

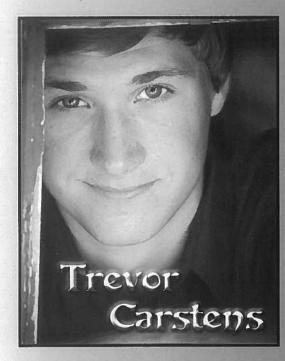

Good job graduating. Relorya & Zac

Thank the man who gives you advice, challenge your adversaries, and knockout the guy who says you're no good. Take on the world and don't let anyone stop you.

Hon & Shawna

Dear Trevor,

From the moment you were born you have always been a source of pure joy to your family and friends. That joy has only increased as you have grown to be such a wonderful young man. We are so proud of you and love you with all our hearts.

Dad, Mom and Clay

Kelsi Anne Wheeler

Dear Kelsi,

Eighteen years ago you entered our lives as a precious gift from God.

It has been fun watching you hold your own against 2 older brothers & develop your love of music & gymnastics.

We are delighted to see you become the beautiful woman that God has designed you to be. You really are lovely both inside & out.

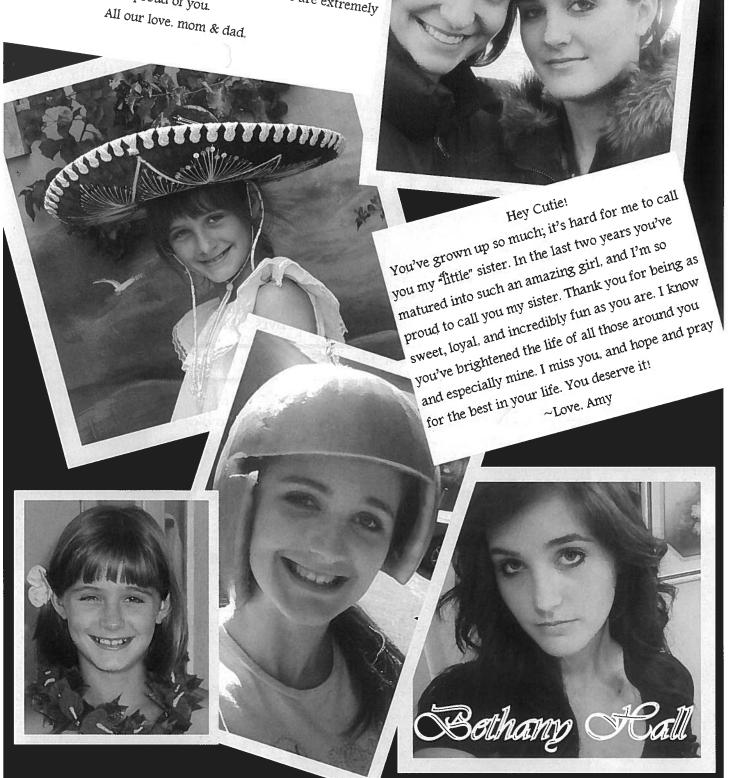

Never forget that life is about falling in love with Him.

Love,

Mom & Dad David & Doug

For 18 years you have been a joy and blessing to us. You have Dear Bethany, grown into a beautiful and wise young woman who can do anything she sets her mind to. Remember the true secret to happiness is in seeking God's will in your life. We are extremely

CAITLIN EDWARDS

Jambo, Jambo, Bwana. Habari gani?

ALL OUR LOVE,

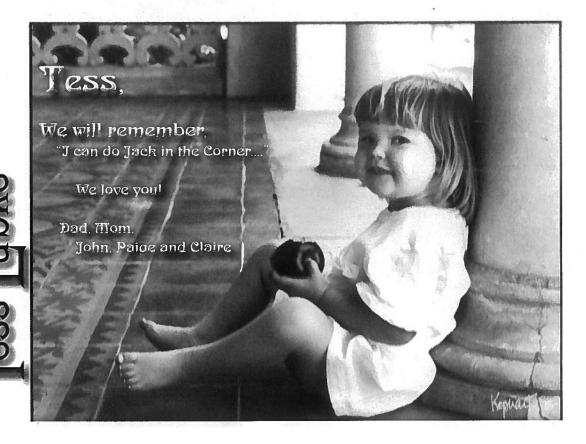

Mom and Dad

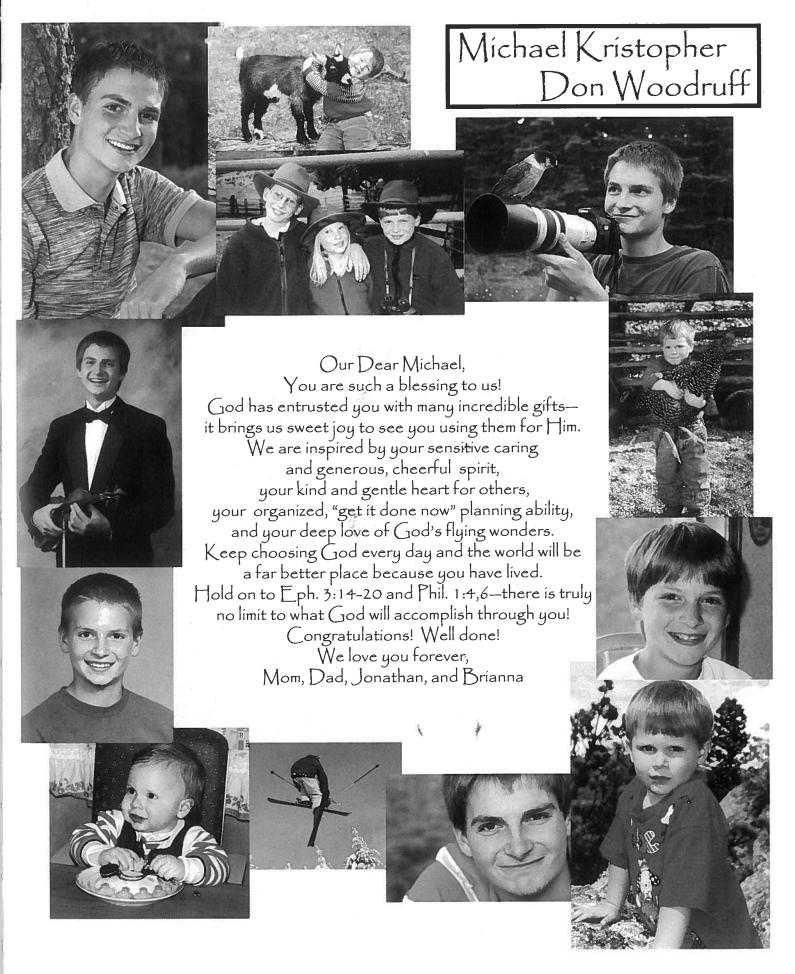

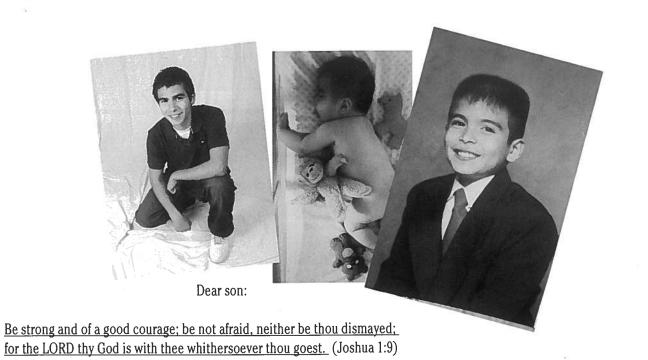

CAITLIN,

Someone once wrote: "Where we love is home. Home that our feet may leave, but not our hearts." Africa was your home, but you had to leave it. Where your mommy and daddy are has been your home, but one day you will leave it. We pray that throughout your life you will be surrendered to God to allow Him to direct your feet and claim your heart so that heaven will be that place that your feet and heart will never have to leave.

We are so proud of you. It has been fun watching you grow from such a tiny little girl with a big love of adventure into a young woman with a huge love of adventure. Your zeal for life and your desire to try new things keeps us on the edge of our seats. Will you be the entomologist you thought you would be at age four or the physical therapist you thought you would be at the age of thirteen? Perhaps you will be the physicians assistant you thought you would be at the age of eighteen. Wherever you will be and whatever you will be, we will love you. We will hold you up to God all the days of our lives. With God there are no workies.

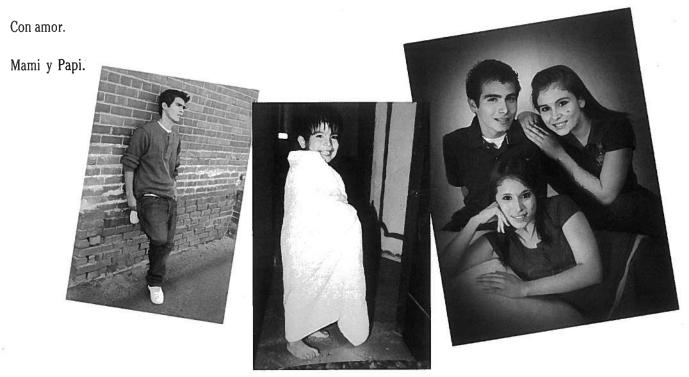

We love you so much, and we are so proud of you. You are a really good son, brother and friend. Our God will bless you forever, if you keep his word in your heart.

With love.

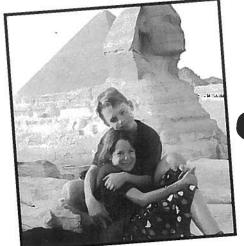

Mom and Dad.

Ouerido Pablito:

Te amamos mucho, eres uno de los mejores regalos que Dios nos dio, y agradecemos al cielo por lo buen hijo que siempre has sido. Dios estará siempre contigo, si guardas su palabra en tu corazón.

Lindsay Gardner

Dear Lindsay,

It is difficult to sum up 18 and a half years of life in 500 words or less, but here goes. God blessed us with a girl to match the boy we already had, and what a ray of sunshine you have been. Faced with a leg brace on the day you took your first step, you emerged on the other side as a tough, "I can do it myself" kind of girl. And now you have grown into a beautiful, talented, loving young woman. All of us are incredibly proud of you, and we are grateful to you for what you have given us. You have been the girl-grandma Connie always longed for, and grandpa Cliff has been able to drive a boat for his wake boarder. You have carried on Nanny's gift of writing and storytelling, and you have given Jonathan a little sister to love and protect. Thanks to you your mother has horses again, and your father has had someone to watch MASH with over a bowl of Top Ramen. But most of all you have given us love and laughter, two of God's greatest gifts. Your love has shown itself in your tears the night we left Chennaram, in your tender care of your aunt and grandmothers, and in your devotion to your animals. When you are around there is never a shortage of funny stories, or of pranks to be pulled, the sun is always brighter, and the sky is bluer, because you are there.

As you stand on the brink of adulthood never forget that there is joy in the Lord, and that God is love.

Rachel,

You are truly a precious gift from God to us. From the very beginning you were a girl full of life, enthusiasm and tender love. Your outgoing personality would light up the room whenever you would enter. From the young age when you asked the Lord into your heart, your convictions and opinions have been strong and he has been your refuge and strength. The way you deeply love people, love the land and quietness of the country, avoid the city and going "shopping" at all cost and your talent for capturing God's creation on camera, are all a part of the very special person you are. Especially wonderful is the way you love others. We, as your parents, love you dearly and are so proud of who you have become. We pray the Lord will always be a light unto your feet, that He will protect you and direct your path in His perfect way.

All our love,

Dad and Mom

Alan Reed

Alan Reed was hatched "a very unique kid" at Providence Hospital in Michigan-where his mother picked him up and took him home. He was born on September 6th, 1988. It was a real joy having him as my child. Some where in 5th grade his friends nick named him "Alien" and it stuck to where we called him "Alien" at home too sometimes -along with other things.

Most of his life he grew up in Nevada with his sisters Clarissa and Kim and brother Benjamin. He enjoys being with friends and being at Upper Columbia Academy with friends and playing games with them.

After graduation he plans on going to Alaska on one of the fishing boats—then joining the Navy after a while.

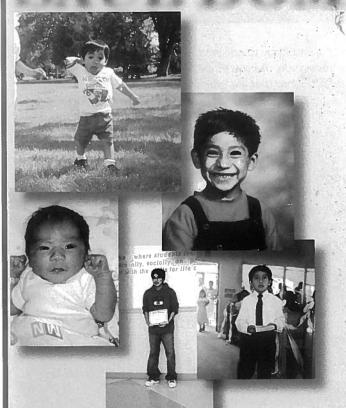

I love you son and hope you accomplish your hopes and dreams. And remember:

> "GOD KNEW YOU BEFORE YOU WERE BORN" Jeremiah 1:5

Haz trabajado muy duro para lograr tus metas y estamos muy orgullosos por lo que haz logrado. Te queremos mucho y siempre puedes contar con nuestro apoyo incondicional. Te pedimos que pongas a Dios en primer lugar sobre todas las cosas y seas fiel para que telsiga guiando en tu vida y en tus metas que te has propuesto, por que el tiene un plan para tu vida.

Con Todo Amor,

Colton,

For 18 years now, you have brought untold joy to our lives, and to the lives of everyone who has known you. As you embark on the next path of your life, always remember that life is largely a resume', of which you are the main author. Every decision you make is another entry.

Always choose to be a leader for good, instead of a follower.

Don't hesitate to ask advice of those whom you respect.

Read the Bible, and in the words of Abraham Lincoln, "take all of this book upon reason that you can, and the balance on faith, and you will live and die a happier and better man."

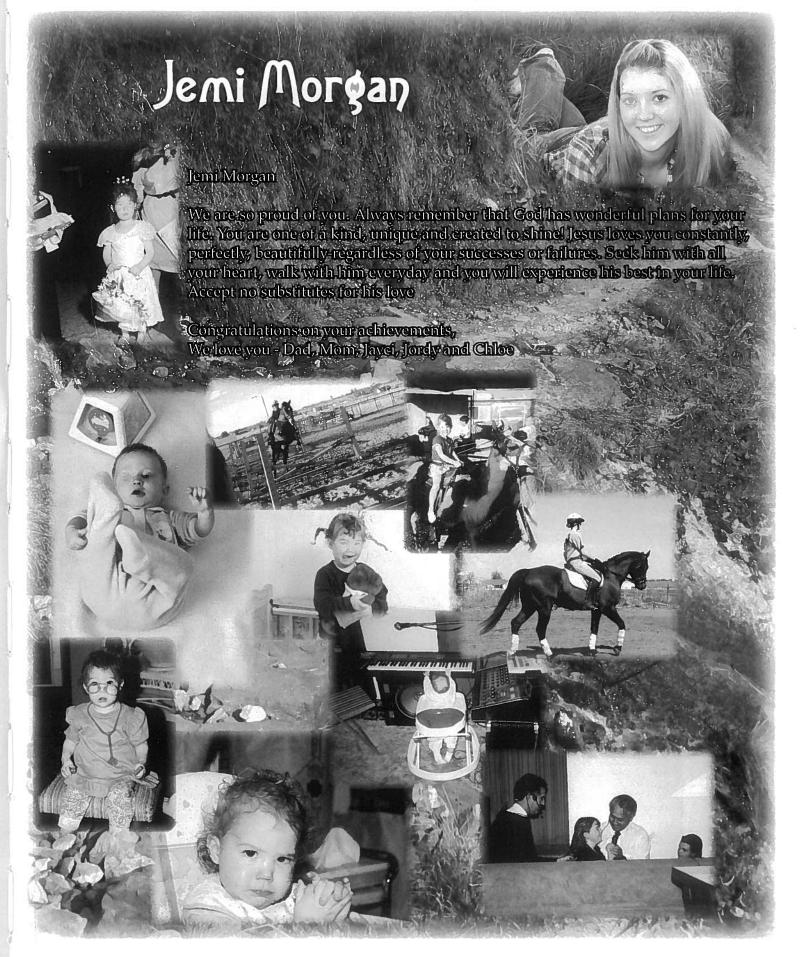

Remember, "In all thy ways, acknowledge Him and He shall direct thy paths." Proverbs 3:6.

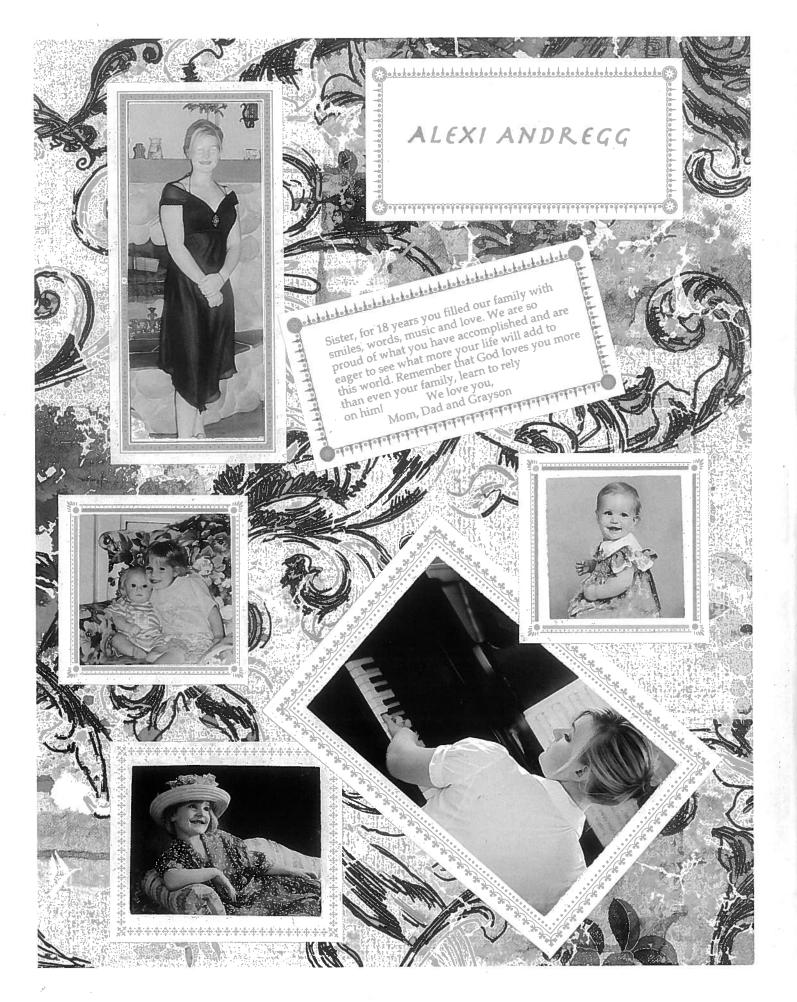

Wherever those paths may take you, we will be there with all our love and support.

I couldn't be prouder, it boarders on the absurd. Remember to mold the world to your desire, leaving it far greener than when you found it, providing that your desire was pure.

-Your Brother

How can we adequately express how much you have made our hearts overflow.

When you were a child, you were a great child, and now you are a wonderful man and have outgrown the ways of a child.

1st Corinthians 13: 11-13

But don't loose your inner child, for that is the part of you that embraces the joy of life, and accept Christ, who gives you that Joy.

TY PORTER

I have watched you hurdle over many obstacles throughout your eighteen years. On several occasions I thought you would give up, but you have always had a certain drive inside you that kept you pushing ahead. After you, your brother and I accepted the Lord in our lives, I learned who was with you all that time helping.

I want to thank you for giving me strength at times that I needed a smile, a hug, or maybe an "I love you, mom". I'm so proud of you and my prayers are for the Lord to lead you in a long and happy life.

Ty, you are a handsome, friendly, considerate, passionate, loving young man who cared deeply about all human beings. The Lord has truly blessed you in your goal to spread his word and I pray that you will always keep your trust in him.

Love you,

Mom

Eddy,

Son, I would like to say that I thank God for giving me a son like you. I feel really proud of you. Please don't ever change -always be the same person you are. Remember that happiness, sensitivity, and honesty are things that are really important in life. Remember that PRIDE is something worthless to God and you know it. I ask and beg God to be with you and protect you always, because from this day on you start a new topic in your life, for you to keep on walking with God and may He be close to your heart. And remember that God is always going to have a plan for your life.

Best wishes.

Your Dad, Mom, Brian, Arlene, and Jose C.

Katelyn Moseanko

Congratulations Katelyn!

As your "Canadian" grandparents, we are so proud of your successful completion of Grade 12 at UCA. It's a real tribute to you, your parents, and your teachers.

We were thankful for a granddaughter when you were born, and through the years for the wise and good decisions you have made. We recall with joy your two trips to England with us, and the special mission trips you have made to Central America, S.E. Asia, and Africa as an ambassador of Jesus. Continue to enjoy your youth, study hard, cultivate your friendship with Jesus and do something beautiful with your life.

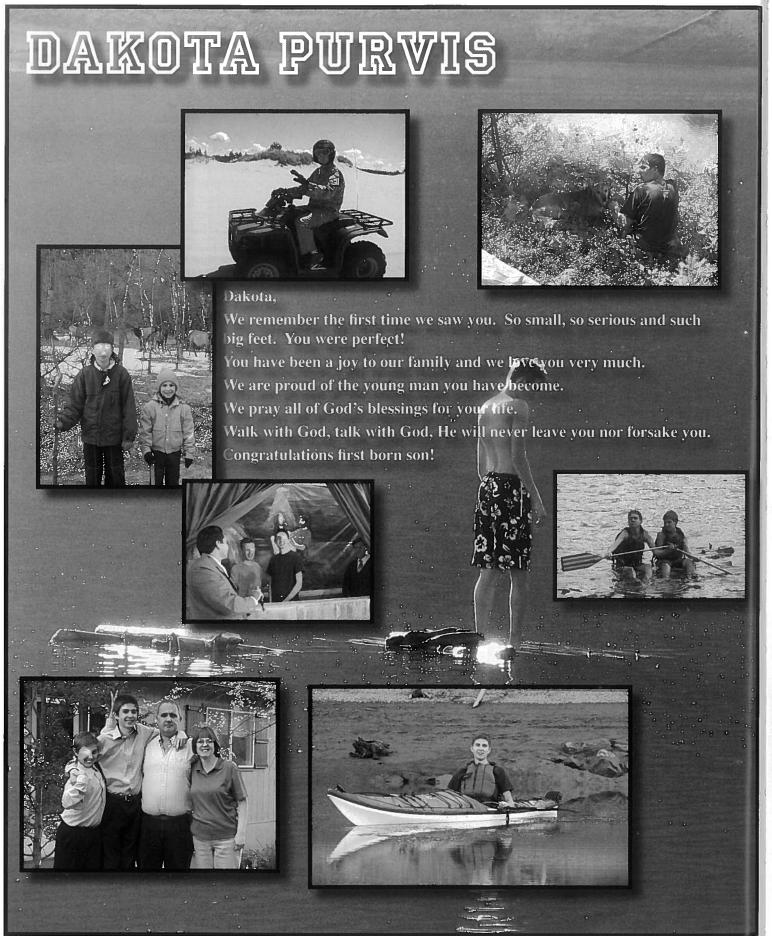

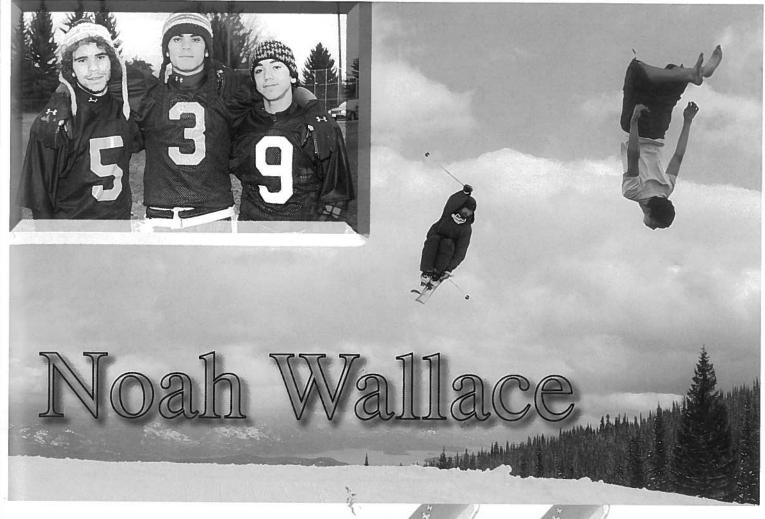

It is so hard to believe that you will soon be graduating from High School and facing decisions that will affect your adult life. You have grown up so fast and have grown into a beautiful young lady, both inside and out! Grandpa is so proud of you in so many ways but most of all for your commitment to a relationship with God. Don't ever loose that relationship, Katelyn. You are very special to me and you always make me smile with your cheerful and happy attitude! God bless you my sweet granddaughter in all your future endeavors and always know I love you!

Love, Grandpa Dick

It seems like yesterday that you were that small child dressed so pretty with bows in your hair and a teddy bear in your arms. Oh, how the years have passed! I am so proud of what you have become! I believe in you Katelyn and as you are about to celebrate your Graduation day and your whole life is ahead of you, have faith the Lord will lead! Congratulations my dear precious Granddaughter and may you always know that you are loved beyond measure and that God will always hold you in his arms!

Love, Grandma Jan
